Announcements of the Theaters.

This evening Miss Millie James begins her engagement at the Boyd in her great success, "The Little Princess." An impression seems to have gotten abroad that this is a play exclusively for children.

"The Peddler" is the name of a new four-act comedy drama from the pen of Hal Reid, which serves to introduce Joe Welch in a new character he has undertaken to portray on the American stage.

The Orpheum will give a matinee this afternoon, and is featuring a treat for the children in the shape of an illustration of the entire production of Harriet Beecher Stowe's great work, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in life motion pictures.

DREXEL SHOE CO., 1419 Farnam Street. Omaha's Up-to-Date Shoe House

YES, THEY CUT the price. But when? AFTER WE MADE THEM. How much did they cut? JUST AS MUCH AS WE DID—on some things! Yes, we, the druggists of OMAHA, and SOUTH OMAHA, are hanging on to the long price plan like grim death, but they see it slipping away from them like a fog after OLD SOL comes out from behind the clouds. THE NEWSPAPERS said the cut price drug business was a thing of the past, BUT sometimes the newspapers get MIXED.
