They had been called together to take special action upon a petition of the democrats to have the membership of the board increased from three to seven. In canvassing the petition many names were thrown off as repeaters and others as not being genuine. The matter had as sumed the proportions of being a big row when suddenly this afternoon the proceedings were brought to an abrupt end. A remonstrance was filed signed by secores of the signers of the petition asking that their names be stricken off. The striking off of these names left the petition with an insufficient number of signatures and hence the board refused to take any action The democrats intimate that the board will be made defendants in a further action at law. The whole county is excited over the matter.
