BARTENDERS ARE DIVIDED

OTHER DESIRES PRESENT AMALGAMATION

Local Secretary Edwards Declared New Move is Backed by Retail Liquor Deniers to Disrupt Union.

H. C. Miwards, financial secretary of the Omaha Bartenders' union, denies the report regarding the withdrawal of the union from the "Big Four" amalgamation, which includes the hartenders, the cooks and wait- and sweetened is pleasant to take. It is ers and the cooks' helpers. He holds the equally valuable for children and adults. Retail Liquor Dealers' association responsible for it, and says it is an attempt to disrupt the union.

The trouble arose over the payment of salaries to men we called out during the them $16 a week while they were idle and some few men objected to what they styled exorbitant assessments.' Seeing an opportunity to raise trouble and with the hope of disrupting our union, the Retail Liquor Dealers' association issued a circular letter to all bartenders, the second clause of which reads:

At the last regular meeting a resolution was passed which in substance declares: That barienders who have trouble with their index on account of exerbitant assessments, intolerant penalties, etc., shall be sustained by their respective employers and in turn this association will stand by such employe so long as they shall remain members in good standing.

"The object of this was to foster the organization of this new union. Such a union could guin no recognition in any central body, could not get a charter and would have no standing whatever with allied unions. Our union has a paid membership old scores satisfactorily to members of the gaion and their employers."

A representative of the bartenders, who favors the organization of an independent union and withdrawal from the present sunion, says:

"The question of pulling away from the times, and in my opinion mearly every mem- For sale by Kuhn & Co. ber is in favor of it. Such an independent organization would have about 275 members Once the break is made I think every bartender in the city would become a member of the new organisation.

Strike Caused Trouble.

The strike of the waiters last spring was what brought the matter to a head, in town to lose as many of the best posttions because they had to walk out when nonunion waiters were installed in the Omaha Tent & Awaing Co., lith and H hotels and cafes where they worked ney streets Every man thought this un injustice, as they were all satisfied with their wages, which in some cases were twice as much as the scale, and had no grievance with their employers. Only three of these men have returned to work. The others have felt sore and a considerable feeting of syme pathy for them has been worked up.

"I understand that Jack Tierney, who was a former recording societary of the of the Union local mion, has been endeavoring to get being with the the independent union on its feet. At pres- papy as surent he is in Stone City organising an independent union of the came allot that is no longer proposed in Omaha; Of course the old proposition of balance

NO STAND AT CITY HALL late strike," said Mr. Edwards. "We paid Customary Seats for Ak-Sar-Ben Admirers Will Not Go Up This Year.

It is improbable that there will be a stand in front of the city hall this year from which hundreds of favored persons may view the Ak-Sar-Ben parades, as they have in the years past. Mayor Moores has declined to take any interest in building the stand and referred a reporter to the Board be done about it. It has been customary in the past for the council to direct the building inspector to erect the stand, the cost being defrayed by the sale of tickets. This year no such resolution has been passed and the time is almost too late for the work to be done. If the stand is not erected, and there seems to be very little of 265 men and we are fast settling up all fore the mayor has welcomed the king and as appearances went it looked to him exkey to the city from the stand, upon which sat the governor, his staff and many distinguished citizens.

POOL ROOM HEARING STARTS

McHugh and Broatch Among First Witnesses in Case Brought by Dunn. Before County Judge Vinsonhaler Monday the hearing of the "pool-room" gambling cases was begun. No pools, however, were sold on the time when the trial will be concluded, as every one of those admitted it was, in the language of one of the defendants, too "long a shot." V. L. Chucovitch and Pat Dennison, alleged proprietors of the pool room at 1313 Douglas street, waived the preliminary hearing and were bound over to the district court. Each furnished bond in the Bum of $1,000.

A. C. May, Asa Binford, Fred Summers, William Dalrympie, Walter Downing. Jerome Smith and Abe Deems elected, by Ed P. Smith, their attorney, to stand trial. County Attorney English appeared for the state, with Attorney I. J. Dunn, who filed the complaints, as his unofficial assistant. Fire and Police Commissioners McHugh and Broatch were the first witnesses Judge McHugh testified that he had been in the pool room once; that he had met of Governors when asked what is going to Mr. Chucovitch there and had been introduced to him as the proprietor. Further than this, and that it was stated that it was a "pool room" the witness did not know anything about the matter. Captain Broatch testified that he had visited the pool room three or four times, that he had done so in company with Fire Have them attended to in time. He understood, Captain Broatch said, that it was a "pool room" and so far presented him with a long speech and a actly like one of the Board of Trade bucket shops. He said he was not, however, familiar with either bucket shops or poo rooms. In answer to a question by Attorney Smith he testified that so far as he knew the blackboard might just as well be used for putting up quotations of stocks or grain, or returns from prize fights or base ball games, as the names of horses. He had been told, witness stated, that Chucovited and Dennison were partners in the pool room and in the saloon in front of it. Homer Kirk, a well known barber and inventor of a scalp treatment, was an unwilling witness, but on being told that he must answer he identified May and the other defendants as being engaged in one capacity or another around the pool room the furniture of the place, the and tickets, the title-
