The grand jury will investigate the case and in the meantime Stevenson has been sent to join McClelland at the county jail.

Matters in District Court.

W. A. Smith, who secured the contract for the Boyer river cut-off section of the Harrison-Pottawattamie county drainage ditches, was made defendant in an injunction suit brought in the district court yesterday by A. D. Searles of this city. Searles was granted a temporary injunction restraining Smith and his employes from constructing a dam at a point about the commencement of the Boyer river cut-off ditch. Searles alleges that the construction of the dam by Smith is for the purpose of diverting the water from its regular channel over and along the route mapped out by the engineers for the new ditch, and that by so doing the force of the flow of the water will cut out the ditch, the contract for the construction of which Smith was awarded. Further, Searles alleges that the dam will tend to throw the water back on his land.
Mrs. Blanche Woolley was granted a divorce from I. C. Woolley, and F. C. Kuhn a divorce from Augusta Kuhn. Desertion was charged in both cases.
The suit of Bertha Quatter against C. Geise for $932 wages alleged to be due her, and for $1,000 damages for alleged assault by Mrs. Geise, was tried before a jury, which brought in a sealed verdict at 10 o'clock last night. It is said the jury awarded the plaintiff $1,000 in all.

SALOON FIGHT IS BITTER

Efforts of Outsiders to Bring About a Compromise Are Futile.

MORE INJUNCTION PETITIONS FILED

Indications that Trouble Had Its Origin in Effort to Secure Removal of Local Agent of the Storz Company.

The saloon fight in Council Bluffs is still on, and neither side appears willing to back down. If anything, the relations between the warring factions became further strained yesterday, and no one is able to foretell the outcome. Disinterested parties attempted to effect a truce yesterday, but failed.
As a starter for the day, Attorney Benjamin yesterday morning commenced injunction suits against the four remaining saloons owned by the Storz Brewing company in this city, and which, through some oversight, he had overlooked Monday. Then Attorney Wadsworth for the other side proceeded to the district court and filed the petitions in his injunction suits against the saloons owned by C. E. Poore, Ed Sherlock and C. E. Armour. The hearing on the application for temporary restraining orders in these cases is set for next Saturday. By the filing of the suit against the saloon conducted by C. E. Armour, it will be seen that the Krug Brewing company of Omaha is brought into the fight.
Attorney Benjamin still declines to make public the identity of his clients, and stated yesterday that possibly this would remain a secret throughout the entire proceedings. On the other hand, Attorney Wadsworth stated that from information he had in his possession it was evident that the fight made by Benjamin and his "clients" was not so much against the Storz Brewing company as against the latter's local representative, W. A. Wells. The fight, Mr. Wadsworth said, had been started by certain saloon men who were opposed to Wells, and that Attorney Benjamin had at one time since the filing of the suits against the Blue Ribbon and Pinnell saloons offered to withdraw them providing the Storz Brewing company removed Wells from his position here.
It is understood that the Storz Brewing company is standing back of Wells, and has refused to remove him. Mr. Wadsworth stated further, yesterday, that the suits brought by him against the other saloons was no bluff on his part, and that if the fight against the Storz saloons was persisted in every saloon in Council Bluffs would be closed.
The city authorities are becoming alarmed, as the closing of the saloons would severely cripple the municipal finances. Mayor Morgan and Chief of Police Tibbits held a long conference with Attorney Wadsworth yesterday afternoon, but according to the mayor nothing resulted from it.

Sheriff-Elect Names Deputies.

Sheriff-elect Ed Canning announced yesterday his selection of deputies. He did so at this early date in order to relieve himself from the constant annoyance of being importuned by the hundred or more men who were anxious to serve under him. His deputies will be as follows: C. E. Woolman, a member of the fire department and a former member of company L, Fifty-first Iowa volunteers, who served through the Philippine campaign; Thomas McCaffery, a resident of the Sixth ward, and at present in the employ of the street railway company as a motorman; W. A. Groneweg, at present office deputy under Sheriff Cousins, which position he will hold under Mr. Canning. F. M. Gallup of Underwood will be county jailer, and Fred Peterson will be retained by Mr. Canning as court bailiff and deputy sheriff.
The appointments at Avoca are still open, and will not be announced until after Mr. Canning's return from Denver, where he went last night on a visit to relatives.

VOTE FOR GRANDMA!

Handsome Prizes for the Most Popular Grandmas

First Prize.....Bed Room Suite
Second Prize.....Morris Chair
Third Prize.....Upholstered Rocker

DeLONG'S GRANDMA VOTING CONTEST starts out with 23 contestants, and there is plenty of room for more. The Grandma Voting Contest will run four weeks, during which time you are entitled to one vote for each cent of your purchases at DeLong's, either in the stationery or printing departments, and you may vote for any lady in Council Bluffs who is a grandma. The three grandmas receiving the highest number of votes will be entitled to the three prizes mentioned above.

The Prizes in this Contest are on Exhibition in the Show Windows of the Petersen & Schoening Co.—Pearl Street Side.

They will remain there throughout the contest, and you are cordially invited to call and inspect them. The lady winning the first prize may substitute a fine couch for the bed room suite if preferred.
Commencing today the vote will be counted daily at 6 p. m. and at 9 o'clock on Saturdays. Printed bulletins for free distribution will be issued every morning showing how the vote stood the night before. The ballot will also be printed in the Sunday newspapers.
Now is the time to vote for your favorite, and if she is not in the list, get her started at once and other friends will vote for her also. Votes given on stationery, books, school supplies, fountain pens, perfumes and toilet articles, subscriptions to magazines, rubber stamps, printing and all other purchases. A VOTE WITH EVERY CENTS WORTH.

NOT READY TO SIGN A WAIVER

County Board Will Investigate Claim for Swamp Land Indemnity.

The Board of County Supervisors yesterday decided to make further investigation before signing a waiver of any claim against the government for unadjudicated swamp land refunds. The supervisors took the position that if there was anything coming from the government, Pottawattamie county might get it, however little it might be. While it is believed that the expense attendant upon proving up any swamp land refund claims would amount to almost the entire refund, the board concluded that nothing would be lost by giving the matter further investigation, and this will be done today by County Attorney Killpack, who in company with Special Agent Hoisington of the general land office will look over the swamp lands in Crescent and Lewis townships.
The bonds of the recently elected county officers, who will assume office January 1, were fixed as follows: County treasurer, $200,000; sheriff, $10,000; superintendent of schools, $1,000; surveyor, $2,000; coroner, $1,000; deputy sheriffs, $2,000; justices of the peace, constables and all other county officers, $1,000.
Superintendent Rothert of the Iowa School for the Deaf called the attention of the board in a communication to the dangerous condition of the road crossing Mosquito creek, near the old paper mill, especially the part between the tracks of the Milwaukee and Rock Island railroads.
In the matter of the claim of S. H. Ford for $35 for storage of a stock of liquor seized under a search warrant from a justice court in January, 1900, the county attorney gave it as his opinion that the county was not liable, and the claim was rejected.
The Pacific Express company, which had been assessed for taxation by the state executive council for operating the line of the Omaha Bridge and Terminal Railway company, notified the board yesterday that it did not operate over this line, and requested that the assessment accordingly be annulled.

MUCH TALK, BUT NO POWDER

Industrious Iowa Correspondent Has Difficulty Finding Proof of Earlham Plot.

DES MOINES, Nov. 10.—It is common talk today among the detectives here working upon the Rock Island dynamite holdup case that the Chicago office has received another threatening letter and that within the last two or three days. When pressed to make some definite statement, each man refused to make known any information he may be in possession of.
The right-of-way between this city and Earlham, thirty miles, is still being patrolled, a man being stationed every two miles. Each guard walks up and down his beat the whole night long. The two suspects detained here are not seriously regarded as having any connection with the affair.

Charge Policeman with Grafting.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—After several days investigation the jury this afternoon returned two indictments against Ed Anderson, captain of the police force, one charging him with conspiracy to injure the public morals and the other with accepting a bribe. J. H. Bigelow, proprietor of a slot machine business, brought the charges after he had been fined in police court for operating a gambling device. He said he had paid Anderson for protection on various occasions. Before the grand jury he had witnesses who testified they had seen the money pass into Anderson's hands. Anderson said it was money Bigelow had borrowed from him. Anderson has furnished bonds and is at liberty.

Official Vote of Monona.

ONAWA, Ia., Nov. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The Monona county Board of Supervisors has completed the official canvass of votes. Governor Cummins has a majority of 443; Will C. Whiting, representative, 659; county treasurer, S. Tillson, dem., 84; sheriff, Rawlings, dem., 139; supervisor, Lamb, dem., 55; superintendent of schools, Lark, republican, 400; surveyor, Fessenden, rep., 323; coroner, Huff, rep., 202. Governor Cummins leads Lieutenant Governor Herriott 4 votes in the county.

FIND BONDS IN A HOVEL

Chicago Police Discover that Mary Oliver Was a Woman of Wealth.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Mary Oliver, a widow aged 60, has been found dead in the squalid basement of a tenement house where she had lived as a recluse twenty-five years. When the police searched the place they found United States bonds and other securities to the value of $50,000. Neighbors say the woman's estate is valued at more than $500,000. Her death was from natural causes. Hardly a dozen feet from the spot where the old woman lay James Alderdice, an old man who had for years collected the rents for a number of houses owned by Mrs. Oliver and attended to all her business, was found dying from an apoplectic stroke.

OLD POLK COUNTY FEUD IS REVIVED

Unidentified Parties Make an Attempt Upon the Life of John Pennell, an Old Man Who Lives Alone Near Polk City.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Nov. 10.—(Special.)—The sixth annual Conference of Charities and Corrections for Iowa opened here this evening with fair attendance. The event of the evening session was the address of the president, Judge G. S. Robinson of Sioux City, member of the Board of Control, who presented a brief review of the work done. He spoke of true charity and pointed out that it does not consist of indiscriminate giving of alms, but of judicious aid to the needy. He urged that laws should be made and sustained by an educated public sentiment, to prevent the union of men and women who, in consequence of well ascertained laws of nature would be apt to produce imbecile, diseased, vicious, or otheryise degenerate children. He spoke of the great work which has been done in Iowa for the dependent classes and added:
Although the state has hospitals for the insane it lacks adequate provision for the epileptics, for the tubercular, the crippled. The state has no provision in its laws for the proper treatment of juvenile offenders, who should not be imprisoned nor be permitted to associate with habitual criminals. The state has industrial schools and penitentiaries, but lacks the intermediate prisons to which the young convicts, not hardened by repeated crimes and not beyond appeals for better living, may be sent and there separated from the habitual offenders, be instructed in books and trades, trained in habits of industry and be given the power and the inclination to support themselves by honest work and to be law abiding citizens.
The conference was welcomed to the city by Governor Cummins. During the meeting there will be a large number of papers and addresses by prominent students of sociology and the discussions are expected to take a wide range.

Old Feud in Central Iowa.

An old feud has broken out near Polk City in this county and a third attempt was made last night to murder John Pennell, a defenseless, but wealthy old man. Pennell is a miser and lives alone, but he has incurred the enmity of a number of persons. He incurred the violent ill will of a near relative many years ago and that relative was afterwards murdered. Last night a stranger appeared at his window and threatened him with a revolver. Pennell sprang from his bed and a fight followed and the intruder fell to the ground. Several shots were fired at him in the dark and Pennell does not know whether any injury was inflicted. About twenty-two years ago Robert Stubbs, a son-in-law of Pennell, was murdered and a feud between families followed. Other relatives have been drawn into the trouble from time to time and it is believed that the attempts on Pennell's life have been more from revenge than from any desire to rob him. Efforts are being made to find the person or persons who attacked Pennell last night.

Grinnell Company May Disband.

Inspection of the National Guard company at Grinnell on account of the resignation of the captain, disclosed the fact that the company is in bad condition and unless there is an armory built the company will probably be disbanded.

Postmaster Goes Wrong.

Cornelius M. Robinson, postmaster at Morley, Jones county, was arrested today and taken before a United States commissioner on a charge of failing to account for about $1,100 in cash that belonged to the government. He had taken the money, so it is alleged, a little at a time, and his shortage was not discovered until quite recently. He left when the facts became known and had been at large some time and was not arrested until today.
In the district court today Judge Howe held that the trustees of the North Des Moines Methodist Episcopal church were not guilty of fraud. They had purchased the Prospect Park Methodist Episcopal church, against which there was a claim of $16,000, and the holder of the claim attempted to enforce it against them on the ground that abandonment of the old organization and formation of the new was for the purpose of committing fraud. The court held otherwise.

Claim Woman is Innocent.

Des Moines friends of Mrs. Betsy Smith are preparing to move upon the legislature for a pardon for her. She is serving time in the penitentiary for murder of her husband. Since her incarceration her daughter, just before committing suicide in the penitentiary, confessed that she alone was responsible for the death of Mr. Smith. The pardon will be asked on the ground that Mrs. Smith is innocent. The last legislature refused to consider the matter. Others who have already given notice of intention to ask for pardon are: Thomas Watson of Mills county, William Tool of Sac county, F. P. Watkins of Monona county, L. R. Van Tassel of Chickasaw county, Frank Hall of Pottawattamie county, G. A. Williams of Union county, Clarence Mills of Davis county, John G. Steel of Monroe county and W. F. Glyndon of Story county. All are life termers for murder in first degree.

Cattle Judging Class.

The animal husbandry department of the Iowa State college has announced the names of the five students who will represent the college in the international student stock judging contest to be held at Chicago during the International Live Stock exposition from November 28 to December 5. They are: W. A. Tener, Brevard, N. C.; C. E. Howard, New Providence, Ia.; E. A. Stout, Stout, Ia., and H. B. Ellenberger, Ames, Ia., all from the junior class, and F. M. Hansen, Goldfield, Ia., of the senior class.

Witnesses Held to Be Unreliable.

The first of the trials of constables and township officers accused of accepting bribes resulted this afternoon in failure of conviction. Constable Dailey was placed on trial, and evidence introduced to show that he has received a bribe from a druggist who desired to be shielded from the law. The court ruled that the evidence was entirely by disreputable women, and that it was not supported by witnesses who could be believed, and the case was therefore dismissed. It is expected that most of the indictments will end the same way.

Supposed Pauper is Rich.

Joe Walkenheimer, an aged bachelor, living in a hovel in Sevastopol, a suburb of this city, was found dead in his bed this morning. Walkenheimer, who lived in a miserly way, was reputed to be a pauper, but when his place was searched a will was found leaving $25,000 in cash to relatives in St. Louis.

THREAT OF TRADE REPRISALS

Member of Canadian Parliament Makes Such Prediction in Chicago Speech.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—In the course of an address before the Illinois Manufacturers' association tonight John Charlton, M. P., said:
It is a question of interest to the American manufacturer whether he shall continue to be permitted to enter the Canadian market of a great present and infinitely greater prospective value upon substantially the same terms as at present, or whether he shall be excluded from it by tariff legislation as drastic as that of the United States has been for the last generation. The substantial continuance of present Canadian tariff conditions can only be secured by important tariff concessions on the part of the United States.

What Rubber Shoe Do You Wear?

Didn't you know there was a difference in rubbers? There wasn't, until recently, when Selz Royal Blue Rubbers were put on the market.
Your dealer was as indifferent as you; he didn't know and perhaps he didn't care. He's caring now, and you will, after you've tried a pair of these better-than-usual rubbers.
