ence in the majority report to the desert land act, timber and stone act and the commutation clause of the homestead act. The recommendations that congress appropriate $200,000 for a Lewis and Clarke memorial building at Portland, Ore., was also made.

After lengthy debate Congressman Needham of California offered a substitute for both reports, as follows:

Whereas, the timber and stone act, desert land law and the commutation clause of the homestead act, have in many instances in their administration been found to result in speculation and in monopoly of the public domain to the exclusion of actual home-builders; therefore be it enacted, That we request the congress of the United States to make such modifications in said laws as will save the remaining public lands for actual settlers who will found homes and live upon said lands.
