ONLY ONE KICK IN FOOT BALL GAME

First Exhibition of Season is Marred by Accident, One Player Being Put Out by Broken Ankle.

The Omaha High school and the Comnercial college club began the foot ball eason in Omaha yesterday by an untutored romp about a pusture at Twentieth and Spencer streets, and if they accomplished nothing in scores, they have the unpleasant honor of being first afield with a sarious accident. Vosacek, left guard of the Commercials, suffered a broken ankle joint, which will lay him up for six weeks and in the end possibly cause a permanent stiffness. The game, which was of two fifteen ninute halves, was without score. During the second half the High school carried the ball to the Commercials' eight-yard Tuesday evening on "Emerson," the lec line, but lost it. This was the only time there was any probability of a score, Neither team showed any particular merit and none of the players distinguished the Nebraska Federation of Woman's age of the teams. Not much is expected of a first game and the men were soft and their abilities to a certain extent unknown. The High school players, in at least six positions, were considerably outweighed. Still, from its showing it would appear that the team will be little if any superior to that of last year. The Commercials were unable to and tackled high. Both sides lost all their chances by fumbles.

It may safely be said that practically every section of Iowa and Nebraska tributary to Omaha, was represented on the market and while reports were somewhat conflicting at first sight, still upon closer examination, it is found that the majority of them agree as closely as could be expected.

The general opinion is that corn on the highlands has been improved in most sections rather than injured. The wet weather all fall has kept the corn growing, and in reality a light frost was needed to stop the growth. THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realise its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose Charcoal is a remedy that the more you delegates to the Fremont meeting are take of it the better; it is not a drug at one conference, are opposed to a woman all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Chargoal sweetens the breath after sincking, drinking or after eating onlone and other adorous vegetables. Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently sufe carthartic. It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the potson of catarrh.

All druggists sall charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best chargoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Absorbent Losenges; they are composed of as the majority of the educated experienced the finest powdered Willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or, rather, in the form of large, pleasant tasting losenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lossuges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of of the National American Woman Suffrage it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.
