ASKS RAILROAD Union Pacific Files Answer to Pro

tests from South Omaha

Freeholders. The defendants in the case of Magdalena Pivonka against Frank Koutsky, mayor, Omaha, filed their answer in the district court yesterday. This is the suit instituted by freeholders in Bouth Omaha, asking for an injunction to prevent the council of that city from ing an ordinance opening up and extending certain streets for a right-of-way for the Union Pacific rallway. The defendants deny that the granting of the use of certain streets would work irretrievable injury to the protesting freeholders. A dismissal of the suit at plaintiff's cost is asked.

Criminal Court Notes.

In the criminal division of the district court the case of the State of Nebraska against A. V. Todd was called. The defendant is charged with embezziement. It is alleged that he failed in his capacity as agent to turn over to the life insurance company for whom he was working the sum of $576.

The jury in the case of the district cuit. Mr. Westerdahl has lived in this city all his life, and for the past dozen years he has been employed at the transfer station between here and Council Bluffs.

Many people become angry when told how to use a telephone and the council to use a telephone and the council the council that the council the council that the council that

The jury in the case of the State of Ne-braska against John D. Smith and James Gaughan, who were charged with assault with intent to rob, has returned a verdict of guilty. The defendants attacked a stranger to the city of Omaha in September and after a struggle secured a two-cent postage stamp and a piece of tobacco. The stranger had & cents on his person, but DISMISSAL this the assailants failed to locate. The fact that he was a stranger doubtless accounts for the fact that he had as much as 35 cents, according to a version of the affair which was given at the court house.

Announcements of the Theaters. The hit made by "The Country Girl" in London, New York and other metropolitan centers has been repeated in Omaha. This and the council of the city of South dies is well worthy the attention it has relatest of the "giri" series of musical comeceived from its managers and the patronage the public has bestowed upon it. Its catchy songs, sprightly music, pretty costumes and the capable company that is presenting it make up one of the best attractions the Boyd has to offer this season. It will be repeated this evening and on tomorrow a matinee and evening performance will be given.

Hoyt's "A Bunch of Keys" will be the following attraction, with two performances on Sunday.

The attraction at the Krug theater tonight and tomorrow afternoon and night will be the peculiar comedian, W. B. Patton, in the beautiful pastoral play "The Minister's Son." This is a new attraction for the Omaha public, but it has been a great success in the eastern cities for two seasons For the matinee Saturday the Krug theater popular price of 25 cents for the best seats

George Westerdahl, the Omaha boy, will be a special feature of the bill at the Orpheum tonight. This is his first professional appearance and he should make a 'go" of it. He will make application for an engagement around the Orpheum cir-
