New York and St. Louis Divide.

New YORK, Sept. 2.-New York and St. Louis divided the honors of today's double header. Good hitting beat the lo-cals in the opening game and the good work of Howell did much to win the sec-nd. Powell was effective in all but the lighth inning. The home team fielded fast ad faultlessly. Attendance 6.00. Score, int game:

Detroit Wins Two.

BOSTON, Sept. 23.-Detroit took both games of a double header from Boston to-day. Donovan kept Boston's hits well seatured in the first game, but Detroit's errors made the score close. The second game was easy for Detroit as Winters was ineffective and wild, and his support ragged and indifferent. The game was called at the end of the eighth on account of darkness. Persia an Easy Winner. Persia an Easy Winser. LOGAN, is., Sept. 22.-(Special Telegram.) -The hereioforce invincible Base Ball club of Woodbine went down in defeat at this place yesterday in a contest with the club of Persia. The Woodbine club had recently claimed the championship of the county by defeating the club of Little Sloux, and the Persia club challenged for the title. The game was played on the Logan grounds, there being a purse of $200 and gata receipts to go to the winner. Persia won by a score of S to 1. The batteries were: Persia, Yochum and Williard; Wood-bine, Nicely and Landee. AVOCA, In., Sept. 22.-(Special Telegram.)-The last trade excursion of the Omaina Commercial club and South Omaha Live Stock exchange pulled out of the Inion depot on the Rock Island on time, with all on board well, happy and loaded with enthusiasm and advertising matter. WHATCOM, Wash. Sept. 21.-Frank Gofsch of Humboldt. Ia., last night ful-filled his engagement to throw Frank Coleman of Chicago and Emil Klank of Danville, Ill., one of them once and the other twice within ninely minutes without taking any rest, catch-can style. As Coleman claimed the middleweight championship of America, Gotsch will go sast and force another match with Torn Jenkins, champion of America, who de-feated him last February. Weston was the first stop after leaving Council Bluffs. Underwood soon followed. At 3 o'clock Neola and its pretty girls greeted the train and made merry for the twenty minutes' stop. Minden and Shelby followed in the order named, with large crowds greeting the train. Avoca is a thirty-minute stop and everybody is warming up. The weather is perfect and everybody claims the trip is going to be a record-breaker.

"The Storks" will be the attraction at th Boyd on Friday evening, beginning an en gagement of two nights and a matinee. It comes back to us with a new equipment of scenery and costumes, with a good looking chorus and a complement of singing comedians that is making it go with all its original snap and melody. The quaintness of the Carle conception is as delightful as its working out is original. The well remembered songs, "Flirty Little Gertis," "Song of the Night," "My Rosebud Queen," "It's All Such an Awful Bore," and others, are still sung with pleasing effect. The regular prices will prevail during this engagement.

A very pretty story of Texas life, "The Scout's Revenge," will be given at the Krug theater tonight and the remainder of the week. It deals principally with the efforts of a young United States government scout. to rid the locality of a band of outlaws. There is also introduced an undercurrent of polite comedy. > This morning at 9 o'clock the sale of seats for the "Ben-Hur" engagement begins at the Boyd. Manager Burgess has adhered to his determination not to allow any seat to be laid aside prior to the opening of the sale, in order that everybody might have an equal chance at the best seats of the theater. Out-of-town customers will be taken care of just the same as those who live in Omaha, and the rule of "first come, first served," being rigid. All arrangements for the production of the great spectacle and play are progressing finely, the mechanics who are now installing the heavy machinery at the Boyd being well along with their work, and certain to have everything in place in good time for the first performance on Monday evening. Klaw & Erlanger have given their great production an entirely new setting this season, so that it will be brighter than ever for the Omaha audiences sure to greet if.

THE JANITOR

1524 Farnam Street.

If you have a dirty, shabby office people think it is your fault; it does not occur to them that the janitor is careless, neglectful or has more to do than can be done well.

In reality, it is your own fault, because you can move to the Bee Building, where the janitor will keep your office as clean and neat as a Dutch kitchen.
