CORNHUSKERS SUPERICR AT EVERY POINT

Carry the Ball a Total of 344 Yards, While Mountaineers Are Only Able to Advance It a Total of Thirty-Seven.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 74-(Special Telegram.)-The University of Nebrasza administered a decisive defeat to Colorado University today on the gridiron, the Cornhuskers piling up six touchdowns for a total of thirty-one points, and not perthe Nebraska goal. Colorado played with Illinois. fair spirit in the first half and compelled Booth's pupils to be content with only half and rushed down the field almost at punt whenever they secured possession of coin in a general jollification.

Nebraska's form was superb at all periods the tackles and ends being used frequently and effectively to carry the ball, while Nebraska's backs, although outmatched as to weight, balked all attempts by Colorado to prevent them from advancing toward the opposing goal. Fumbling marred Nebraska's play slightly in the first half, but only once were the Coloradoans able to hold Nebrasks for downs.

Mass Plays on Tackles Effective.

Inside the twenty-five yard limit, Nebraska resorted to mass plays directed at the Colorado tackles and the Cornhuskers' opponents labored desperately, but in vain. check Nebraska's advance. This style of play was imported by Booth from Princeton. He has subsequently improved it and during his four years as foot ball mentor at Nebraska, no opposing eleven has been able to resist this play. It was used today with telling effect, and every down the runner was hurled along for gains varying from three to twelve yards. Nebraska suffered severely from penalties, its three infractions of the rules costing forty yards, while Colorado was put back fifteen yards. One of the penalties against the Cornhuskers was for holding and aside from costing twenty-five yards, It stayed them at a period when they were marching steadily toward the Colo-achievement of another touchdown. The weights were in Nebruska's favor the average being seven pounds to the The Nebraska backs were much lighter than the Colorado, but the excess of avoirdupois in the Cornhuskers' line and their success in charging into and breaking up Colorado's plays turned the tide of battle almost at its inception. Nebraska's interference formed quickly and when one under way the opposing tacklers had poor success in stopping the runner in his flight. cially brilliant was the performance of Nebraska's back field, the runners skirting the ends or plunging through the line with a snap and dash that soon wore down the At fullback the exhibi

Three Long Runs.

The longest runs were those achieved by Bender and Benedict, the latter sprinting around right end for thirty yards before being downed and instituting another onward march, which did not end until th Cornbuskers were across the Colorado goal for the final touchdown. Bender placed two runs, each for twenty-five yards, to his account, while his ability to return punts and his speed in getting down the field on Benedict's punts, in which he often largely in the Cornhuskers' victory.

For Colorado Captain Foote at left tackle and Center Tonkin were frequent stumbling blocks to Nebraska's attack, and with better support from their team mates the triumph of the Cornhuskers would have been less decisive.

Booth did some experimenting in the secend half by sending in five substitutes to

IS YOUR STOMACH ON A STRIKE?

There is nothing to prevent you employing a substitute to do its work.

There is such a thing as forbearance ceasing to be a virtue even in the case of one's stomach. There is no question but that some stomachs will stand a great deal more wear and tear and abuse than others, but they all have their limit and YALE DEFEATS THE CADETS when that limit is reached, the stomach must be reckoned with as sure as fate. The best way and really the only effective way to treat your stomach when it rebels is to employ a substitute to do its work This will give the weakened and worn out

In fact when dissolved in the stomach, they are digeative fluids for they contain exactly the same constituents and elements as the gustric juice and other digestive fluids of the stomach. No matter what the condition of the stomach is, their work is just the same. They work in their own natural way without regard to surrounding conditions.

The stomach being thus relieved by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, is restored and re-newed by Nature and the rest of the human body does not suffer in the least by reason of its fallure to perform its work.

A Wisconsin man says: "I suffered the pangs of dyspepsia for 19 years. I tried every known remedy with indifferent results until I was told of the remarkable oures of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, I bought a box, began taking them and forgot I had a stomach. Punting Honors Even.

Honors were even between Benedict and Baker in punting, although the wind was generally in the Colorado kicker's favor. in running back punts, however, the advantage was slightly in favor of the Nebraska backs. Detailed notes of the play snow that Nebraska advanced the ball a total of 344 yards, while Colorado carried it thirty-seven yards. In returning punts and Eckoffs Nebraska averaged thirteen yards and Colorado ten yards. Nebraska made a poor showing in kicking goals. Three players tested their skill in sending the ball between the goal posts and only once were they successful. The Cornhuskers' weakness in this department means that Booth must devote his energies in the development of a reliable goal kicker bemitting the mountaineers to even menace fore the crucial games with Kansas and

IOWA WINS FROM GRINNELL

Hawkeye Player Has His Jaw Brokes in Two Places by Running Into a Spectator.

GRINNELL. Ia., Oct. 3t.—(Special Telegram.)—Iowa defeated Grinnell by 17 to 0 in a well-played game today. Iowa played in a superior form and kept the play entrely in Grinnell's territory, mave for one incursion by Grinnell to Iowa's forty-yard line. Iowa suffered a heavy blow in the injury to Jones, who broke his jaw in two places by running into a spectator on the side lines. Spectators swarmed on the field in the second half and impeded the progress of the game. Griffith, Jones, Allen, Donovan, Coulthard and Waters played brilliantly. The two Grinnell players who classed with the Hawkeyes were Carson and Captain Van Liew.

Omaha and York Righ School Teams Meet on the Oridiren.

FORMER EXCELS IN SKILL OVER WEIGHT

Game is One of Most Strenuous and Interesting that Han Been Seen on Local Foot Ball Field for Some Time.

The York High school foot ball team proved its mettle yesterday at Vinton street park and gave the Omaha High school leven, which long ago has established its claim to superiority, about the most strepuous tussle it has had. The game was a veritable tug-of-war and resulted in a goose egg for each side. Seldom has a better, more evenly played foot ball game been seen in Omaha between high school teams. Both elevens did some work which might have done credit to university teams. The large audience was wild with enthusiasm from beginning to end of the game. York outweighed the home team somewhat, but did not outpoint it, to which doubtless was due-the result.

Omaha's playing was the more skillful Notable among the star plays was Shield's fifty-yard run in the second half, when he broke through the York line on Omaha's twenty-yard line and, assisted by superb interference, sped thirty yards down the field. The only restraining hand he felt after clearing the line until he collided The power of the Cornhuskers' attack gridiron before play began, and when the with the man who was playing back for York, was that of a York runner, who overtook him, but was unable to prevent Shield's excellent interference. The York team, which came here with a spotless record, having won every game this season by a decisive score, relied entirely upon its weight, confining plays a most entirely to line-bucking. In these was almost invariably successful. Th players fumbled often and always lost of their attempts at end runs and, in shor were outclassed by the Omaha team everything but weight.

Taylor, their colored fullback, played th best game and was used in all critics places, his number being often called twice and three times in succession. The back carried the ball in nearly every play as were plainly the mainstay of the team. Their center was especially weak, often letting Putnam through to tackle the run-

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Chicago showed a highly encouraging improvement over last Saturday in today's foot ball game with the University of Illinois and defeated the latter brilliantly, 18 to 6. All of the touch downs were made on long runs, two of them, one on each side, being made possibly by fumbles. A notable feature of the game was the fact that despite the desperation with which both sides played, but one penalty was inflicted. That was when Chicago, when within twenty yards of the illinois goal in the second half, lost ten yards for offside play. Elisworth converted all three of Chicago's touchdowns into goals. The weather was nearly perfect and 10,000 people saw the game, which was played on Marshall field. The lineup:

York punctured the Omaha line for substantial gains almost at will, it never made a gain around Omaha's ends. The loyal rooting in the grandstand was undoubtedly partly responsible for Omaha's splendid showing and Captain Thompson expressed himself as very grateful for the encouragement the team received from the grandstand.

Lafayette Wins from Navy.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 24.—Lafayette college defeated the Navy eleven today 6 to the Navy pushed Strassburger over for a touchdown, but Howard failed to kick goal. Three minutes before the end of the half Howard kicked off to Cooper on the visitors' 35-yard line. After twa five-yard gains Ernst got around the left end for 75 yards through Navy's back for a touch down and Scammell kicked goal.

The game was called promptly at 3:30 and Thompson kicked to York, who had chosen the north goal. The ball was downed on the twenty-yard line and Wileman was sent through Omaha's line for ten yards. Taylor then gained five yards. On the next play the ball was fumbled and kicked back ten yards, but was recovered by Taylor. An attempt to circle left end failed, as Benson downed the runner behind the line. Taylor and the halfbacks then gained several times, but York's rogress was finally stopped on Omaha's Colorado derense. At fullback the exhibition of Glenn Mason was of stellar order.

His line bucks were ground gainers and had no difficulty in beating Brown uniwhen Colorado had the ball he broke up play after play when the runners had cleared the line and seemed almost sure throughout the game. The game was made the ball, which was furnished by the York tried close formation, but was held for downs. Omaha was unable to change its style of play quickly and was forced to punt. Thompson kicked throughout the game. The game was made the ball, which was furnished by the York tried close formation. man trying to fall on it, and then by another fully eighty yards up the field, until Putnam managed to fall upon it. But the referee gave the ball to York, who soon gram.)—In today's game here Grinnell High school defeated the Clinton team by 13 to 0 fumbled to Omaha. Omaha gained until in an advantageous position to kick.

Thompson tried a place kick. The ball fell short and went to York on the fiveyard line. York carried the ball steadily down the field by straight line bucks, until near the middle of the field, Omaha captured it on a fumble. Thompson found t profitable to punt often. He soon punted forty yards, and as York fumbled and Rogers fell on the ball, Omaha gained forty yards. Omaha made good gains, but fumbled to York, who careered in eight downs some forty yards down the field until stopped by Benson, Putnam and Stein, who were mainly instrumental in bolding York for downs. Stein made a feroclous dash through the line for fifteen yards, but Thompson soon punted to Wileman, who was downed in his tracks by Benson on the one-yard line. Here Omaha strove valiantly to force the York team back for a safety, but Taylor soon had the ball out of danger. Time was soon called with the ball on York's thirteenyard line.

After resting and changing goals York kicked to Yoder, who returned the ball twenty-five yards. On the next play the ball was fumbled and rolled back ten yards, but was retained by Omaha. Omaha gained steadily, using Thompson, Shields and Btein. Burnett broke away and covered thirty yards. Thompson made a fake punt and took the ball back twenty yards, thus giving Omaha the ball on the first down. Shields failed to gain and York was pen alized five yards for offside play. Punts were exchanged and Omaha forced the ball to York's fifteen-yard line, where Yoder on a quarterback play, circled left end and planted the ball squarely between the goal posts. But the referee brought the ball back. York was given five yards for offside play, but Stein gained seven and Omaha was given ten yards for York's holding an Omaha player. This placed the ball on York's five-yard line. Thompson gained three yards, but the play being a series play and hardly understood, Omaha lost one yard on the next play and as Stein gained but one yard on the next, the ball went to York on their two-yard line. York was extracted from this precarious situation by Taylor, who was used these times here for eight yards. York punted and secured the ball and punted again.

Changes in the lineup were made at this time. Loftus replacing Swedeberg and Tompsett Benson, who had sustained a scalp wound and was bleeding profusely, Punts were exchanged and the playing continued up and down the middle of the field. The line bucks varied by splendid runs by Burnett for thirty yards and Shields for fifty and twenty, the game ending with the ball on York's twenty-yard

A Happy Family.

I take pleasure in telling you and afflicted women that I owe my life, my health and my happiness to Wine of Cardui. After my marriage my health broke down and after having tried several physicians and many kinds of medicines, I was given up to die.

I had heard of Wine of Cardui and decided to try it. I began to receive benefit at once, and now I am well and strong and our Mrs C. M. Ladd. home has two fine little boys to make it bright and happy.

Looking at the portraits of Mrs. Ladd and her two bright and healthy little children it is hard to realize that she ever was a sick and discouraged wife who was given up to die. This sincere letter telling how Wine of Cardui brought her good health and made it possible for her to become a happy mother in a home free from sickness will be read by thousands of discouraged and childless wives today. The first four years after marriage are trying to any woman and Mrs. Ladd's words should be thoughtfully considered by every young wife who reads them.

Wine of Cardui acts as a powerful tonic to the diseased and weakened womanly functions. For its use no examination by a doctor nor operation by a surgeon is necessary. The cure is complete and lasting without fear of a return of the troublesome symptoms. Wine of Cardui has day by day gained favor among American women on account of the cures it has accomaccomplished. What it has done for Mrs. Ladd it will do for you. We are not asking you to take an untried medicine when we recommend it to you. It is on the strength of what we know it is and what we know it has done that we ask you to give it a trial. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
