and SUES INSURANCE COMPANY the Mutual Reserve Fund.

Arthur C. Putnam of Chadron, Dawes county, Neb., has brought suit against the Mutual eRserve Life Fund Association of New York in the United States circuit court for $7.460 damages and interest from February 1, 1898, and costs of action. The suit is transferred from the district court of Dawes county and the petition states that the plaintiff was insured in the defendant company for the sum of $5,000, and that upon his protesting against the payment of expensive assessments his policy was cancelled by the company. The plaintiff had been insured in said defendant company and paid all the premiums or mortuary assessments required by his original contract with the company. In making the assess ment on February 1, 1898, the defendant did not make the assessment equal or ratably September $28, inclusive, for despatch per U. S. transport.

No legal assessment was made upon plaintiff. Solicy of insurance since February, 1898, and the cancellation of said policy was wholly unwarranted by said company, he having up to that time paid $990.76 in premiums. Hence by the cancellation of said policy the plaintiff has lost all consideration for said payments and has been damaged in the amount asked in this petition. And further on account of his advanced age he will now be unable to procure another policy of insurance in any company except at an experiment was made upon plaintiff. CORNELIUS VAN COTT, Postmaster. full requirements will be purchased and shipped to the Philippines with the Money for River Work. Congress is to be memorialized for a large appropriation for river work. Representatives of commercial clubs and similar organizations, together with Congressmen W. L. Smith of lows and J. J. McCarthy and E. Burkett of Nebraska, will Carthy and E. Burkett of Nebraska, will hold a meeting in the near fature, perhaps on October 15, and at a place for which Kansas City has been suggested, but which has not been definitely settled. Representatives from Sloux City, Decatur, Dakota City, Omaha Commercial club, Plattsmouth, Rulo. St. Joseph and Kansas City will attend this meeting, together with the representatives of the people. Senator Millard has just finished an investigation of the river and finds that there is danger of cut-offs near Dakota City and Decatur, which will ruin large areas of Nebraska land. The liability of food also influences this action.
