Wheat Market Ruled Decidedly Weak and All Grains Were Lower.

FAIR AND WARM WEATHER AFFECTS CORN

Selling Orders Come Plentifully When Reports of but Slight Damage from Frost in Corn Belt are Received.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Wheat ruled decidedly weak, September closing at a loss of 1/8 cent, December being 1/8 cent, and October being 1/8 cent, all closed steady. December and October were 1/8 cent higher.

Provisions of fair and warmer weather in the corn belt today, according to reports from several sources, notwithstanding the frost in several states this morning. On reports that the crop had been damaged in some sections there was a rush of selling orders early and considerable loss was scored before the decline was checked by good weather.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 60 cars; corn, 250 cars; oats, 30 cars; hogs, 11,000 head.

DUNN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Business Has Made Progress Despite Opposing Conditions of Weather.

CAR SHORTAGE BEGINNING TO BE FELT. Outlook for Fall and Winter Business Contains Much that is Encouraging.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade and Commerce will say: Business has made moderate progress during the last week, despite unusual opposition from the elements.

Textile mills are rather more fully employed on the whole, although additions are being made to the spinning and weaving machinery, partially offsetting the increased activity of other industries.

Failures this week were 219 in the United States, including 10 in Canada, compared with 215 in the year ago.

CONDITIONS ARE STILL IRREGULAR. Favorable View Taken, According to Bradstreet.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Conditions still display irregularity, but the general outlook for the fall and winter trade is favorable.

Wheat, including four, exports for the week ending September 17, aggregate 1,200,000 bushels, against 1,100,000 in 1902.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending September 17, aggregate 219, against 215 in 1902.
