

NEW BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

Alma's Magazine for October Filled with Many Bright Features.

"PLACE AND POWER" A PLEASING BOOK
"Cowboy Life on the Sidetrack" Is an Extremely Humorous and Sarcastic Story of a Party Shiping Cattle.

"Local Color" is the title of a short story in Alma's Magazine for October by Jack London, author of "The Call of the Wild."

"The Yellow Crayon" by E. Phillips Oppenheim, is a story of the Order of the Yellow Crayon, a secret society, composed of the nobles of the earth, and originally instituted for the united action against socialists and anarchists.

"The Change of Heart," six love stories by M. H. DeWitt. These captivating love stories, by one of our best-known short story writers, whose cheerful optimism and genuine belief in the highest ideals, make her romances at once inspiring and satisfying.

"The Story of Kennet," by Bayard Taylor, was originally published nearly forty years ago. This story of Pennsylvania life, is probably not familiar to most present-day novel readers.

"Hearts A-flame" is the somewhat startling title of a new book by Louise Wheeler, and illustrated by Archie Gunn.

"Place and Power," by Ellen Thorncroft-Fowler (Mrs. Alfred Laurence Felkin), is one of the most pleasing late books. It is dedicated to every British worthy of the name.

"The Red Triangle, Being Some Further Chronicles of the Martin Hewitt, Investigator," by Arthur Morrison, comprises six "cases" of mystery and adventure, investigated by Hewitt. The opening one, "Samuel's Diamonds," is a recital of the mysterious disappearance of very valuable diamonds.

"Cowboy Life on the Sidetrack," an extremely humorous and sarcastic story of the trials and tribulations endured by a party of stockmen, making a shipment from the west to the east, by Frank Benson of Cheyenne, Wyo.

Unlike Any Others!
The full flavor, the delicious quality, the absolute Purity, of Lowrey's Breakfast Cocoa distinguish it from all others.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

No Proposition for Furnishing Street Light Offered by the City.

GAS COMPANY ASKS FOR FURTHER TIME
Matter is Put Over Another Week After Some Reference to the Probable Object of the Delay.

Nothing in the way of proposals to light the streets of Omaha by electricity, gas or otherwise, came to the council last night. The Omaha Gas company communicated a note, saying it was unprepared to submit a proposition and that the time had been extended.

"Oh, about three years would be sufficient," said President Zimman, who declared that the gas company, so far as its local officers are concerned, seems to be unfamiliar with the corporation statistics which are a part of the proposed ordinance.

No Relief on Market.
Efforts to pass an ordinance establishing a wholesale market place in the street at Eleventh and Jackson failed, as did attempts to have the prosecution of gardeners' associations in the commission district discontinued.

Year-Back, Evans, O'Brien, Schroeder-4, Noss, Dyball, Huntington, Nicholson, Hoyt, Zimman-4.
Official Paper Funs.
The report of the finance committee recommending the award of the city advertising for the year ending July 1, 1904, be made to the World-Herald was adopted by a vote of 5 to 4.

Where is John Weiss?
John Weiss, who lives at Twenty-eighth and Walnut streets, and who is employed by a junk dealer on Webster street, is missing.

Purchase Refuses to Work.
The inclement weather was responsible for a hurried call for the fire department from the building at 23 South Fourteenth street, where the fire alarm was rung.

See Railroad Company.
Mary J. Hall, an administratrix of the estate of J. H. Hall, who brought suit in the United States circuit court against the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway for $5,000 damages caused by the death of her husband, Jay H. Hall, while on a train at Omaha on August 19, 1902.

Soldier on the Watch.
Albert LaVere, a soldier from Fort Crook, drank too much Thursday night and on his way home decided to exterminate the inhabitants of that district. His plans were rudely interrupted by the watchmen, who lodged him in jail, charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Was Fixed for Accidents.
E. Rodner of Crest, Neb. Imbued too freely yesterday evening and fell on the street in front of the Delia hotel. He skinned his face quite badly by the fall.

Personal Paragraphs.
George Laubach left today for Chicago to enter the Armour institute.

Detective Elsdorfer yesterday arrested four drivers on delivery wagons for Omaha concerns. It is claimed that each of these wagons was used for the purpose of peddling in the city. There is an ordinance requiring a peddler to take out a license of $20 a year, and this has not been done by many who are said to have sneaked into the city and peddle their wares on the outskirts of the town.

It is now up to the council to decide at what points watchmen shall be stationed on railroad crossings. The ordinance which was passed Monday night provided that whenever the council shall, by resolution, declare the necessity of having a watchman placed at any railroad crossing, it only had to say the word and the railroad company refusing such mandate, would be fined for each day that the crossing was left unguarded.

Young Girl Goes Wrong.
Joseph Smith, a 17-year-old high school student, is held in the matron's department at the city jail on the charge of soliciting money for the Young Men's Association. Information for some time that she has been in the habit of walking the streets at night, but she was unable to give any information for some time that she has been in the habit of walking the streets at night.

WHY SHOULD YOU BUY DOS RIOS COFFEE?

- BECAUSE: It's the purest, freshest and most delicious coffee on the market.
BECAUSE: It's the only coffee that comes to you DIRECT from the plantation on which it is grown.
BECAUSE: It's guarded from the tree to your table, by every possible device, against impurities of any kind.
BECAUSE: It's your duty to get the BEST in everything you buy for your table; and the best in coffee is DOS RIOS.
BECAUSE: It's the coffee that discriminating coffee-lovers love, because it satisfies the most fastidious taste.

Aren't these five because's enough to convince you? If not, try DOS RIOS coffee ONCE, and the sixth because will be because you've tried it; you will WANT to buy it.
