WOMAN ALLEGED EMBEZZLER

Playing Card Company Causes Arrest of Former Confidential Employee

SAID TO HAVE DABBLED IN STOCKS

Husband Expected to Make Good Previously Discovered Shortage Failed to Respond and Greater Loss is Disclosed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Marie Layton Johnson, aged 29, the wife of Albert M. Johnson, a dentist of Larchmont, N. Y., with an office in this city, was arrested tonight on a warrant specifically charging her with the grand larceny of $10,000.

Mrs. Johnson, whose maiden name was Marie Layton, was bookkeeper in the New York office of the company, and in addition acted as private secretary to H. H. McCutcheon, secretary and treasurer and manager of the New York branch.

In April of this year discrepancies are said to have been discovered in her accounts according to the statement given out by Inspector McCluskey, and an examination is said to have revealed a shortage of $10,000 between January 1 and April 15 in the accounts of the New York office.

How She Operated. The woman's modus operandi is said to have been as follows: The accounts of the concern were kept in the Hanover National bank, there being a New York and Cincinnati account there.

MEMORANDUM BOOK CONCEALED IN UNDER THE OLD MAN'S BED TWO $10 BILLS WERE FOUND

The report of the death of the man was sent to the chief after 23 years old, and that his relatives lived in this city. No persons bearing the name of Tromble have been located by the police.

MEET VINSONHALOR AT HOME

(Continued from First Page) was dropped. I thought so little of the matter at the time, and since that I don't believe I even mentioned it to my son or wife. Within sixty days the money was obtained and the obligation was satisfied.

Mr. Rosewater summarized the charges which have been made of careless and questionable management of the county judge's office during the Vinsonhalor incumbency, as to the absence of reports of the board of education, the failure to make accountings for unclaimed witness fees, Judge Vinsonhalor's reluctance to place information in the hands of the Bee when an investigation of the office was in progress could not help but excite suspicion, said the speaker, and he declared he considered it a mistake to put such a man upon the ticket.

Vinsonhalor in Defense. Judge Vinsonhalor was then called upon and said he had merely been the personal trend of the campaign against him had taken, but that he had nothing to hide or conceal and was asking for a third term on the strength of his record of four years in the county judge's office. He said that he felt a campaign of insinuation had been carried on against him and that he was willing to face all charges, confident that he could dispense them. He accounted for his failure to furnish information to the Bee on the ground that he did not think the Bee would deal fairly with him.

Conceding that the Board of Education had not been reported, Judge Vinsonhalor said the request was not for a continuance, but did not say what it was. All trust funds placed in his hands were still there, he declared, ready for delivery at the proper time. Whenever they are capable of drawing interest, he said, he has arranged for the same to be paid to the county treasurer, and he would not be able to obtain the interest to go to the owner of the money. He had made no profit from the office, nor wanted any aside from the salary.

Unclaimed witness fees to the extent of $13 had been received by the judge from the proceeds of the sale of the county, and since that time fees to the amount of $12, unclaimed, had accrued. Postal cards are sent out twice a year to the persons to whom this money is due.

Promises to Make a Showing. Judge Vinsonhalor announced that late as being prepared showing the moneys received in trust for estates and for condemnation appraisements in litigation, although it will take considerable time to do so. He said that he would be glad to obtain the interest to go to the owner of the money. He had made no profit from the office, nor wanted any aside from the salary.

Conditions in Alaska. Senator Dillingham of Vermont, chairman of the subcommittee of the senate committee on territories, which, on recommendation of the president, made a thorough investigation of Alaska affairs during the last session of congress, today conferred with President Roosevelt today. Besides Senator Dillingham, the members of the subcommittee, with Senators Burnham of New Hampshire, Nelson of Minnesota and Patterson of Colorado. The committee spent several weeks in Alaska, studying the situation with a view to preparing legislation for the advancement of the interests of the territory.

Senator Dillingham indicated to the president that the problem is a great one. Alaska contains almost as much territory as is included in that part of the United States west of the Rocky mountains. The subcommittee considered the whole Alaskan situation carefully and gathered a vast amount of information which will be incorporated in a report to be submitted to the senate soon after congress shall convene. It is expected that the report of the committee will form the basis of some important legislation in the interest of the Alaskan territory.

Punishment for Officers. The president has acted upon the cases of First Lieutenants Louis M. Hamilton, Fourteenth Infantry, and Hamilton Foley, Fifth cavalry, and Second Lieutenants Thomas E. Murtagh, coast artillery, and Shelby L. Rucker, Philippine scouts, tried by court-martial and sentenced to dismissal from the army. He approved the sentence in the case of Foley, Murtagh and Rucker. A further sentence of imprisonment imposed on Lieutenant Foley, in addition to his dismissal, was disapproved. The sentence of Lieutenant Hamilton was commuted to a reduction in rank of 116 numbers, which places him at the foot of the list of lieutenants, and he is required to make a public apology for certain remarks made in the presence of a lady which gave offense and on which his trial was based.

Congress Must Meet. A good deal of pressure has been brought to bear on the president to induce him not to call congress into extraordinary session in November, but to all callers who have spoken to him in that vein he has said that this government is committed to the proposition that the Cuban reciprocity treaty be made effective at the earliest possible date, and he regards it as a matter of good faith that this country should keep its word. He has declined, therefore, to consider any proposition looking toward the abandonment of the idea of an extraordinary session.

Command Act of Sailors. On the recommendation of Rear Admiral Rubby D. Dames, commander-in-chief of the Asiatic station, Acting Secretary of the Navy Darling has written commendatory letters to Assistant Surgeon R. H. Nichols of the Villa Lobos and Hospital Steward D. H. Hervey for services in saving life on the merchant steamer Poyang at the peril of their own lives. These services were rendered during an outbreak of cholera aboard Poyang on the Yang Tze Kiang, the river between Nanking and Kin Kiang.

Preparing for Chinese Mission. In anticipation of a protest to the State department by the Chinese minister in the matter of detention of Liang Hsun, the brother of the minister, and the party that accompanied him to the State department, the officials of the Immigration bureau have called on the inspector at San Francisco to make an immediate report of all the circumstances surrounding the case.

Small Amount For Heirs Money for Relations of Missacota Hermit Supposed to Reside in Omaha.

Chief Donahue has received a query from Ferguson Falls, Minn., regarding the whereabouts of the niece and nephews of one F. W. Tromble, who died there a few days ago. Tromble lived alone in an old shack, badly dilapidated. He was supposed to have been a miser and after his death his house was searched and $250 in cash found in nooks and corners and any likely place to hide a few coins. In a little memorandum book concealed in under the old man's bed two $10 bills were found. The report of the death of the man was sent to the chief after 23 years old, and that his relatives lived in this city. No persons bearing the name of Tromble have been located by the police.

DECLARES UNION WILL COME. Committees of Two Branches of Presbyterian Church Make Statement.

APPEARANT OBSTACLES ARE REMOVED. Proposals Have Been Considered and While Details Cannot Be Made Public at This Time, Conditions are Favorable.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—The committees on cooperation and union of the Presbyterian church and the Cumberland Presbyterian church, which have been in session here four days, two days of which were occupied in joint session, adjourned today and issued the following statement: While no final agreements were reached at this meeting, encouraging progress was made toward outlining a proposal of a basis of union to be submitted to the two constituent assemblies.

Tentative proposals of a basis of union, made by the Presbyterian committee, were responded to with like proposals from the Cumberland Presbyterian committee. Pending the consideration of a second paper from the Presbyterian committee, the Cumberland Presbyterian committee agreed with the Presbyterian committee to submit the whole matter to a subcommittee of the whole from both churches, the subcommittee, said subcommittee to formulate a concurrent report to be finally considered by a later meeting of the two committees in St. Louis.

In all the association and negotiations of the two committees, both severally and jointly, there was absolute cordiality and fraternity, and there were no negative votes upon any question finally agreed upon by either committee or in the joint committee.

Difficulties Are Removed. Such unanimity was the normal fruitage, we believe, of the devotional spirit that prevailed every session, the answer to the prayer of the members of both churches everywhere.

While slight doctrinal and other differences were pointed out, and these were removed by prayerful consideration of these supposed obstacles, or so nearly shown them not to exist, that they were removed, the confident hope that within a very few years reunion may be accepted in a manner which will honor both churches and honoring to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Building further negotiations and until further action has been taken, it is impossible to explain in detail the proposals and conditions, or to announce the basis upon which we all expect to reach an agreement.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Chairman Presbyterian Committee. WILLIAM M. BLACK, Chairman Cumberland Presbyterian Committee.

ADAMS MAY BE RELEASED. White Suspect in Blaine Case May Go and Colored Man Be Held.

"This is the most extraordinary case from the viewpoint of the police," said Captain of Detectives Dunn, when asked if anything "new" in the Blaine murder mystery had developed during Thursday night. "We are working on a steady basis, but we are not sure, and, as you know, we started with absolutely no clue whatever. We have arrested Bert Adams, but I am not sure there is anything in his case. We have been investigating Mr. Adams and the only damaging reference to him is that he made a remark in the presence of others that in the light of subsequent events was very indiscreet."

At this juncture the wife and mother of Bert Adams appeared in the door of the outer office and the captain admitted them. After talking with the captain Mrs. Adams stated that her husband had not been out of the house Wednesday evening. He had, she said, returned from work at the Bulard & Hoagland lumber yard at 6 o'clock and had remained home all the evening resting on the porch. He was at work, and but for his arrest would now be at work.

Captain Dunn had Adams brought in and he told substantially the same story as did his wife. The captain immediately directed men to substantiate the story and if it is found correct his release may follow.

The Adams live at 125 Grace street and Bert Adams has of late been working extra for the C. B. Havens company as teamster. For the last three days he had been with Bulard & Hoagland.

Captain Dunn said: "We will pursue this case on the theory that a foul murder was committed until something develops. From the report of the doctor who made the autopsy it appears Blaine was hit with a lead pipe and a heavy and bag."

The captain said that the intended holding Jeff Bates, colored, until a thorough investigation had been made. Bates was trying to set up an alibi, but so far had failed to do so.
