NEW YORK DRESSMAKING STOCK Will Be Sold in Omaha Monday,

AT J. L. BRANDEIS & SONS, BOSTON

STORE. This stock was sold by Charles Shongood. United States auctioneer, by order of the U. S. district court, Eastern district of New York. The low figure at which we secured this stock enables us to offer the most fashionable dress goods at a fraction of their cost to import.

This splendid stock consists of dainty dress stuffs and the more practical goods for street contumes, also thousands of yards of silks and velvets, 38 made-up costumes and a whole stock of laces and #rimmings.

Come prepared Monday to buy the grandest bargains ever offered by

J. L. BRANDEIS & SONS, Proprietors Boston Store.

Assessments of the Theaters. The regular mid-week matines will be given at the Orpheum this afternoon. There will be one change in the bill tonight. Bellman and Moore will substitute "Hester's Promise" for "A Gallery Goddess." The bill is proving a good drawing card, the andlences having been large throughout

The stage of the Boyd theater will be occupied by one of the Y. M. C. A. lecturers tonight. Friday night the house will be dark. Saturday matinee Blanche Walsh opens her engagement in "Resurrection," which includes Saturday night and a special matinee Sunday. Sunday matinee was originally booked for "McFadden's Row of Flats," but owing to the company's Inability to arrive from Denver in time the afternoon was given to Miss Walsh. The sale of seats for the Walsh engagement opened yesterday and judging from be demand for them the engagement will very good.

n Convict Stripes," which will be seen the Krug tonight and the balance of is week, is considered one of the most picuresque scenic productions of the day. The play takes place amongst the pines of South Carolina, near Charleston. Act first is an exact reproduction of an old southern school house; the second an exterior of a southern home; the third the famous government quarry and the fourth the home of the quarry guards. These are beyond doubt the most realistic scenic pictures ever presented by a traveling company. The thrilling explosion scens and the death defying swing for life in the third act is conceded by all to be the arms of all scenic effects ever attempted on
