Twenty-Two Corps of Eugineers Busy Running Lines for Southern Pacific and Oregon Short Line.

Twenty-two corps of engineers under the general direction of President Horace G. Burt of the Union Pacific are at work running lines for new roads in the northwest for the Harriman system. It is not generally known, but a fact, that Mr. Burt is not only performing the functions of president of the Union Pacific and general manager, too, but is also practically in charge of the general construction work on the Southern Pacific and Oregon Short Line. He has recently returned from the west, where he was inspecting the new work and is now in the east consulting with Harriman and other officials. True, his conferences there are said to be for other pur poses, as well as those alluded to. Some important developments and extensions are to follow Burt's surveys in the west. Plant Gets Promotion.

Rumor has it that the Rockefeller interests will largely control the action of the stockholders and directors of the Milwaukee at the annual meeting to be held in Milwaukee, Saturday, but local representatives of the road say that no changes in the board or among the officials are looked for. The Rockefeller interests in the Milwaukee have been very large, but it is said that the present board is fully in accord with the wishes of these interests. The old board will in all probability be re-elected. It is composed as follows: August Belmont, Peter Geddes, Roswell Miller, William Rockefeller, Joseph Milibank, Samuel Spencer, Frank S. Bond. TWELVE THOUSAND TROOPS Soldiers from Several States Will Participate in Mancuvers at Fort Riley.

The plans for the forthcoming army maneuvers at Fort Riley are about completed, although there are yet many details to be perfected. The maneuvers will begin October 16 and continue for ten days. The $15,000 home and ten smaller dwellings to troops participating will approximate 15,000 and will comprise the regular army commands from Jefferson Barracks, Mo.; Forts Leavenworth and Riley, Kan ; Sill and Reno, Okl.; Niobrara and Robinson, Neb.; Logan, Colo.; D. A. Russell, Wyo.; Douglas, Utah; Snelling. Minn.; Lincoln, N. D.; Keogh, Mont., and Myer, Va. One regiment of national guards will be present from Arkansas, one from Iowa, the Second regiment Nebraska National Guards and signal corps, two regiments of infantry and two batteries of artillery from Kansas and one regiment from Missouri. The brigade commanders will be Generals Grant, Bell, Barry and Carr of the regular army, General Hughes of the Kansas National Guard and Major Coffin, U. S. A., in command of divisional artillery. Major General John C. Bates, U. S. A., will be in supreme command.

The maneuvers will comprise a series of nilitary problems already planned by a board of officers and the field of operations will be over several thousand acres of land on both sides of the Kansas river adjacent to Fort Riley. The main camp will e on the low-lying ground between Fort Riley and Junction City, Kan. Communications will be maintained between the opposite sides of the river by means of two or three pontoon bridges. About all the officers of the Department of the Missouri will be present at the maneuvers. The Twenty-second infantry will not participate because of the near departure of the regiment for the Philippines

OVER HUNDRED AND FIGHTING John Flannagan, Eight Years Past Century Mark, Still Has His Nerve.

One hundred and eight years and atill fighting is the record of John Flannagan, olored, who was brought into police court ong with a man named Albert Teasort, who Flannagan alleged assaulted him because he was digging a ditch on his own ground. Teasort proved that Flannagan was working on ground which was affected by an injunction restraining Flannagan from entering thereon. He also showed that Flannagan had waved a 22 short in his vicinity, much to his alarm and intimidation. Both were discharged, but Teasort was admonished not to assault, as venerable and well known a citizen again.

House is Ransacked.

Mrs. E. M. Axtell of 32l North Porty-first street reports to the police that her home was entered Thursday night by a hurglar. The thief got in through the rear cellar door, kicked open the door leading from the cellar to the first floor and ran-nacked the house. Mrs. Axtell says she lost a gold ring, several small pieces of and 5 in money.
