The people of British Columbia expected to receive much more at the hands of the mmissioners, but as one of the officials STRONG BOXES MUST REMAIN LOCKED of British Columbia said this morning: ef British Columbia said this morning:

If the people of the province find that the case was decided on its merits alone, they will accept the decision frankly, but if, as has been the case in other arbitrations where this province has been affected and notably the pelagic sealing arbitration, the decision has been reached as a diplomatic arrangement, it will cause extreme irritation in Canada, where people are becoming tired of being garlanded with flowers and eacrificed to make diplomatic arrangements between Great Britain and the United States. British Columbia expected much more and cannot see on what ground the decision was given against them.

Opinion of Goldwin Smith. TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 17 .- Prof. Goldwin

Smith, commenting on the Alaska decision today, said:

I cannot pretend to criticize the decision. We doubt the investigation was thorough and the judgment impartial. But in these asset of delimitation, where the framers and the judgment impartial. But in these cases of delimitation, where the framers of the original treaty or arrangement, whatever it was, knew little about the territory, the data must always be unsatisfactory. If the British government has not got for Canada all to which she was entitled it has got for her more than she could have got for herself. As to going to war pith the United States for any cause on this side of the Atlantic, the people of Great Britain would never consent. No government which proposed to do it could live for twenty-four hours.

In Spite of Effort to Separate Defense

Judge Tells Jury Both Are Innocent or Both Are Guilty.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.-11:35 p. m .- The jury in the Miller and Johns case reported that it was unable to agree and was dis-

Today's session of the trial of D. V. Miller and Joseph M. Johns was devoted to argument. During Attorney Rulison's argument it was evident the defense of Miller had cut loose with that of Johns. Rulison declared it might be said in defense of Johns that when he buncoed Ryan out of $4,500 he buncoed one who had been buncoing others for years, but it was injurious to connect Miller with it when the latter knew nothing of it. He held that the conspiracy established was that of making a scapegoat out of Miller, In whose trial "gamblers and thugs" had been used as witnesses. Rulison insisted that Miller had been treated unfairly in the "sweat boxes" at Washington and held that he was not then given an opportunity to present his own case. He said Christiancy was the judge who passed on the Ryan cases and that Miller simply appeared as the government's attorney. The article in a Washington newspaper for which the date was furnished by Clerk Huebner of the postoffice department was reviewed to show that Christiancy passed on the Ryan case favorably, instead of Miller.

Charles W. Baker, as attorney for Johns, insisted that Miller had the fraud order issued against Ryan and afterward had the mail of Ryan & Co, held up and was really the one who was causing trouble for Johns' client, so that there could have been no understanding between Miller and

In reviewing all that was done at Washington, Baker said that the indictment of Miller and Johns was due more to the inexperience of General Robb, who had recently been admitted to the bar, than to the identification of the defendants. He also charged that others were trying to "boost" themselves by the persecution of "the two country lawyers" and he charged that the stenographic notes of Watson had been garbled after they were taken down in a concealed corner of Bristow's office.

Government Closes Case. District Attorney McPherson went over the cases of Johns and Miller separately and jointly, laying special atress on the telegrams of Johns notifying Ryan & Co. at St. Louis in advance last November that the inspectors were coming and insisting that Johns could get this information only through Miller and that Johns used it for the purpose of securing money from Ryan. McPherson said that Ryan never hunted for Johns. McPherson laid most stress on the "Jim telegram" that was progress of the strike of employees of the sent notifying Johns that a copy of the Pacific Express company in St. Louis, and decision in the Ryan case had been mailed which has been augmented by employes

McPherson said that Johns soon afterward met Ryan in Cincinnati and delivered the decision upon the receipt of $4,500. Mo-Pherson closed shortly before 4 o'clock. Judge Thompson was an hour and a quarter in delivering his charge to the jury, which did not get the case until after 5 o'clock. The court paid special attention to the testimony of John J. Ryan and instructed the jury not to throw it aside on account of the character of the witness, but to give it due consideration, wherein it was corroborated by other witnesses of docunentary evidence. The charge of the court held that there must be an overt act, and that while there was no direct testimony to show except in the testimony of Ryan, yet there was much circumstantial evidence to that effect. The main question for the jury to settle was wether dent F. E. Modie of Chicago tonight stated Miller had knowledge of what took place between Johns and Ryan and whether Pacific Express company a general strike Johns was authorized to speak for the assistant attorney in the office of the aswould be ordered among the employes of sistant attorney of the postoffice general the different companies who are members department. The court told the jury that there could be no verdict finding one of the defendants guilty and the other innocent and that no prejudice should enter into their findings.

It was almost 6 o'clock when the jury was allowed to go to supper.

TRIAL ENDS IN HUNG JURY COLLISION IN DENSE FOG

Lives of Thousands Endangered by Accident Which Occurs in San Could Not Reach Verdict in Postal Fraud Francisco Bay.

> SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 17.-Endangering the lives of thousands of passengers, the Southern Pacific ferry steamer Newark crashed into the ferry steamer Oakland during a dense for this morning. Newark struck Oakland's aft paddle box, tearing a hole in its side, but fortunately not damaging its machinery.

Newark came out of the wreck with its rails carried away at the bows. The deck hear the apron was cut deeply by Oakland's side.

Owing to the dense fog on the bay the boats were doing double service, the crowds on each steamer being large. Great excitement was caused. The force of the blow was such that the boat listed at least twenty degrees. After this lunge to starboard, Oakland recovered, but rolled to port when Newark backed its engines and got clear. As Oakland rocked on the water after the crash the crowd on the lower and upper decks rushed back and forth in a fury of fright. Women fell in fainting fits or went into hysterics on the injured steamer. On the upper deck several women rushed to the rail to leap overboard, but were held back by the men. On Newark the passengers were more easily, restrained, that vessel not feeling the force of the collision as much as Oak-

Fortunately, during the crisis, the officers of the steamer remained cool. The captains, and pilots stood at their posts in the wheel houses and extricated the boats from their position, the mates and deck hands, with presence of mind, went about urging the crowd that there was no real danger. It was found to be almost impossible to restrain the more excited persons, who let their fears run away with them. During the half hour that followed the crew had to stand ready, fearing that any moment some foolish passenger might try to leap into the water, but despite the black fog, so dense the pilots could scarcely see the flag poles, both boats finally reached the allps on this side of the bay.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 .- A warning to capital against cutting wages, if financial depression comes, by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, and a pleafor harmony between employers and tollers by Senator Hanna were made at the closing session of the National Civic Federation conference. Mr. Gompers had listened days ago, in connection with the escape to the arguments of the representatives of capital and labor who had come from various parts of the country to discuss questions that would aid in bringing them closer together.

It was in reply to one of the speakers, the editor of a New York paper, who at the session the day before took occasion They declined to discuss this conference to tell the employers and employes in the Senator Morgan said tonight that he went event of a possible financial reaction not to make any unreasonable demands upon the employers, that Mr. Gompers spoke of the harm that follow the lower wages. President Gompers answered many of the charges made by the speakers and took particular exception to some of the state-the elements of labor organs. Labor leaders and employes say this conterence has done much to bring labor and capital together in an effort to establish more harmonious relations, and they expressed a satisfaction at what they regarded as a right step in the right direc-

United States Senator Mark Hanna pre sided at the last session of the conference. Ex-Judge Waterman of the local branch of the federation introduced Senator Hanna, the president of the National Civic federation. Mr. Hanna spoke of the importance of the work engaged in and the success in bringing together capital and labor, which at first seemed to him im-

Much, he said, was due to the conservative element of labor organizations He expressed hope for the future and said town. that members of the federation, who at first were reluctant to join were now the most active workers. Since his connection with an Ohio strike thirty years ago, he said, he had made up his mind there was

The future of success in the industrial world, the senator said, would be largely which was started here four years ago The duty of employers was greater than of the great work to be done. In all great difficulties, political or otherwise, compromise is the only thing to bring success. The work of the federation is, he said, a work of education and added that patience is required in the work for the good of our fellow men individually and for society as a whole. Future success in maintaining industrial success was a greater matter than the question of who is the next president.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful it is im Preserving Health and Beauty,

Nearly everybody knows that chargosl is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose,

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; It is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Chargoal sweetens the breath after smok ing, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Chargoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe carthartic. It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best chargoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Absorbent Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form. or, rather, in the form of large, pleasant tasting losenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: Stuart's Absorbent Losenges to all patients suffering from gas in the stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Absorbent Losenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."
