

ROURKES LOSE IN THE NINTH

Pass, a Hit and a Wild Throw by Thomas Let in Winning Run.

CRIPPLED NINE HOLDS CREAMS WELL

Greatest Trouble Was Inability to Hit the Ball, Making Only Four Safe Ones of Kenna During the Nine Innings.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Aside from the ultimate result, which was 2 to 1 in favor of the Creams, there was nothing particularly exciting or sensational connected with the meeting of Milwaukee and Omaha today. Both teams played good ball, but few opportunities were offered to score. Kenna, who was in the box for the Creams, was effective at critical times. In the sixth, however, he was wild and passed three, forcing in the only run that Omaha was able to get. This was the only inning in which they had an opportunity, but with the bases full, after two were out, Thomas struck out. Aside from this inning, not an Omaha player reached third and only one got as far as second.

The Creams hit Schafstall rather freely, but not in a way to produce runs. They got their first hit in the third inning on hits by Hall, Lucia and McVicker's two-bagger. The Omaha tied in the sixth on a pass to Genia, Miller's hit and passes to Welch and Shugart. The Creams made the winning run in the ninth on a pass to Cockman. Miller's hit and subsequent out on Hall's fielder's choice, coming in on a bad throw from Thomas to the plate when Hall and Cockman tried the double steal. The lineup will show the crippled team Rourke had in the field. Attendance, 400. Score:

NEW AGREEMENT ACCEPTED

Base Ball Commission Makes but Few Changes in Document.

AWARDED PLAYERS TO GO TO BIG LEAGUES

Major League Organizations May Draft Men Until September 1, but Only Two Players from Any Class a Club.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.—At a meeting of representatives of the National Association of Minor Base Ball Leagues and of the base ball commission at the St. Nicholas hotel here today the national agreement signed by the two major leagues recently and rejected by the minor league clubs was accepted by the latter organization after a few changes had been made. The drafting period of players was changed from August 15 to September 1 and the price for class A players fixed at $750, payable one-half in cash on the signing of the contract and the remainder on June 1. It was also agreed that only two players can be drafted from each of the class A clubs.

The players who were originally awarded to major league clubs by the Cincinnati agreement last winter and who are now playing in minor leagues were ordered to the major leagues. The players are Newton, Hughes and Corbett, awarded to Brooklyn, Dudson and Jones to the Chicago American league and Hickey to the Cleveland American league.

Another meeting will be held at noon tomorrow, when the agreement will be ratified. Those present at the meeting were: President August Herrmann of the Cincinnati National league, President Harry Fullerton of the National league, President of the American league, representing the national base ball commission; President Powers of the National Association of Minor Leagues, President Sexton of the Western league, President Cavanaugh of the Southern league, Secretary Farrell of the National Association of Minor Leagues, Ned Hanlon of Baltimore and W.
