southern sensiors and representatives. It is not at all likely that any of these bills will be passed, but they will furnish the an expression of sentiment in the south with reference to the negro. Among the most striking propositions relating to the negro comes from Senator Carmack of Tennesses, who wants to repeal the fifteenth amendment of the constitution which extends to the negro the right of suffrage The senator says he will introduce a measare that will ambody his ideas along that line. Mr. Carmack introduces a great many bills in each congress, few of which are taken seriously, and no one expects congress to pay much attention to his repeal measure, but it will enable him to address the senate fully and freely upon the race question and in this way it may lead to interesting debates. There will also be bil's providing for government assistance for transporting the negroes to the Philippines. and other feland possessions of the United States. ,This plan would not be as acceptable to the south as their disfranchisement as the negroes are needed to work on southern plantations, and their is no other labor to take their place. It is known that Senator Morgan of Alabama has long believed that conditions in the Philippines might be made so attractive to the colored people that they would seek homes in those is lands. But the idea of an exodus to the Philippines has never taken hold of the negro. The forty acres they could secure from the public domain on which to raise crops with which they are familiar in the south have not tempted them in any imper-

The political freedom in Liberia has never been influential enough to cause the colored people to leave this country. Some of the democrats of the south do not hesitate to declare that something must be done to maintain white supremacy in that section. They say that with the education of the colored people and the aggressiveness of many of the colored leaders, they fear time when the active operation of the franchise of the negro may change conditions in the south. While many of the sountherners condemn lynching, they express uncertainty as to the conditions that may exist if the colored vote is to be an active element in the election of state officials in the future. There are southerners who talk of the possibilities of race wars of a kind never before known.

Suicide Epidemic in Washington.

The alarming increase in the number of suicides in the District of Columbia since the beginning of the present year has attracted the attention of the police officials and medical experts. Within the past eight and a half months there have been fortynine deaths by suicide, as against twentysix for the full year of 1901. The highest number of suicides in the past ten years was in 1897, when forty-seven cases were reported. The police statistics show that the highest number of cases this year was reported for April, when ten persons took their lives. The next highest number was in August, with eight cases. These statistics it would seem confirm the generally accepted theory that more people commit suicide during the spring and summer months that at any other time of the year. Suicide has become so prominent that at the police stations the very closest watch is kept on all prisoners and on the slightest symptom of sickness the affected prisoner is carried to the nearest hospital. Dr. Scheffer, coroner's physician, is unable to assign a reason, for the remarkable increase in the suicide rate. Said he: "In accounting for suicides one can only advance theories. It is generally admitted that in the hot months and in fly time man is naturally more irritable than at other seainsidered colf-destruction. the heaviest troubles is overbalanced by some trifle, which is enough to snuff out the vital spark. I have in mind a case who would consent to be a candidate where a beautiful and falented young against Judge Jessen, the republican nomiwoman ended her life because a hot curiing iron had burned a lock from her forehead. Suicides occur where they are least the suicide mania."

Lincoln, under direction of Dr. R. E. Giffen, assisted by Dr. T. E. Fairall of this city, a half dozen other surgeons, and witnessed by some fifteen medical men and dentists of the capital city. Under the X-ray it was found that a portion of the jawbone had been eaten away by disease. It was decided to remove it from the chin and also from the superior maxillary, or upper jawbone. The face was laid open, the bone sawed off at the center of the chin, and the other section disjointed and removed from the upper one. The unjointing process was very severe. Mr. Shaughnessy was left with out any jawbone whatever on one side of his face. The wound was closed and the last reports from the patient are that he is doing as well as a man could be expected to after undergoing such a trying

> While we recognize in the land bill which has recently become law a substantial concession to the just demands of the Irish people, we do not regard it as either a settlement or a compromise of the Irish question. We urge the leaders of the United Irish league to take up with vigor and increased activity the movement to secure legislative independence, which we hold to be of greater importance than the settlement of the land question.

Celebration in Obto.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 20.-The Emmet Centennial celebration here today was par ticipated in by Irish Americans from all sections of Ohio. It is estimated that 25,-000 excursionists were brought into the

There was a parade early in the afteroon of lirsh societies, about 3,000 mer being in line. Following the parade there was a mass meeting at the Columbus auditorium at which addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor Nash and Mayor Jeffrey. The following resolutions were adopted: We, the Irish-American citizens of Ohio.

We, the Irish-American citizens of Ohio, affirm our undying allegiance to the principles for which Robert Emmet fought and died. Our ambition is that of Emmet, to see a republic on Irish soil. We believe with the American colonists that whenever a government falls to secure for its people those inallenable rights of life, liberty and pursuit of happiness, that that government is a failure and it is not only the privilege but duty of the people to resort to revolutionary measures to secure those rights for themselves and their posterity. We, as American citizens, are unalterably opposed to any allegiance, open or secret, written or verbal, between the United States and Great Britain

We congratulate the Irish race on the fact that through 800 years of unparalieled persecutions they have maintained the spirit of their nationality, and we have unbounded faith that this spirit will be maintained until Erin takes her place among the nations of the earth.

The orator of the evening was former United States Senator Charles A. Towne

Kuhn, of the Wood- present was Mendos Capoe of the Cuban senate and General Mendoal of the Cuban finance committee. Tomas Estrada Palma, son of the Cuban president, was on the platform with his American wife. Young Palma was introduced and acknowledged the honor with a brief speech. He said: I can ony express my sympathy and that of the Cuban people to the Irish nation. I hope that some day Ireland will take its place with free countries along with my country.

William Temple Emmet, nephew of the Irish martyr, was present, as was Theofore Wolf Tone Maxwell, grandson of Wolf Tone. The members of the family of Thomas Addis Emmet were also present

Rev. Charles McCready presided. A cablegram from Dr. Thomas Addis Emmel, dated Warwick, Eng., was read It was as follows:

Congratulations on centennial. Wish I could be with you. Have searched Dublin for Robert Emmet's resting place, but so far have fatled. I do not despair. It may be in accord with Emmet's wish that his grave will be found only when his epitaph shall have been written. Let us work for that day. In a speech eulogizing Robert Emmet, O'Donnell offered the resolutions of the meeting. The resolutions called attention tothe 'and bill victory and thanked the United Irish league for its work in that direction, and pledged the sympathy and support of American Irish to the fostering of the principles of Robert Emmet and Charles Devlin, M. Mr. Devlin spoke on English contemporaneous police. When he spoke Joseph Chamberlain's name the audience hissed. "As one of your papers said today," Mr.

Devlin said, "Mr. Chamberlain was riding for a fall and he got it. Chamberlain got his fall and he will never rise again and the reason was that he denied Ireland its rights. Lord Rosebery resigned and he has never risen again. We have seen the last of Chamberlain."

Five Years for Preacher.

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Sept. 10 .- (Special.)-Yesterday Judge Hollenbeck tenced H. R. Gould, the Free Methodist preacher, to five years in the penitentiary at hard labor. Gould was tried last week on the charge of child stealing. Early in the season Gould, who had charge of a church here, abandoned his wife and five small children and ran away with a young girl, a member of his flock. He was ap prehended in North Dakota and brought

From Inflammatory Rheumatism

Would Have Killed Our Son.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills Saved Him.

"We began to use Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills six years ago. My wife had liver trouble and a neighbor gave her some of your liver pills to try, after which we bought your liver pills to try, after which we bought a bottle of them and my wife used them until cured. Since then I have used them and I must say that I have never used any pills that gave me the satisfaction these have. We also use Dr. Milles' Anti-Pain Pills with greatest satisfaction. Three years ago our son Harry had inflamematory rheumatism. He had suffered so much that I believe if we had not given him Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Fills which refleved him almost instantly he would have die i. I am always glad of the opportunity for praising Dr. Miles' Remedies."—James Evertt, Alton, Ills.
"I was afflicted with neuralgia for years."

"I was afflicted with neuralgia for years "I was afflicted with neuralgia for years and never found any permanent relief till I began using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sure cure for headache and neuralgic pains. Only this morning I recommended them to a briend with a severe headache and in a half hour he came into the store smiling. The headache was gone. We use them in the family and find them excellent for the women folks. This high altitude makes them very nervous. Grandma says I should tell Dr. Miles she could not live here were it not for the Anti-Pain Pills that she takes occasionally."—L. B. Morris, Helena, Montana. Montana.
