AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Talk of Changing Location of City Offices Heard Again.

EVANS LAUNDRY BUILDING IN VIEW

Councilmen Debate the Matter Informally, but Come to No Decision as to City Hall.

It may be that the headquarters of the city officials will be changed on December 1. The lease of the city for the building is now in force until December 1 of this year.

Assault on Still at Large. The assault of the Krogger girl is still at large, and while the police say that they are confident they will yet catch him, it is generally thought that he will never be apprehended.

Will Leave South Omaha. Frank Riley, a popular young man in the city, and for the last four years in the employ of the South Omaha office of the Adams Express company, has resigned and will leave the city, at least temporarily.

After Messenger Boys. Trustee Officer David Condon has notified the messenger offices of the city that all boys under school age must start in school Monday.

Maize City Gossip. Mrs. Jay Levery is visiting in Lincoln. Miss Bertha Houseman is visiting in Clinton, Ia.

There was only a light run at the stock yards yesterday. Mrs. D. J. Holman and Mrs. John M. Tanner are visiting in St. Louis.

Plans are about completed for the street fair of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, September 22.

The condition of Nate Johnson, who has been seriously ill for several days, was reported improved last evening.

Judge Louisa of Grinnell, who was visiting friends in South Omaha yesterday, returned to his home last evening.

William H. Rowley, who underwent a serious operation at the Wise Memorial hospital in Omaha, is reported improving.

There is but very little political prospect of an increase in interest in the matter.

Anton Olewicki has sworn out a complaint in the police court, charging John Kostovitch with having stolen a stock for 25 cents to as many dollars and cashed the same at his saloon at Twenty-sixth and G streets.

CLARK IN THE TOILS AGAIN

This Time He is Accused of Stealing Dr. Coffman's Surgical Instruments.

Charles Clark, who gives his residence as Council Bluffs, was arrested yesterday afternoon and is locked up at the station, charged with being a suspicious character.

The police assert that Clark is the man who stole $53 worth of surgical instruments from the office of Dr. V. Coffman on August 2 last. The police have been searching for the stolen goods ever since they were taken.

One lot of instruments which was pawned here and afterward shipped out to Hot Springs, S. D., was traced up, but it developed that they were not the goods wanted. In looking for Dr. Coffman's instruments another lot was located in a local pawnshop which had been stolen by the same man, the owner of which has never been found.

The instruments are still in possession of the pawnbroker, as no one was trying to locate a microscope valued at $100 which had been taken from his office. When the prisoner was taken to the station he agreed to deliver the instrument if the physician would agree not to prosecute.

It is thought that the affair was not held a week ago, when rain prevented it. The women in charge of the institution will be on hand all day, willing and ready to show all visitors to the park how the interests of the association can be further advanced, outside of the payment of a 10-cent admission ticket.

Local Brevities. Senator James T. Brady of Albion was in the city yesterday.

The hearing of George McDonald, a colored boy, charged with having extracted $10 from his piano Wednesday night, was continued until Monday.

William Nolan and John Ferrick, both of Fort Crook, were arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of having stolen a bicycle from a man from the fort about six weeks ago.

E. A. Buford, who gives his address as Fifteenth and Chicago streets, did not look good to the police as he was watched up and charged with being a vagrant and suspicious character. He will be held for investigation.

Leo, Heath, the messenger boy who was severely injured by falling from his bicycle several days ago, was reported as very little better last night than when the accident happened. At times he is still unconscious, and seems to improve very slowly.

J. E. Green, living at the Center hotel, was arrested as a suspicious character last night. When searched at the station he had a pawn ticket for a ring in his possession and he will be held pending an investigation as to how he secured the jewelry.

Wallace H. Packard, wanted in North Platte, Neb., for forgery, was taken to that city today or tomorrow. The police received a telegram from the sheriff there yesterday evening that a deputy had been dispatched to secure the prisoner and take him back.

Hans Peterson arrived in the city from Pipestone, Minn., yesterday. He proceeded to the police station where he was taken last night some one who had stolen a watch and took his piece from his pocket. He landed in the police station at the stairs at the Thurston hotel, his face was pretty badly scratched up by the fall.

The humane society caused the arrest of John McCormick, who lives at sixth and Webster streets, yesterday on the charge of cruelty to animals. McCormick has been engaged in the business of buying poor and worn-out horses and using them for hauling garbage about the city until they died. He has been arrested on the same charge before.

Henry Bittle came all the way from St. Louis to get into the city jail. He is accused of stealing a bicycle belonging to John Gray, from in front of the Young Men's Christian Association building. The wheel was found in the possession of a police station and was in the possession of Bittle when arrested. He was trying to sell it in a pawnshop.

CHAPLAIN IS GIVEN CHARGE

Irregularities Discovered in Cigar Department of Pennsylvania Prison.

REVENUE OFFICERS IMPOUND GOODS

Warden is Given Vacation and the Chaplain Placed in Control While Investigation of Affairs is Being Made.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.—Alleged irregularities have been discovered in the cigar department of the state penitentiary, and acting upon the suggestion of Inspector Robinson and Hart, United States internal revenue officials are investigating the business methods of the institutions.

Warden Daniel W. Bussinger has been granted an indefinite vacation and Overseer Robert Armstrong, in charge of the cigar manufacturing department, has been suspended.

The institution has been placed temporarily in charge of Rev. Joseph Welch, the chaplain. The investigation covers the period from the first of the year to the first of the present month, and the internal revenue officials have closed the cigar department and have impounded all of the raw and manufactured material.

While the discovery of shortages in the cigar factory are acknowledged, the full extent of these will not be known until the experts shall have completed their investigation. It is, however, stated by United States officials that so far at least 80,000 cigars are unaccounted for, and these at the minimum price of 20 per 100 indicate a loss to the state's exchequer of not less than $1,600.

Inspector Robinson says each department is to be investigated. "We have not found anything that militates against the personal integrity and ability of the warden, but we have found abundant evidence that the old methods so long in vogue are faulty and antiquated," says the inspector.

GOING OUT TO MEET STICKNEY

Two Coach Loads of Omaha Business Men Make Trip to Fort Dodge.

The special train of two Pullman sleepers, bearing about forty of the representative business men of Omaha, who go to Fort Dodge, Ia., to meet President Stickney of the Chicago Great Western Railway company, pulled out of the Union station at last night. In the party were: W. C. Keegan, J. L. Build, D. E. Parshure, J. C. H. Picken, Z. T. Lindsay, W. S. Wright, D. J. O'Brien, M. Wulpi, N. Merriam, A. C. Smith, F. E. Sanborn, R. S. Wilcox, H. J. Fenfold, Fred Patterson, E. C. Martin, J. E. Baum, Charles E. Ady, H. S. Walker, F. W. Johnson, W. L. Yetter, H. K. Burkett, A. A. Hawtizer, G. L. Hammer, E. E. Bryson, C. E. Walte, Mel Uhl, J. B. Rahm, C. E. Watson, George F. Thomas, Charles E. Berry, J. E. Uhl, J. G. Martin, P. E. Her and George Burke.

It is expected that the train will arrive in Fort Dodge early this morning. Breakfast will be taken there. As soon as the train of President Stickney arrives from the east the two coaches bearing the Omaha delegation will be hooked onto it and hauled by the same engine to the city. It is expected that the train will arrive in Omaha at 1:30 this afternoon.

The two coaches which went out last night will go direct to the Iowa town without stopping, excepting where it is necessary to take coal and water for the engine.

G. F. Thomas, general agent of the Chicago Great Western in Omaha, and C. R. St. Joseph, general agent of the same line in St. Joseph, went with the business men to see that everything passed off smoothly and that they are properly taken care of along the line.

The party was very quiet and the majority of them sought their berths at once after getting into the train.

STILL AFTER THE NEW PARK

Omaha View Improvers Likely to Secure the Beach They Seek from the Board.

When the Omaha View Improvement club met at its accustomed place last evening it was confronted with the proposition that it had been locked out and was without a habitation. It was ascertained later that the Board of Education had revoked the authority for the club holding its meetings at the Omaha View school house, and other quarters had to be hunted. Simon Robinson tendered the use of his residence at Thirty-third and Miami streets, and the invitation was accepted.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES

"The Volunteer" at the Boyd.

Cora Van Tassel is old enough to know better; but maybe she doesn't care. At any rate she and her company need all the charity they can get under the plea that they are not regulars—they're only volunteers. For "The Volunteer" comes pretty near being the limit in the way of trashy melodrama, and the company that presented it to a small but patient audience at the Boyd last night, isn't far away from the amateur class; awkward amateurs at that. A matinee and evening performance close the engagement today.

Flanagan Wants a Burg.

Chief of Police Donahue received a message from the authorities in Pittsburg yesterday afternoon stating that an officer is pointed a special committee of one to see on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. When Flanagan was arrested he gave the name of John Carson, but from the description which the police had they believed it was William Flanagan who was wanted in Pittsburg on the charge of shooting with intent to kill Charles Head. The shooting occurred in a lodging house row some time ago, and it was thought at first that Head would die. Flanagan escaped and a description of him was sent to all the principal cities. By an investigation of the case since Carson was arrested here it has been ascertained that he is the Flanagan wanted in the Pennsylvania city.
