One of the most attractive booths on the street fair and carnival grounds is that containing the Groneweg & Schoenigen company's Yale coffee display. The booth is in charge of Mr. R. F. Seitz, local representative of the Steinwender-Suffregen Coffee company of St. Louis and New York, who designed the handsome display and decorations. The booth, tastefully decorated in blue and white, with its neatly arranged display, attracts attention daily from thousands of the carnival visitors. Mr. Seitz has not alone made an elegant display of Yale coffee, but, in order that the carnival visitors may sample it, made arrangements with the ladles of the Baptist church to serve Yale coffee exclusively in their booth, where hundreds daily sip a cup of the fragrant and refreshing beverage.

LEWIS CUTLER MORTICIAN,

SETTLE WITH TAX FERRE

County Board and Cunningham Get Together on Compromise.

TERMS SAME AS WERE ONCE REJECTED

Claimant is Given a Check for $7,125 and Dismisses the Pending Littgation at His Own Cost.

F. M. Cunningham, the tax ferret, effected a settlement with the Board of county Supervisors yesterday and his suit in the districts court to recover compensation under his contract to unearth property which had been withheld or omitted from assessment was dismissed at his cost.

Under the contract entered into with Cunningham by the county board on No-vember 13, 1896, he was to receive 80 per cent of all moneys recovered into the county treasury through his efforts in discovering property which was subject to taxation but had not been assessed. The contract covered a period of eightsen ionths and as a result of Cunningham's work over $24,000 was recovered into the ounty treasury. Under the terms of the contract Cunningham would have been entitled to at least $12,000.

Shortly after the county entered into the restricting the compensation of tax ferrets to 15 per cent of the collections, and the bill further provided that unless the tax ferrets then operating under contract in the different counties agreed in writing within thirty days after the bill became a law to accept the 15 per cent compensation, their contracts became null and void. The enactment of this law resulted in litigation all over the state between the different countles and the tax ferrets. The supervisors of this county, relying on the new law, went back on their contract with Cunningham and flatly refused to allow his claim for 50 per cent of the collections. Cunningham, on the other hand, refused to accept the 15 per cent and finally suit was brought by him against the county.

Under the settlement reached yesterday Cunningham receives 50 per cent of collections for the years 1896, 1897 and 1898, and 15 per cent for the years 1899 and 1900. efforts will be made on the 15 per cent basis. Before bringing suit Cunningham but the board refused the offer. Since Cunningham's arrival, however, he and the conferences, with the result of the compromise being reached yesterday.

BOSS BARBERS ARE DOING THE WORK State Auditor Files Report of Fees Collected by His Predecessor

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Sept. 11.-(Special.)-Ex-Last night the crowd scener of the Deputy United States Marshal William E. seeing all the amusement features of the Richards of this city and formerly of Creston, is to have his trial on a charge of complicity in the robbery of Peter Sullivan of Hamilton week after next at Indianola. Richards was indicted in Marior county, where the robbery was committed Frank Baird of Creston was tried for being one of the party of robbers, and, as he was shot by Sullivan and captured nearly dead, his conviction was easy. He was sentenced to eighteen years in the penitentiary by Judge J. D. Gamble, In proof Calvert, who performs daring feats on a ble took occasion to severely denounced nouncing sentence upon Baird Judge Gam; Richards and to declare in open court that the Woman's Christian association on the Richards was more guilty than Baird and to indicate his belief that it was Richards who planned the whole robbery. Richards had just returned from Mexico, where he went in haste after the robbery and before he was suspected of knowing anything about the affair. On account of the statements of Judge Gamble and local prejudice Richards secured a change of venue to another county and the case was sent to Warren, It so happens that Judge Gamble holds the next term of court at Indianola and the first case to come before him is that of Richards. The latter asked a continuance to another term so that he would not have to be tried before Judge Gamble, but the latter has overruled the notion for a continuance and declares that he will sit at the trial of Richards. This has caused the friends of Richards much apprehension and they declare that if he is convicted the fact of the prejudice of the presiding judge, as shown in a previous trial, will secure a new trial for him. Richards is out on bail, and his former associates in federal official positions are loyally standing by him.
