GENINS' MISCUE LETS IN ANOTHER ONE

Omaha Makes as Many Hits as Milwankee, but They Are Not Opportune and Base Running is Poor.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 11 .- (Special Telegram.)-Shugart's wild throw and G. Miller's fumble and wild pitch later cost Omaha the second game of the present series with Duffy's leaders. The game was won and lost in the second inning. Cockman started the trouble by a single in this inning and Miller was sent to first on balls. Then, to make matters worse, Pitcher Miller fumbled a bunt and filled the bases; Stone followed and hit a short one to Shugart. The second baseman handled it cleanly, but threw when it was too late to catch the runner. The ball went wild and before it could be returned three men had crossed the plate, but one of the runs being earned. In the meantime Stone had reached third and he, too, cantered home on the wild pitch. The Creams added an-four bad balls, had not permitted himself to be caught off third base by a quick throw by Lucia. In the eighth inning it looked as if the Nebraskans might tie the score. After Genins had gone out Duffy dropped D. Miller's fly and Thornton singled. One man crossed the plate and Shugart was given a life, at second and Rourke's men got just as many hits as did the Creams, but their base running was poor and they could not take advantage of the opportunities offered.
