Ames Collegians Score Two Touchdowns and Kicks as Many Goals In First Ten Minutes, After

Which Guards Brace Up.

Iowa's sturdy agricultural students from Ames college proved too much for the Dodge Light Guards' foot ball team and for the first time in the history of their organization the soldiers went down in defeat yesterday afternoon by a score of 16 to 0 in favor of the collegians. The game, however, was not so one-sided as the score would indicate, as after the first ton minutes' play, the soldiers rallied and held their opponents down in good shape. despite the fact that the visitors succeeded in getting a third touchdown in the

The Ames team not only had the ad vantage of practice and training, which the guards sadly lacked this season, but it heavily outweighted the soldier players. While the Guards finally met their Waterloo, they played a good game after they got over their flurry in the beginning of the first half. At the outset of the game the Guards lost fifteen yards in three successive penalties for offside play, and this seemed to rattle them, as Ames scored wo touchdowns within the first ten min utes' play. After the second touchdown the soldiers pulled themselves together and from that out the same was a rattling The third touchdown secured by
