

ON EVE OF ELECTION

Conditions of Campaign and Predictions of the Results in Several States. FUSIONISTS TRY ELEVENTH HOUR TRICK. Undertake to Array Anti-Saloon League Against Judge Barnes. THREE MEN ON BOARD PASS RESOLUTIONS. Act Instigated by Preacher Who is About to Leave State. BOTH PARTIES CLAIM ALL IN SIGHT.

$100 REWARD.

The Republican County Committee is determined that the coming election shall be conducted in an honest manner, so that every voter may cast his ballot for the candidate of his preference. We are confident that every voter will be free from fraud every man's public ticket will be elected. I therefore offer a reward of $100 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person violating the election laws by false registration, repeating or illegal exercise of authority as election officers in connection with the election Tuesday next.

VATICAN TO BE PROTECTED

Recent Fire Causes Pope to Increase Number of Fire Fighting Force. ROME, Nov. 2.—Inquiry into the cause of the fire at the Vatican last night shows it was accidental, due either to carelessness in leaving the kitchen fire lighted or to the combustion of acids which Mr. Marle kept for the purpose of his work in making reproductions of ancient manuscripts and illuminated books for exhibition at St. Louis. The rumors of incendiaries are proved to be altogether unfounded. The Vatican authorities have expressed satisfaction with the help and sympathy given by the Italian officials. Mgr. Merry del Val, papal secretary of state, acting under the personal instruction of the pope, has written a letter to the commander of the Italian firemen, thanking him for the work done in extinguishing the fire and offering a contribution to the firemen's Mutual Assistance League. The damage done by the fire is not yet precisely estimated, but it is supposed that it will not exceed $50,000. The pope has ordered an increase in the force of firemen at the Vatican in order to be able to face any situation of the kind in the future and to protect the Vatican treasures.

TO BE ONLY SOCIAL MEETING

German Newspapers See Nothing of Political Nature in Visit of Caesar. BERLIN, Oct. 2.—The German government, which is supposed in its policy to lean toward Russia, is not making any political capital out of the approaching meeting of Emperor William and the czar at Wiesbaden Wednesday next. An intimation has been spread through the government newspaper that the meeting of the two monarchs will be of a purely social character and without political significance. The German emperor will arrive at Wiesbaden tomorrow from Saltsbrunn, where he went to examine the latest excavations at the Roman camp, and the czar will reach Wiesbaden the day following. The two monarchs and their suites will be present at a gala performance at the opera, which, it appears, will be the only festivity. The German emperor will, as is usual on these occasions, be attended by a great company of ministers, court officials and members of his private cabinet. The memorial service for Czar Alexander III at the Russian chapel at Darmstadt yesterday was attended by the czar and several other members of the Russian imperial party.

TO BUY AMERICAN STOCKS

Trust Company Formed in Switzerland to Deal in Railroad Securities. BERLIN, Nov. 2.—A special dispatch to the Tagblatt from Basel, Switzerland, says that a trust company for the handling of American railroad securities has been organized. The following Basel firms are participating: Speyer, Ehinger, Parvial, Sarasin and the following Berne banks: Macaud, Nuenbarger, Berthoud and Pury. The capital is $1,000,000 and $1,500,000 in bonds will be issued. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Kuhn, Loeb & Co. of this city have been requested to act in an advisory capacity to the trust company recently formed in Switzerland to deal in American securities. Beyond the fact that the company has for its principal object the purchase and sale of American railway stocks and bonds, Kuhn, Loeb & Co. had no information concerning it.

PREMIER COMBS MAY RETIRE

Alleged that Head of French Government is Not Pleased with Vote. PARIS, Nov. 2.—Premier Combes has not yet noticed the reports that he is likely to retire, but it is generally accepted in political circles that he is considering the possibility of retiring. The Journal des Debats says it has reason to believe that no decision has yet been reached and if the premier finally decides to retire it will not be for some time. It is said that Minister Combes is irritated by the recent reduced majority of the government in minor votes in the Chamber of Deputies and he is apprehensive that the socialist group will not support some of the government's economic measures which will be presented to Parliament in December and January.

AFRICAN NATIVES IN REVOLT

Aberigines of Damaraland Rise Against Germans Killing a Non-commissioned Officer. CAPE TOWN, Nov. 2.—The German consul here confirms the rumor of native rebellion in Damaraland, a country of south-west Africa, forming a part of the German possessions. A German non-commissioned officer commanding at Warmbad has been killed and the chief of the rebels has been shot. Other rumors that a commanding officer and other bodies of troops have been killed indicates a greater disaster. Decision is Already Criticized. LONDON, Nov. 2.—The release from custody of James L. Lynchman by Federal Commissioner Moore at Indianapolis Saturday on the ground that while Lynchman's crime was brutal, it was nevertheless of a political nature, is adversely commented upon by some of the afternoon newspapers here, the Globe claiming that political influences the decision.

WINDUP OF THE CAMPAIGN

Republicans Close the Speaking Part of it at Washington Hall. VOTING STRAIGHT TICKET COMES NEXT. In Spite of Bad Weather Large Crowd Assembles to Listen to the Final Appeal to the Local Voters. For the third and last time of the present campaign republicans filled Washington hall last night in order to close the speaking part of the campaign. The speaker, who was assisted by leading republican orators of the city. Like the other mass meetings of the "unified" campaign enthusiasm at predictions of success at the polls and recitations of the greatness of the party was always easy to obtain. John W. Webster, the last speaker, aroused perhaps the greatest outbreak by describing the momentous issues which the nation must encounter soon and declaring that the republican party must be placed in position to solve them. Senator Millard presided with his customary dignity. The program of speakers arranged was a long one, and a number of them did not talk in order to let the meeting adjourn early. Considering the foulness of the weather the attendance might be classed phenomenal. These are some of the things the speakers said: Moores for Entire Ticket. Mayor Moores-Tomorrow will demonstrate to the people that we are united for the first time in many years and united to win. I am heartily in favor of the movement that has set in and am for the ticket. The republican party in this county is united and the men of the opposition who are running for the ticket are no reason why a single man on the ticket should be scratched. I am telling my friends that if they vote for the ticket tomorrow they will stand by the ticket and support it. We must roll up a majority ticket and we must do it. In addition we are united once more and worthy to represent the party in the home of a vice president. H. C. Brome—Never was a better, cleaner ticket with more men upon it placed before the voters of this county. We have the best prospect of a sweeping republican victory that has been known for years. I know that these reports are being spread that don't want the republican ticket elected. That don't want to perform your whole duty tomorrow morning. You are not in addition you must reach every republican you can see that he votes the same way. Not a Local Issue. W. S. Summers—A republican convention means a political party for me, and I submit to you now that when we have a state and the county conventions met, do not let us have a local issue. Let us have a local issue in the county, every republican in the state, who is interested in the success of the republican party, should be present and will vote the straight republican ticket. I will vote for the republican party, with its record of honest and upright government. You trust the democratic party, with its record of dishonest and corrupt government. You trust the republican party, with its record of honest and upright government. It is not merely a local issue, it is of national importance. It means much to the people in the state, but means much to the people in the county. It means that the republican party in the state and in the county of Nebraska must march together under one banner and vote the republican ticket to get a single division. Byron G. Burbank—We are men come together because we believe in the same principle and has his best expression in the words of the republican party. The conditions that exist tonight there is no republican party in the county and no republican party in the state. It is not merely a local issue, it is of national importance. It means much to the people in the state, but means much to the people in the county. It means that the republican party in the state and in the county of Nebraska must march together under one banner and vote the republican ticket to get a single division.

MAY NOT SEE JURY RECORDS

United States Commissioner Denies Application Made by Attorneys for Beavers. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—George W. Beavers, the indicted former postal official, was formally committed to the custody of the United States marshal by Commissioner Hitchcock pending the action of United States Judge Holt on a warrant for the removal of Beavers to the jurisdiction of the eastern circuit of New York for trial. He was admitted by Judge Holt to $5,000 bail pending the court's decision. Action was taken by Beavers' counsel to vacate the warrants for his removal to Washington for trial on the last three Washington indictments. Beavers being surrendered and applications for writs of habeas corpus being made on the ground of simultaneous removal to two different places were illegal. He was admitted to $5,000 bail by Judge Holt, the total bail on which he had having been reduced from $22,000 to $5,000. The Brooklyn indictment in connection with the Brandt-Dent contract for automatic cashiers. Applications by Beavers' counsel for additional subpoenas directing United States District Attorney Young of Brooklyn and his stenographer to produce certain records of the grand jury in Brooklyn which returned the indictment against Beavers was refused by Commissioner Hitchcock.

MEN ARE BACK IN PLACES

Two Thousand Resume Regular Work After Six Weeks of Idleness. PITTSBURGH, Nov. 2.—After an idleness of six weeks about 2,000 men resumed regular work in the McKeesport district today. At the Dewey-Wood plant of the American Sheet Steel company, where some of the departments had been operating on part time, the full day and night complement were given regular employment. At the plant of the Pittsburgh Steel Hoop company, Glasgow, where several departments had been idle, 300 men were given regular employment. Full time was resumed at the Dennison tin plant and all departments were again in operation. In the Bradock district the five big foundries connected with the eleven-blast furnaces and steel rail mills or the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie steel company resumed operations in full, after a suspension of several days. In the Braddock district the five big foundries connected with the eleven-blast furnaces and steel rail mills or the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie steel company resumed operations in full, after a suspension of several days. In the Braddock district the five big foundries connected with the eleven-blast furnaces and steel rail mills or the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie steel company resumed operations in full, after a suspension of several days.

SECOND FIGHT WITH INDIANS

Ten Aborigines Killed and Eleven Captured by Wyoming posse. ABOUT SEVENTY-FIVE SIOUX IN BAND. Meet Them Near the Scene of First Battle and Inflict Severe Punishment Without Loss of White Men. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 2.—(Special Telegram.) Survivors of the Saturday battle with the Indians who murdered Sheriff Miller and Deputy Falkenberg, reinforced by about seventy-five Indians who had been hunting in the vicinity of the scene of the first fight, are reported to have had a fight this morning near the Horseshoe ranch. The fugitives were traced by a posse and with their reinforcements made a determined fight. Nine Indians are reported killed outright and ten captured. The white men escaped without loss or injury. The news of the battle has spread to the reservation and to other hunting parties and a general uprising of the reds is feared. There is reason to believe that Indian couriers are inciting the red men to deeds of violence. Governor Chatterton is investigating the report of the second battle and should the story be confirmed, he will immediately order troops into the field to suppress the Indian uprising. Details of First Fight. Latest advices from the scene of Saturday evening's bloody battle between Sheriff Miller and posse of Weston county and a party of Sioux Indians from the Pine Ridge agency state that Sheriff W. H. Brooks and his posse of men from Newcastle were killed. Six Indians were killed, ten wounded and five captured. Four made their escape. Twenty horses, twelve wagons and considerable game and Indian paraphernalia were also captured. The posse which was sent to the scene of the battle reached Newcastle this morning with the dead bodies of Miller and Falkenberg, the ten wounded Indian prisoners, horses and outfit. A large posse under John Owens, the noted Indian trapper and fighter, has gone in pursuit of the few Indians who escaped and who are headed toward the Sioux reservation and it does not seem possible that they can escape. Reports reached Newcastle that after slaughtering all of the wild game in sight the Indian men are expected to kill the stock of the ranchmen. Sheriff Miller and five deputies left Newcastle a week ago Friday to arrest the Indians. He ran onto the camp on Beaver creek and secured some of the outfit and five wagons, the balance of the party being camped on a notorious Indian trail before the officers could arrest them. The Indians were followed south into Converse county and overtaken at the Beaver dams on Little Light creek, forty-five miles north of Lusk, Saturday. Eagle Feather and Black Kettle, the two most notorious of the notorious warriors of the Sioux tribe, resisted arrest and a battle ensued. Sheriff Miller was shot through the left thigh and died within half an hour. Black Kettle was killed at the first fire and Eagle Feather fell with bullets through both legs. Six Indians in all were killed and wounded and all laid on the battlefield all night. Eagle Feather may recover. Escape in Darkness. There were thirteen white men in the party that fought the Indians, Sheriff Miller having picked up a number of ranchmen after capturing the women and five wagons. They fought the Indians to a standstill for over an hour, darkness falling putting a stop to the conflict. In the darkness of night four or five of the Indians escaped in the direction of Pine Ridge agency. Posse started out from Douglas, LaVerne, Newcastle and other points as soon as news of the battle was received, and the country between the battleground and the agency is swarming with indignant rangers, who are determined that no one shall escape. Sheriff Miller had several times sent word to Sheriff Miller that he would not be taken. He is a Carlisle graduate and well educated. Black Kettle is an old offender, having been under the ban of the authorities for several years. Sheriff Miller's last words were he lay on the ground, his head supported on the arm of Jim Davis, one of his trusted deputies, was: "Tell my wife and babies, Jim." He could say no more. He tried to utter other words, but death came. Confirm Report of Second Battle. County Attorney Mecom of Converse county returned to Douglas tonight from the scene of Saturday's battle between Sheriff Miller and posse of Weston county and a party of Sioux Indians from the Pine Ridge agency. Sheriff Miller and posse of Weston county and a party of Sioux Indians from the Pine Ridge agency. Sheriff Miller and posse of Weston county and a party of Sioux Indians from the Pine Ridge agency.

LARGE BRIBE IS REFUSED

Agent of New York Pool Room Offers Three Hundred Thousand Dollars to Continue Business. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Police Commissioner Greene declared today that last night an agent of a notorious syndicate made an offer to the deputy commissioner. Offer of $300,000 to allow the poolrooms of the city to run quietly until January 1. The commissioner said that not only had the offer been turned aside with scorn and indignation, but an effort had been made to have the agent of the poolroom indicted. The agent, however, failed. Magistrate Tiche today dismissed the complaint against Special Policeman Robert G. Buttle, which is considered a victory for the race track men against the pool interests. Poolroom proprietors, in an effort to have betting suppressed at the race tracks, had Buttle arrested, alleging that he neglected his duty in allowing Bookmaker Sol Lichtenstein to make a book on the track.

WAR MUST COME IN END

Conflict Sooner or Later Between Russia and Japan Inevitable. LONDON, Nov. 2.—Cabling from Che Foo the correspondent of the Morning Post says the majority of Russian warships in Chinese waters are between Tientsin and Hayatiao. The Chinese cruisers led Che Foo yesterday, the correspondent goes on, for the mouth of the Yalu river. This constitutes an infringement of Korean rights. The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says he has learned from a reliable source in Tientsin that although the negotiations between Russia and Japan continue, Japan is inflexible and a conflict sooner or later is regarded as inevitable.

DOWAGER HOLD CONFERENCE

Chinese Ruler Hastily Summons High Official to the Imperial Palace. PEKING, Nov. 2.—A conference of high officials with the dowager empress concerning the recognition of Mukden by Russian troops was held at the summer palace today. Yuan Shi Kai, governor general of Chihli province, was summoned hastily from Tien Tsin and hastened to the palace. The Russians have the Tartar general of Mukden province in custody in his yaman.

JEW AND RUSSIANS FIGHT

Over Forty Persons Injured, Some of Them Fatally, in Bloody Battle. BERLIN, Nov. 2.—A dispatch to the Tagblatt from Posen says that a bloody conflict between 90 Jews and a force of Russian gendarmes took place at Warsaw during the enlistment of recruits. The wounded in both sides numbered seventy persons, several of whom sustained fatal injuries.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER

Forecast for Nebraska—Partly Cloudy on Tuesday, showers in South Portion; Wednesday Fair. Temperature at Omaha Yesterday: Hour, Deg., 1 p. m., Deg. 8 a. m. 55 1 p. m. 55 9 a. m. 55 2 p. m. 55 7 a. m. 54 3 p. m. 54 8 a. m. 53 4 p. m. 53 9 a. m. 53 5 p. m. 53 10 a. m. 53 6 p. m. 53 11 a. m. 53 7 p. m. 53 12 m. 54 8 p. m. 54 9 p. m. 54

EXPLODES FAKES ABOUT SEARS

John F. Piper of Burt County Denounces World-Herald's Treatment as Outrageous. John F. Piper of Lyons, a prominent republican and former treasurer of Burt county, when asked about the pretended inactivity of the Burt county people, which have appeared for the last few days in the World-Herald, said: "Regardless of party we of Burt county feel outraged by the World-Herald's treatment of Mr. Sears during this campaign, and especially for the last few days. He has not even tried to put up a delegation to any convention or to make a combination for ten years, during which time the people of Burt county have of their own choice elected him to the legislature twice and as mayor of Tekamah three times. So indignant were the people of the county that when the first fake intimation appeared within a very short time 250 of the best men of the county signed a denunciation of it. This could easily have been doubled many times. The next day the World-Herald added to its offense by again falsifying in saying that Mr. Sears helped get the signatures. In fact he was not even in the county. "The A. E. Wells referred to in a later interview is a part proprietor of one of the small banks in the county. He has spells that are best understood at Oakland, where he lives. Four years ago he was going to put up $1,000 to fight Judge Dickinson in case the judge secured the nomination for the supreme court. He then claimed that Dickinson had dealt unfairly toward a woman in a business transaction. Three years ago Wells was going to defeat Sears by 400 majority in Oakland in the legislative race. Sears ran ahead of his ticket there. "No thinking and unprincipled man has ever charged Mr. Sears with either lack of ability or integrity. He is possessed of both. He has the confidence of the people regardless of party. For every public and charitable purpose he gives more than his share. In Burt county he will help elect him and regardless of party we can commend him to the voters of the district. "Among many other untruths in his fake interview, the World-Herald says that Mr. Sears was at the so-called 'box' convention held at Lincoln, Nebraska, in 1892. He was not present, nor did he have any voice in the matter. The votes for him all came from Omaha lawyers, who knew him, and many from democratic lawyers, among whom were Hon. J. A. C. Kennedy, secretary of the Burt county committee, and who served with him in the last legislature."

KNABE TO SALOON KEEPERS

Democratic Nominee for Police Judge Sends Out Circular Letter Soliciting Votes. For an astute, sagacious, resourceful politician, A. L. Knabe, the man whom the democrats have nominated for police judge, certainly deserves the honor. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket, I feel it my bounden duty to make it known to you that you are on the polls on November 2. This is an important judicial office and should be filled by a capable lawyer known integrity, regardless of his political affiliations. No one will undertake a moment to question this after reading a letter which has been sent to the saloon keepers of the city, bearing the signature of A. L. Knabe. This letter reflects not only the unparalleled genius of a man of research, but exhibits Mr. Knabe to the world as a man of innate and unusual modesty in the recognition of his own attainments and estimation in the minds of others. This masterpiece of political ingenuity reads: "OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31, 1903.—Dear Sir: Having been honored with the nomination for the office of police judge on the democratic ticket