Week Past Was Busy and Coming Week Means a Hustle.

AK-SAR-BEN FESTIVITIES OVERSHADOW ALL

Closing of Country Club Season is Likely to Bring About a Big Resumption of ' Home Entertaining.

Some Things Real.

From Browning's Magazine Abroad my wingless flying car, I soar through depths of blue; And send a whicess mute, my love, Down to the earth to you.

But you sha'n't get an armiess hug When I slight, I vow, Nor will I press a tipiess kiss On your forcheadless brow.

MONDAY—The informal reception to Miss Jane Addams, by the members of the Woman's club, in the club room, following Miss Addams, lecture; the dinner given by Mr, and Mrs. J. W. Griffith to Miss Florence Templeton and Mr. Royal D. Miller and the members of their bridgi party; the anniversary party of the Omaha Guards, the medal dril and hop by the Thurston Rifles.

TUESDAY—Miss Macrae and the faculty of Brownell Hall will receive between and 6 o'clock at Brownell Hall; the meeting of the N. I. T. Card club at the home of Miss Lena Rehteld.

WEDNESDAY—The wedding of Miss Helen Smith and Mr. William S. Poppleton, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Lucian Stephens; the wedding of Miss Florence Templeton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Templeton, and Mr. Royal D. Miller, at 3 o'clock, and the reception following: the automobile flower parade.

THURSDAY—The electrical parade.

FRIDAY—The Ak-Bar-Ben ball.

SATURDAY—The dinner and dance at the Country and Field clubs.

While the last week has scarcely been Friday evening, the floral parade Wednesday, Thursday evening's parade and the many many other things incidental to lack of dinner parties at the Country club Metz, Albert Cohn, Charles A. Hull, W. S. last evening, only two reservations for par- Blackwell, Charles E. Smith, P. B. Myers, ties having been made, and both of these F. B. Hochstetter, John E. Summers, jr., were small. Since the establishment of has been the popular occasion for luncheons among the society women, and every week, regardless of weather and everything else the gathering there was to be counted upon. If there were visiting women in town ladies' day was made the occasion for their introduction in preference to a luncheon at Of course this plan had its advantages, for while a hostess might invite whom she pleased for her immediate party there was still the advantage of contact with everybody else and none of the responsibility of their entertainment, and this mid-week gathering will be missed. October 24 has been set for the closing of the cafe at the Country club, and, of course, the Tukey, Edith Thomas, Marguerite Preston. Saturday night hop, as a regular thing, Helen Peck, Bessie Yates, Blanche Mc-

It will not be long, however, before there that evening for any regular gathering, for even now, of all the evenings of the week, Saturday is about the most in demand.

Last evening the Stone-Heagland wedding and reception took precedence over everything else and being so large an affair monopolized society, so to speak.

The coming week and the week following have in prospect two of the most pretentious semi-public functions that have functions that in the earlier days of their nence and in their honor each will give a and Mrs. George L. Miller, October 24. reception. Monday evening, October 12, the Woman's club will receive in honor of Mrs. Demies T. S. Denison of New York, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in the clubrooms in the First Conher 20, in the evening, the local chapter Daughters of the American Revolution will give a reception in honor of Mrs. Charles Fairbanks, president general of the national society and wife of Senator Fairbanks of Indiana. The reception will be held at Metropolitan club and invitations will be fimited to the chapter members of the state and the Sons of the American Revolution and their wives. As both organizations in- Hoagiand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. clude in their membership many of the George A. Hoagland, and Captain David

While the king may ordinarily be the the dress uniforms of the officers contribprincipal figure at a coronation, it is the uting additional brilliancy to the handqueen who will be of chief consequence

2035 15#st Frank Wilcox Manager

Sorosis Individuality.

indescribable something that makes the rose the queen of flowers gives that character to this shoe which brings to it the admiration of all we-

Whether for the ball room or the street the shapes for different feet are so carefully lasted and made that they hold their shape and look the same after months of wear-From the ideal kid with turn sole to the heavy rough rider boot

$3.50 Always.

KARBACH BLK

SOCIETY IN HURRY UP MOOD next Friday night, when the sovereigns of about the bride and groom while the ser- evening, and Mr. Sherman Canfield had s the queen who has always monopolized very popular members of last year's deis one of the two, and as they are the best of friends, both came out at the same time. accused is taken as evidence that the other s really to be the queen. It has been ansounced that the one least suspected, and who, by the way, is one of the prospective brides, is going east this week, just in time to miss the ball, and this is taken as final evidence that she is to be the queen, for it has been a trick of former queens to expect to be absent from the city on the day of the ball and so increase the surprise when their identity became known.

> Following is the complete list of the women who will attend her majesty on the evening of the ball. The ladies of the court

Omaha-Mesdames J. A. McShane, S. D. Barkalow, J. M. Metcalf, George W. Lininger, C. W. Lyman, S. A. McWhorter, George E. Pritchett, R. B. Wood, H. W. Yates, R. S. Wilcox, C. N. Dietz, Fred Metz, John S. Brady, H. J. Penfold, F. P. Kirkendail. Frank Colpetzer, Victor White, M. A. Hall, W. J. C. Kenyon, W. F. Allen, C. E. Yout, C. C. Belden, G. W. Wattles, Thomas A. Fry. J. W. Thomas, R. C. Howe, H. E. Palmer, J. C. Cowin, James R. Scobble, Allen B. Smith, O. Hoffman, E. A. Cudahy, H. H. Baldridge.

Out of Town-Mesdames H. N. Bell, Aurora, Neb.; F. M. Rublee, Broken Bow; H. A. Cheney, Creighton; F. J. Coates, Grand Island; H. O. Boyd, Lyons; S. L. Humphrey, eventful, it was anything but dull, and Monroe; W. A. Paxton, jr., Ogalalla; Georevery day has brought something of inter- giana Grothan, St. Paul, Neb.; J. G. Mar-Chief among all being the Stone-Hoag- tin, South Omaha; Al Powell, South Omaha; land wedding and the Wednesday gathering H. D. Skelton, Stromsburg; W. G. Whitat the Country club. This week is promis- more, Valley; Henry Winter, Wahoo; E. F. ing enough at the start in the way of home Hauck, St. Louis, Mo.; F. B. Nickolls, affairs, in addition to the Ak-Sar-Ben ball Florence, Neb.; J. I. Corley, Weeping Water. The ladies in waiting:

Omaha-Mesdames D. M. Vinsonhaler, Mel Uhl, L. L. Kountre, O. W. Dunn, H. M. Carnival week. Of course the Carnival Collins, W. S. Jardine, O. D. Kiplinger, grounds will come in for their share of at- Harry L. Cummings, M. F. Roberson, John tention, for society is as fond of a lark as A. Kuhn, Arthur Metz, R. C. Hayes, H. C. ever, and altogether the prospect is for a Chayney, Fred Paffenrath, Harry Wilkins, C. T. Kountze, M. F. Funkhouser, C. E. Black, E. E. Bryson, Charles Offutt, Clem-In contrast with the crush of Wednesday, ent Chase, J. H. Sprague, C. M. Wilhelm, which was perhaps the largest mid-week Herbert Gannett, H. Vance Lane, M. C. gathering of the season and closed the Peters, Harry G. Jordan, H. Hugo Brandels, ladies' day priviliges for the fall, was the G. L. Hammer, D. B. Weipton, Charles Milton Barlow, F. A. Brogan, E. V. Lewis, ladies' day during the summer Wednesday F. L. Haller, E. M. Fairfield, W. H. Clarke A. J. Love, Charles Marsh, Robert Trimble D. J. O'Brien. Thomas W. Allen, J. D. Weaver, E. A. Nelson.

The maids of honor: Omaha-Misses Elizabeth Allen, Faith Potter, Ada Wilcox, Ella Cotton, Lucy Gore, Mildred Lomax, Bessie Brady, Blanche Rosewater, Flora Webster, Nellie May Penfold, Hester Taylor, Margarethe Elmore, Marie Elmore, Ruth Phillipi, May Weaver, Jeannie Wakefield, Gertrude Mc-Clintock, Ethel Wilkins, Ella May Brown, Georgia Kennard, Annie Ri Orcutt, Jean Orcutt, Carita Curtis, Louise Tukey, Ethel

Kenna. Out of Town-Misses Olga Lamhofer, Schuyler: Jennie Harris, South Auburn; will be plenty doing as substitute; in ract. Ro Hammond, Francisco, Davenport, at the rate the popularity of Saturday Davenport, Ia.; Vera Schmidt, Davenport, at the rate the popularity of Saturday Davenport, Ia.; Vera Schmidt, Davenport, Is.; evening is increasing for pretentious af- Ia.; Mollie Helen Baldwin, Elkhorn; Isafairs, it is doubtful if it would be wise to fix bella Myerson, St. Louis, Mo.; Louise Dietz, Lincoln; Letitia Lemon, St. Joseph, Mo. Moore, Council Bluffs; Addie Putnam, Aurora; Mabel Willing, Broken Bow; Florence Whitmoyer, Columbus; Nellie Murphy, Crete: Alma Flanders, Deadwood, S. D.; Heinsheimer, Glenwood, Ia.; Marie Reithardt, Ord; Elsa Woolworth, New York; Woolworth, New York.

Not a little interest attaches to the orbeen given by the women of the city in sev- ganization of the Old Settlers' club, which eral years. The Omaha Woman's club and has recently been effected. The club is local chapter Daughters of the Amer- the outgrowth of a gathering at the home ican Revolution are to be the hostess or- of Mr. and Mrs. George Doane one evening ganizations. For several years the tendency two weeks ago, in honor of Miss Gilmore of both associations has been toward the and her sister, Mrs. Hough of Chicago, philanthropic or practical, and the social both former residents of Omaha, the other guests being representatives of mest of organization were conspicuous among the the older families of the city. So enjoysmart affairs have been of less frequent oc- able did the occasion prove that it was This month both organisations decided to form a permanent club. The will entertain women of national promi- next meeting will be entertained by Dr.

To make surer of accuracy in the descriptions of their gowns in The Bee's account of the Ak-Sar-Ben ball, those women expecting to attend will kindly gregational church, from 8 to 11 o'clock, send the information briefly in advance The invitations will be out tomorrow. Octo- to the society editor by mail or over the telephone

> Miss Berolzheimer will show samples of the latest pattern and street hats at the Her Grand hotel Monday and Tuesday.

Weddings and Engagements.

Pre-eminent among the social affairs of the fall was the wedding of Miss Helen foremost women of the city these receptions I. Stone, U. S. A., of the Twenty-second promise to be among the most conspicuous infantry, solemnized last evening at the social features of the month.

Hosgiand residence at Sixteenth and How. Hongland residence at Sixteenth and Howard streets. It was a military wedding somely-gowned company that filled the spacious rooms. Asparagus fern in feathery profusion trailed above the windows and doorways, wound the chandellers and banked the mantles, forming a background for the cut flowers of different carleties that were used in the various oms. Out in the hall a mass of southern smilax wound the banisters of the stairway, archid the doorways and concealed the stringed orchestra. The opening chords of the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" announced the coming of the bridal party. which was preceded down the stairway by Captain Newell and Lieutenant Goodale, Captain Hamilton and Lieutenant Bull. who acted as ribbon bearers, Captain Hamilton and Lieutenant Bull standing at the foot of the stairs, while Captain Newell and Lieutenant Goodale stretched the syshes the length of the reception hall and across the library to the bay window. Captain Stone and his groomsman, Lieutenant Justice, came next, followed by the bridesmoids. Miss Helene Wyman of Wushington and Miss May Wyman of Omaha the bride, gowned in pink chiffon, and Miss Ethel Morse and Mrs. Paul Hoagland, gowned in green, and all carrying pink roses. Mrs. J. E. Summers, ir., as matron of honor, came next. Her gown was of yellow embroidered net and she carried American Beauty roses. The bride, with her father, came last. The bridal gown was of white liberty gause embroidered with pearls and white chiffon roses, the yoke and sash being of point-A veil of real net edged with pointlace was caught to place by a tiara of pearls. a shower of lillies of the valley impleting the costume. Under a canopy of asparagus fern, studded with white carnations, the marriage service was read by Father Pitzgerald, chaplain of the regiment of which Captain Stone is a member.

About 100 guests witnessed the wedding.

attention and this year is no exception. Which was followed from 8 to 10 o'clock by Who is she?" is the question that society a reception, at which about 400 guests Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sprague, Miss Crain is asking just now and that the busy- were present. Upstairs a splendid collec- and Mr. McCormick were guests of Mrs. bodies are vainly frying to answer. While tion of gifts attested the esteem in which Arthur Remington at dinner Wednesday sobody knows for certain, that is, nobady the young people are held by their many but that unresponsive trio that did the friends. Captain and Mrs. Stone left last appointing, suspicion has settled upon two evening for a two weeks' bridal trip through the south and will return to spend butante set. Of course, suspicion proves a week at Fort Crook before the departure nothing, but it is persistently said that it of Captain Stone's regiment, the Twentysecond, for the Philippines, October 31. Miss Hongland has been one of the most In fact, the apparent confusion of one when popular young women in society since her return from the east, where she completed little Miss Elizabeth Davidson, daughter her musical education, and her departure of Rev. and Mrs. Phillip Davidson, enterfrom Omaha will be sincerely regretted tained a few little friends at her home, by a host of friends.

Among the announcements of the week in which society has exhibited especial interest is that of the wedding of Miss Lydia Moore, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Moore, and Mr. Edwin Standish Westbrook, which is to take place at Trinity cathedral Wednesday evening, October 14 at' 8 o'clock. The wedding will be followed by a reception to the members of the bridal party and some of the members of the younger set.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Peters Thursday morning, when their daughter, Katherine Leona, was married to Mr. Herman Gunther. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom being present. The bride was charming in a gown of white embroidered batiste. The mald of honor, Miss Clara Noterman of Hillsboro, Ills., wore a dainty gown of white swiss over yellow. An autumn effect was carried out in the decorations, autumn leaves, goldenrod and red geraniums being used in profusion. The couple left for an extended journey through the east.

November 3 has been set for the wedding of Miss Louise Heller, daughter of Mr. A. Heller of 2412 St. Mary's avenue, and Mr. Morris Strauss. The wedding will be quiet, owing to a bereavement in the famlly during the year.

The marriage of Miss Helen Smith and Mr. William Sears Poppleton will be solempized at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, October 7, at the home of Miss Smith's sister, Mrs. Lucian Stephens, 2112 Cass street. It will be a family wedding and Mr. and Mrs. Poppleton will leave immediately for the east, where they will spend several weeks and will reside upon their return, at 204 South Thirty-seventh street. Mrs. Poppleton will be at home Wednesdays in January. .

Miss Berolzheimer will show samples of the latest pattern and street hats at the Her Grand hotel Monday and Tuesday.

Come and Go Gossip. Mrs. G. F. Thomas is visiting friends in St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Daisy Doane is expected home from the east early in November. Mr. B. Meyel has returned from an extended trip through Europe. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hitchcock have returned from a week's visit in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orr returned Thurslay from their trip to the Pacific coast. Mrs. W. E. Wilson, who has spent the summer in Colorado, is expected home this

Palmer, returned from Chicago Saturday morning. Mrs. E. S. Newman will leave Monday night to attend the Veiled Prophets ball at Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Meikle and Miss Julia Higginson are expected home from Europe this week.

taken apartments for the winter at the Her Grand. Miss Clara Hervey, who has been a student in the Chicago Art Institute, returned home Thursday.

Mr. W. A. Corson and son Dexter have returned from the east after an absence Mr. Wier Coffman is spending the week in the city, the guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. V. H. Coffman. Judge and Mrs. Slabaugh have as their guest Miss Lavina Craft of Hannibal, Mo., who will spend the winter here. Miss Louise Dwyer of Kansas City will spend carnival week among Omaha friends, this having formerly been her home. Mrs. William Brace Fonds of Grand Island is in the city, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jaynes.

Mr. Robert Franklin Smith is expected home today from an extended trip to Chicago and Ohio and Michigan points. Mrs. Hough and Miss Gilmore, who have been the guests of Mrs. Joseph Barker, will Miss Haines, who has been the guest return to their home in Chicago today. of her sister, Mrs. A. M. Longwell, has returned to her home in Springfield, Mo. Miss Mitchell, Miss Ollie Mitchell and Miss Lucy Sinclair of Racine, Wis., will be the guests of Mrs. J. M. Metcalf this

Mrs. Samuel Kats is at home after a three months' absence, spent visiting friends in Indianapolis, Louisville and Chi-Miss Retta McCullough, formerly of Omaha, but now of Decatur, Ill., is spending a few days in the city while enroute to California Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Donaldson and son Leason of Kansas City are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Parker of Kountse Place.

Mrs. William VanDyke of Sloux City is in the city as a guest of Mrs. W. N. Nason of the Her Grand hotel and Dr. A. W. Nason. 2532 Manderson street.

Miss Elsa Woolworth of Sandusky, O., and Miss Mildred Woolworth of New York City will be Mrs. E. M. Fairfield's guests fluring Ak-Sar-Ben week.

Miss Blanche McKenna, who has spent the summer on the New England coast, is now with friends in Evanston. Ill., and is expected in Omaha today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Dietz and Mr. Gould Diets expect to leave October 17 for the west on a tour around the world, which will occupy about seven or eight months. Mrs. William Sanford Robinson is the guest this week of her uncle, General Lyster M. O'Brien, U. S. A., at Detroit Mrs. Robinson goes to New York about

Miss Isabelle Myerson, daughter of Mr. Gabriel S. Myerson of St. Louis, but formerly of Omaha, is the guest of Mrs. S. A. McWhorter and will remain about two weeks longer, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Van Ness will leave Omaha this week to make their home in Kansas City. While Mr. Van Ness is ostablishing bimself there she will visit her former home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Fred Schneider returned from Chicago Saturday morning. She was accompanied by Mrs. Charles Van Court and tittle daughter, who will be the guest of Mr and Mrs. E. D. Van Court.

Pleasures Post.

Mrs. H. B. Kelly entertained twelve guests at luncheon Tuesday. In honor of her sister, Mrs. D. A. Camp bell of Denver, Mrs. G. W. Hervey entertained Thursday afternoon and Friday evening. Mrs. Dan Wheeler was hostess of kensington given Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Lenihan of Fort Niobrara. The acene was most impressive, as the who is the guest of Mrs. Herbert Wheeler ribbon bearers closed in back of the bridal Mr. W. T. Burus entertained a dinner party, the men in full uniform, grouped party of eight at the Country club last we

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Balch, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Coles, Mrs. Graham Bradley entertained at dinner Friday complimentary to Mrs. J. H. Catron and Mrs. E. K. Bradley of Nebraska City. Covers were laid for: Mesdames Catran, Bradley, Ransom, Covell, Graham Bradley, Misses Covell, Bradley and Priseman of Grand Island.

In celebration of her seventh birthday, 331 Pine street, Saturday afternoon. Games and a birthday cake with lighted candles contributed much to the pleasure of the occasion, the little people present being Misses Dorothy Black, Frances Bernard, Leona Williams, Mildred Longnecker, Louise White, Edith Judd, Masters Tom Kimball, Arthur Patton and Tom Berry.

Social Chit-Chat.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gladstone September 29. During the past week another palatial some has been opened in Omaha, that of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joslyn, on North Thirty-ninth street.

Last evening a number of friends and residents of the vicinity surprised Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn in celebration of the opening of their home and to welcome them as

LINCOLN SOCIAL NOTES

One of the affairs "pulled off" in Lincoln this week is worth telling about. It was a crowd of the finest little girls and women in all the land that did it and it happened Monday night, and if their mammas read this they will certainly be shocked. It all came about by a plate shower, given to one of their crowd who during the week took unto herself a husband. It is not necessary to call any names, because anybody who is anybody in Lincoln knows every one of them. After the girls had showered their plates around the table without breaking any of them some one suggested that something strenuous should be done, because thoughts of a wedding always suggest some real up-to-snuff something, so the girls decided upon a mock wedding ceremony, TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER

(Continued on Seventh Page.)

SCOFIELD

Invites the ladies to inspect the best assorted stock of Fall

Cloaks, Suits, Skirts, Waists and Furs

ever brought to Omaha. Styles that are correct-materials correct and workman-

IT PAYS TO LOOK HERE

Satisfaction or money refunded.

O. K. Scofield Cloak and Suit Co. 1510 DOUGLAS STREET.

DANCING New classes for adults. Beginners will be organized at Morand's, 15th and Harney, on Tuesday and Friday of this week. By joining now you will pay two dollars less than regular rates. Assemblies every Wed-nesdays. Admission, 50c. Children's classes are now opened-lessons Wednesdays. 4:15 p. m. Saturday at 10 a. m., and 5 p. m. Call or telephone 1041 for particulars.

Makes Most Useful Present.

LARGEST EXCLUSIVE RETAIL MILLINERY HOUSE IN THE WEST.

Importer and Manufacturer of High Grade Popular Millinery The store for values and style.

Beautiful Hats at $4, $5 and $6.

It's worth your while to look.

Street Hat Sale Monday. 1508 Douglas St.

Mrs. J. Benson

210-212 S. 16th St. Y. M. C. A. Bldg.

We Are Ready

For the Big Carnival Week with the largest and most popular lines of goods in Furs, Children's Cloaks, Ladies' and Children's Underwear, Waists, Skirts, Corsets, Petticoats, Hosiery for ladies and children. Kid and Fabric Gloves, Neckwear, Ribbons, Handkerchiefs. Laces, Embroideries, Dressing Sacques, Dress Trimmings, Art Needlework, Notions, etc.

Our Fur Dept.

is full of the staple and latest novelties in Bons, Scarfs and Stoles, double or single, fitted neck or cape effect, with long tab or stole front, silk or fur lined, sable fox, Isabella fox, real or imitation marten, imitation sable, coon, mink, black hair, bear, nutria, gray squirrel, blue fox and others. Prices, from $2.00 up to $60.00.

We Are Showing Children's Cloaks

From the first Long coat for infants, up to eight years, in melton, kersey, heviot, sibeline and velvet cloths, in the latest styles and at popular prices,

In Underwear

We can give you almost anything you could ask for in ladies' or children's. Vests, Pants or Union Suits, All the leading styles in the Straight Front or Long Habit HIP CORSET. New Fall Waists, Dress Skirts and Underskirts.

Our Art Needlework Department is full of the latest novelties in Pill ow Tops, Centers, Hand Embroidered; Commenced Pieces, etc.

In Kid Gloves

The best makes, in dressed or undressed, light or heavy weight. Prices. $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00. White or Black Kid Gloves, from eight to sixteen-button lengths, for the Ak-Sar-Ben ball.

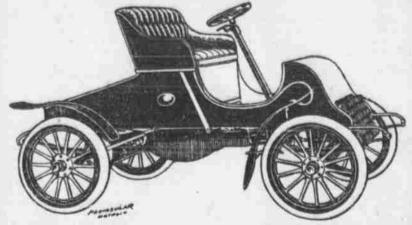

With the return from our summer vacations, our thoughts naturally turn toward house renovation and home decoration. The artistic Hawkes cut glass ware, silver candleabrum. gilt clocks, vases, etc., to be found OPPOSITE THE POST OFFICE, will fill your needs.

ALBERT EDHOLM, Jeweler. 107 NORTH SIXTEENTH ST.

FOR AK-SAR-BEN BALL AND CARNIVAL

Lewis Henderson, Florist

Automobiles

We do not handle experiments. Every machine on our floor has been proved reliable. We are prepared to demonstrate to you that our cars are leaders in their respective classes. Write or call for cata-

Buggies

An immense stock and variety of styles. The lowest pricesgrade considered-to be found in Omaha. Give us a chance to prove it to you.

Harness

A very fine line of Harness and Horse Furnishings of all kinds. The Largest stock Horse Blankets and Lap Robes in the city. It will pay you to look it over.

Andersen-Millard Company 1516-18 Capitol Ave.

NOTE! A Carnival Horn Free to everyone calling at our store during coming week.

AK-SAR-BEN CARNIVAL VISITORS INVITED TO STORE,

MISS S. R. SCOTT, FINE MILLINERY,

1724 Douglas Street, Opposite Entrance to Carnival Grounds. OMAHA, NEB.

Carpets Carpets

For Ak-Sar-Ben Week Only

Wilton Velvet Carpet In Our Stock

For Per Yard

100 Patterns to Select From

CARPET

1515 DODGE STREET.

Millinery Removal

MISS DOWNEY, formerly of McMillen & Downey, corner 24th and Seward Sts., has removed three doors south to

1518 North 24th Street, where she will be pleased to see all their customers.

Special Line of Street & Dress Hats $3,50 & $5