BATTLE WITH BANK ROBBERS Man Believed to Have Robbed the Burrton, Kansas Bank Captured. ONE OF THEM IS BADLY WOUNDED

But Little Money is Found in Their Possession and They Say They Were Never in Town of Burton.

BURRTON, Kan., Oct. 34 -- After a deter nined chase and an exchange of shots, five nen who it is believed robbed the Burton bank on Thursday were captured last night on an island in the Arkansas river, fifteen miles from Burrton, and lodged in be Newton Jail.

They gave their names as James Bell, aged 15; George Olson, 28; E. H. Johnston, 25, who was severely wounded; Thomas White, 24, and Frank Harwood, 26, Johnston is badly wounded, being shot in the head, breast, arms and legs with No. 4 shot. The men declare they were never in Burrton, but W. L Daly, a merchant of Burrton, identifies them as the men who came to his store Thursday evening. The bandits had only $30 in their possession when searched Parties are now going over the trail looking for the money which is supposed to have been buried.

pursuers and three of the robbers, Harry Westmascotte, who was carrying a doublebarreled shotgun, fired at the men and, in addition to wounding one, knocked a revolver from his hand. Friday afternoon 150 citizens formed at this point, and following a trail of blood located the robbers n a wooded island in the Arkansas river. A party of thirty heavily armed men, with the assistant cashler of the bank, E. E. Shive, then proceeded to wade across while the rest of the pursuers covered the Island with guns and revolvers. Seeing the overwhelming odds against them the robbers waved a white handkerchief and crawled from the sand pits they had dug and surrendered.

The men gave as their reason for being unable to escape that they were compelled to assist their wounded leader. It is thought that these men may have been the same ones that held up the eating house at Mc-Farland recently. Brolled Oysters a la Mode-Rinse in their own liquor as many large oysters as are needed. Brush with butter a griddle or wire broller and place the oysters upon it. Broll over a clear, hot fire; and if the oysters should drip, place them far enough from the coals to prevent their becoming smoked if using the wire broller. When done a delicate brown and their gills ruffle, place then on delicate squares of toast, and put very small pieces of butter on each oyster.
