

NOT NEW AT THE BUSINESS

Wallace H. Packard, Alleged Forger, Said to Be Versatile Operator.

RECORD UNFOLDED BY OMAHA POLICE

Young Man is Taken Back to His Home at North Platte to Await Developments in Court.

It has developed that Wallace H. Packard, alleged forger, the young man captured by Detectives Marshall and Davis at the Omaha National bank Friday noon, has been playing his craft for some time past, invariably making his relatives at North Platte the victims. His first successful attempt, according to information secured by the police, was at North Platte about September 2, when he is said to have cashed a check, supposedly signed by his aunt, Mrs. Rittner, for $51. He is next heard from in Denver, where, it is alleged, he passed a check for $35 signed by himself, and which when discovered to be worthless was made good by relatives residing there, who had identified him at a local bank. When his room at the Paxton hotel was searched Friday, among the young man's effects the police say they found a check drawn and signed by Packard which only lacked the inserting of a stated amount to make it a full-fledged check. It is the opinion of the police that the young man intended springing the check on the management of the hotel.

It is alleged that letters which Packard evidently intended mailing to a man named Butts, who resides near Denver, were found in his effects, in which he promised to deliver to Butts forty head of young cattle at an average price per head of $25. In this letter, the police say, Packard had arranged to meet Butts at Kansas City and arrange final details for the delivery of the stock.

Packard is but 23 years of age. He is tall and has an impressive face which betokens anything but the rogue. He is said to be well-connected. O. E. Elder, deputy sheriff of Lincoln county, arrived here yesterday and returned to North Platte with Packard.

Picture Parade.

It has been noted, we believe, by almost every person in Omaha that twice each year, generally in the fore part of April and September, that the pedestrians of all the down town streets, in fact nearly all the streets of Omaha, including the suburban districts, are veritably avalancheed by the souvenirs of the People's Store. This firm has made a specialty at their spring and fall openings to give away handsome souvenirs, pictures without printing on the face, which has helped to popularize these occasions.

Tomorrow will be their annual fall opening and the management of this large firm promises that the souvenirs for tomorrow will be larger, prettier and a better piece of artistic work than any of the preceding ones. We feel sure that their opening will be an auspicious one in the retail world. The store will be open tomorrow from 3 until 10 in the eve, with the exception of the hour from 6 to 7 p. m.

Abbott's orchestra in the afternoon and Abbott's band of twenty pieces in the evening will furnish the music. The management invites every man, woman and child to the opening.
