The convention convened in this city two weeks ago and each day has witnessed a bitter struggle for supremacy between the elements led by President Buchanan and Mr. Parks. Mr. Parks from the start as-serted openly that he would fight to the end for the defeat of the president for his action in suspending local No. 2 for alleged irregularities. He displayed a wonderful amount of personal magnetism in winning the delegates to his support and throughout the gathering has dominated it upon many important questions

Today, however, President Buchanan wor the upper hand, when at the morning sesdon he succeeded in getting the convention to adopt a motion to use the Australian system of balloting in electing all officers. It was frankly asserted by Buchanan adherents that many delegates who were favorable to Buchanan and would vote for

After the election of the executive board, the convention suspended business and adopted the following with a hurrah, many of the delegates mounting their chairs and cheering Mr. Parks and the New York delegation as they departed:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the full support of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Worker's be given to local No. 2 in their struggle against the employers in the city of New York and that the president and executive board are hereby instructed to use their best efforts to this end.

Mr. Parks left for Buffalo over the Wabash at 6 o'clock this evening. Before boarding the train he gave the following statement to the Associated Press:

to the injured and maimed. The storm came upon the town with such suddenness that it was filling the air with debris of demolished buildings before the citizens fully realized the nature of the calamity. Many of those injured received their hurts from flying missiles, while others were caught beneath the wreckage of their business houses or homes and remained pintoned until rescued by the relief party. Another relief train will leave for St. Charles from Rochester in the morning with provisions and clothing for those who are destitute and homeiess.

So far no reports have been received of any loss of life in the country adjacent to St. Charles. The storm, however, seems to have followed very closely the boundary line between Minnesota and lowa, and damage to farm buildings, dwellings and grain stacks, with injury to human beings and death to live stock is reported from several points in that locality. The fury of the storm, however, seems to have spent itself in St. Charles.

Henry White, his wife and their daughter, Muriel, are staying this week at Drummond castle, the Scottish seat of the earl and countess of Ancaster. This visit has caused considerable gossip in society, where it was currently reported during the summer that Muriel White had refused Lord Willoughby de Eresby, the eldest son of the house. The Ancasters are exceedingly proud, and it is said that they bitterly resented the ill-success of their son's suit. The visit, of which (unlike the Whites' other country house engagements) nothing is professedly known at the embassy, looks as if Miss White had thought better of her refusal. She is both hand-

AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY.

So Thinks at Least One Thaveling Man.

I would as soon think of starting out with out my mileage books and grip as to start out on a trip without a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in my valise, said a traveling han who represents a St. Louis hardware house. Why? Because I have to put up at all kinds of hotels and boarding houses I have to eat good, bad and indifferent food at all hours of the day and night and I don't believe any man's stomach will stand that sort of thing without protest, anyway I know mine won't. It has to have some thing to break the fall and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the crutch I fall back on.

My friends often "josh" me about tt, tell me I'm an easy mark for patent medicine fakers, that advertised medicines are humbugs, etc., but I notice that they are nearly always complaining of their aches and pains and poor digestion, while I can stand most any old kind of fare and feel good and ready for my work when it needs me, and I believe I owe my good digestion and sound health to the daily, regular use of Stuart's teed protection. No violence has occurred Dyspepsia Tablets, year in and year out. and all the "joshing" in the world will never convince me to the contrary.

I used to have heartburn about three in making arrests and disregarding the or four times a week and after standing for this for four or five years I began to look around for a crutch and found it when my executive committee in charge of the strike, doctor told me the best investment I could make would be a fifty cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I have invested about fifty cents a month for them ever what I spend every day for cigars, I feel like shaking hands with myself for I can keep my stomach and digestion in first class order for fifty cents a month. I don't care My druggist tells me they are the most coupler of all stomach medicines and that they have maintained their popularity and because they so as advertised. They he ordered released were taken back to bring results, and results are what count in the guard house, but were later set free patent medicine as much as in selling by order of Governor Peabody. ### GOLD PRODUCTION REDUCED of the Victor Miners' union has been

Loss by Strikes and Lockouts at Least Two Million Dollars.

MEN WANT AN EIGHT-HOUR WORK DAY

History of the Trouble in Colorado Mining Districts Which Shows No Signs of Coming to an Ent.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 3.-Strikes and lockouts at the mines in Cripple Creek and other gold mining districts in Colorade have already reduced the mineral before since her illness at tain until the end of the year the producabout business matters, and it has not yet what it would have been under normal

In consequence of the strike 1,000 soldiers of the Colorado National guard have been doing police duty in Cripple Creek for four weeks, and as yet neither the mine owners nor the strikers show any evidence of weakening. The cost to the state of maintaining the military force in the field is estimated at $50,000 a month. The unsettled conditions in the mining industry are due to the failure of the legislature to enact an eight-hour law applying to mines, mills and smelters after the voters of the state had adopted a constitutional amendment favoring such a law. An eight-hour day had generally granted at the mines and the Western Federation of Miners determined to enforce the same condition in mills and smelters. Strikes were inaugurated last June at the smelters in this city and the mills in Colorado City, and eight weeks ago 4,000 miners in the Cripple Creek district were ordered by the executive officers of the federation to go on strike in support of the demand for an eight-hour day for mill and smelter employes, which had been refused by the American Smelting and Refining company and the United States Reduction and Refining company. The miners obeyed the order, but reluctantly, as they had no grievance as to their own hours of labor or wages, and with few exceptions they have since continued on strike.

Mine Owners Bar Union Men. The Mine Owners' association has announced that no further employment will be given to any members of the Western Federation of Miners. The Portland company, which owns and operates a mill for the treatment of its ores, made agreements with the union and reopened its mines, giving employment to about 500 men. The Woods Investment company also continued to operate the Gold Coin and other mines, shipping the ore produced to its own mill. but yielding to pressure from the Mine Owners' association, this company has now locked out all its union miners and joined in the association's fight against the Western Federation. Several companies are operating their mines with nonunion men. Officers of the Miners' union assert that the number at work is small, and that most of those em ployed are laborers and not experienced miners. Three weeks after the inauguration of the strike two men were murderously assaulted by unknown men. Governor Peabody then sent troops to the camp in response to a request from the Mine Owners' association, which represented that many of the strikers would return to work if guaransince the soldiers took the field, but there sulting from the actions of the military civil authorities. Although martial law has miners, including all the members of the have been arrested and placed in the guard house, otherwise known as the "bull pen," some of them being held there more than two weeks. Judge Censures Soldiers.

In habeas corpus proceedings District Judge W. P. Seeds decided that the military officers had exceeded their authority possession of his court room with an armed force during the hearing of the cases. After his decision was given the prisoners whom union miners who have been thus impris-charged with any crime. He was confined in the "bull pen" fifteen days, contracting rheumatism, and when turned over to Sheriff Robertson the only offense charged against him was that of carrying concealed weapons. The most sensational occurrence of this week has been the invasion of the Victor Record office and the seizure of the news paper's entire force, including Uncotype operators, because of the publication of a statement that two soldlers on duty in the camp were ex-convicts. These prisoners were detained in the "bull pen" nearly twenty-four hours before charges of criminal libel were made against them in court. Three thousand business men and citizens of Victor sent a petition to Governor Pea body for the recall of the troops. The governor refused, saying to the bearer: until I am satisfied it is not needed."

Governor Penbody is Sued. Governor James H. Peabody was made the defendant today in two damage suits for $100,000 each, filed at Cripple Creek, by Patrick S. Mullaney and Thomas F. Foster union miners, who were arrested by military officers on duty in this camp and confined in the guard house for afteen days and were set at liberty last Wednesday after in their behalf. Adjutant General Sherman Bell, Brigadies General Chase and Major Thomas E. Mo-Cielland were also made defendants to the suits.

habeas corpus proceedings were instituted

Theplaintiffs allege that they were restrained of their liberty, were subjected to hardships, privations, humiliation and disgrace by the defendants. It is asserted in the complaint that arrest and imprisonment of the plaintiffs were without probable cause and without legal process or authority or color thereof. The arrests, it is said, were made as the result of malice, intrigue and conspiracy among the defendants and other unknown. Suits asking for more than $1,000,000 in damages will be filed by all those who were imprisoned in the bull pen. Governor Peabody instructed Generals Bell and Chase, his representatives in the field, not to accept service on any process, civil or criminal.

In addition to the troubles in Cripple Creek mining has been almost entirely suspended in the Telluride and Ophir districts, where about 1,500 miners and 700 men were called out in order to enforce the demand for an eight-hour day. There have been no disturbances of the peace in these places and no troops are stationed there. Hundreds of strikers have left the state, seeking work elsewhere.

Mr. E. Peterson of 1145 North 18th street, who was thrown from the street car at 17th and Cuming on Sunday, August 23 wishes his friends who were on the and other witnesses to call or send him their address.

PARKS CLAIMS THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

change of this city at the annual conven-tion of the Grain Dealers' National asso-ciation next week in Minneapolis left today for that city. The delegation will present resolutions urging a uniform standard of grain inspection. These leaders of the Philadelphia grain trade, however, will strongly oppose government control of the Inspections as savoring too much of politics, but will favor the appointment of inspectors by the exchanges or recognized commercial bodies of the various grain districts.
