Sale of Men's Suits Starts Saturday Morning.

Our buyer while east got hold of some manufacturers that on account of the warm, backward season were awfully overstocked and were most anxious to exchange their merchandise for our cash. The most fortunate purchase we made was a line of men's suits from a firm whom we consider one of America's foremost wholesale tailors. This firm made us promise not to mention their name in our ad, therefore you must take our word for it, but when you see the goods you will recognize the fact at once that these suits are first-class in every respect and that the only thing cheap about them is the price. We offer these suits at $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00. The suits which we offer at $5.00 sell mostly anywhere for $10.00, and so on in proportion. This is an opportunity to save big money on a suit. You can see some of these suits displayed in our west window. It's no trick to furnish you with fine suits if you are willing to pay $5.00 or more, but if you want to invest $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00 you can't afford to buy elsewhere until you have seen how much you can save at this sale. We can also save you considerable on an overcoat. Our entire second floor is full of bargains in overcoats. As on the overcoats as well as the suits we took advantage of an overstocked market, we now offer overcoats at $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00 that no other house can sell at the same price. In our gent's furnishing department we offer heavy fleece lined underwear at $5; Shawl knit socks, 30c; Jersey overshirts, 45c; fancy half hose, 50c; fleece lined gloves with astrakhan backs, 25c; laundered white shirts, 45c; 4-ply linen collars, 50c; heavy winter caps, corduroy, hunter style, 35c, and 45c men's fur hats in soft and stiff at 50c, and everything else in proportion.
