PREPARING FOR CAMPAIGN at 9:46 a. m.

About First of October.

14K and 18K wedding rinks at Leffert's, COMMITTEEMEN TALK OVER OUTLOOK

Chairman Spence Gives it as His Opinion that Republican Vote Will Be Fully Up to that of Two Years Ago.

The republican campaign will open in the Ninth congressional district about October and Governor Cummins will make two or three speeches in the district. Several other prominent speakers will also be assigned to the Ninth district. This was deolded upon yesterday at the conference held in this city by the county chairmen of the district and other leading republicans, The meeting was held in the office of George S. Wright, county chairman for Pottawattamie county, who, however, was not present, being in Denver on legal business. The meeting was presided over by R. H. Spence of Mount Ayr, chairman of the state central committee, who was accompanied here by A. F. Dawson, private secretary to Senator Allison and who has charge of the speakers' bureau for the state committee. The question of finances was one of the principal matters discussed and, owing to the absence of County Chairstate committee. The question of finances man Wright, no arrangements were made for meetings in this county. This will be arranged on the return of Mr. Wright from arranged on the return of Mr. Wright from Colorado.

Chairman Spence of the state central committee said that while the people at James Smith, alias "Glenwood Jim," the negro charged with breaking into several houses in the vicinity of Seventh street and Seventh avenue Friday afternoon, was sentenced yeaterday by Judge Scott to ten days on bread and water. While he is serving this sentence the authorities will investigate the charges against him. vote was the largest ever accorded a governor in the state of lowa.

Mr. Dawson said no assignment of speakers had been made yet for any of the districts and would not be until after a conference had been held in each district. The campaign, Mr. Dawson said, would not be over four weeks long. It was conceded that Pottawattamie county was absolutely safe and would roll up as large if not a larger vote for the state ticket than it did two years ago. Those present at the conference were: R. H. Spence of Mount Ayr, chairman of the state central committee; Hon. W. B. Mar- and tin of Greenfield, secretary of state; State Senator F. M. Hopkins of Guthrie Center, tral committee from the Ninth congressional district; Ernest E. Hart of Council Bluffs, Iowa's member of the national committee; F. F. Jones of Villisca, candidate for representative from Montgomery county; H. B. Kling of Woodbine, representative from Harrison county; A. F. Greenwaldt of Audubon, county chairman graduate from the conservatory this year.

Shelby county was the only county in the Ninth district not represented at the conference.

May Abandon Transpactfic Service. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—The Chronicle mays there is a probability that the China Commercial Steamship company may have to abandon its transpacific per-ifse. The future of the line depends entirely upon the position taken by the Mexican government in regard to the entry of Chinese laborers into Mexico. The question of contribution the invitation of the class of by places were on their way home from attending a theatrical performance when the power was cut off and some of them had to walk several miles to their homes.

The fire drove the engineers from the engines without giving them time to shut off steam, and the great engines and dynamos ran steadily while the building burned and fell around them. The police did not allow warris. It is not before the immigration of this class of labor is now before the state officials and a decision is expected with the chinese passenger trade be stopped by Mexico, the line, it is said, will have to be withdrawn from the run to this coast. Should this occur it will mean a return to the old freight and steerage passenger rate by the commanies of this city now in competition with the China line.
