TWO AUDITORIUM BOOSTS

President Stickney of Chicago Great Wes ern Sends Draft for $2,500.

FIRST DONATION BY RAILROAD COMPANY

Union Stock Yards Company of South Omaha, Through Its President, Increases Its Subscription to Two Thousand Dollars.

"The walls of the Omaha Auditorium and the financial prospects of the Omaha Auditorium company are rising in unison," Seclars with one voice the members of the Auditorium executive commitee. The two immediate reasons for the statements and the good spirits of the members of the committee are:

President A. B. Stickney of the Chicago Great Western has sent in a draft for $2,500 as a donation to the Auditorium fund. And with the draft came a very complimentary and encouraging letter. The donation is for the same amount as the one given by the Chicago Great Western to the Kansas City auditorium fund, though it was at that time receiving about $1,000,000 a year in truffic from Kansas City and has not yet begun to do Business in Omaha, having just succeeded in getting its trains into the city after a hard fight, carried into the federal courts, to gain an entrance into Omaha.

The action of President Stickney or behalf of the Chicago Great Western is also appreciated to the fullest extent by the Auditorium executive committee, and will, the committee believes, he appreclated to the same extent by the business men and people of Omaha generally, for the reason that it is the first donation made by any railroad company to the Auditorium fund. Now that the loe has been broken by the youngest of the roads the others, which have been enjoying the favors of Omaha for years, will be expected to come forward. The committee proposes that they shall do so, and in the not far distant future. This resolution was unanimously adopted by the commit-

Resolved. That the thanks of the Omaha Auditorium company be extended to President A. B. Stickney of the Chicago Great Western Railway Co., for his liberal and timely donation to the Auditorium, and be it further Resolved. That the officers and the executive committee take this opportunity to express to Mr. Stickney their appreciation of his friendily attitude toward Omaha and its interests.

This letter is given as the second reason and a very good reason, for the good spirits of the members of the executive committee: of the members of the executive committee:

Union Stock Yards Company of Omaha,
Omaha, Nob., Sept. B.-F. A. Nash, Esq.,
President Auditorium Company, Omaha, Neb., Dear Sir: We want to congratulate you and your associates on the fine showing you are making in the erection of the Auditorium, and in order to further assist the citizens of Omaha in their laudable undertaking will increase our subscription to the capital stock $2.000, payable as follows: $1,000 on demand, $1.000 when the building is under roof. Yours truly,
W. A. PAXTON, President.
The following resolution was adopted by

The following resolution was adopted by unanimous vote: Resolved, That the thanks of the Auditorium company be and are hereby extended to the Union Stock Yards company for its additional and very liberal subscription to the capital stock of the Auditorium company torium company.

In view of the fact that the Union Stock Yards company had contributed $3,000 prior to the receipt of this letter, and had paid up in full many months ago, the executive committee was very highly pleased with this additional subscription and the spirit with which it was made,

"That is one of the most cheering letters we have received in months," said one of the directors. "We have heard a good deal of growling, but this comes like a gleam of sunshine through the clouds. If we had a few more citizens in Omaha like W. A. Paxton and his associates in the Union Stock Yards company we would have no difficulty in getting funds to build the auditorium.
