COUNCIL BLUFFS.

MAY LOSE SCHOOL FOR DEAF

State Board of Control Estimates it Will Favor Removal.

IMPOSES ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE CONDITIONS

More Land, Not Too Flat and Not Too Hilly, Trackage, but Not Too Many Railroads and Trolley Lines to the City.

The chances for Council Bluffs retaining the State School for the Deaf are not of the brightest. This was made manifest yesterday by the statements of the members of the State Board of Control.

John Cowins, Judge Robinson and Judge Kline, comprising the State Board of Control, arrived in the city late Sunday evening, and were at once driven to the school for the deaf, where they spent the night and part of yesterday making their semi-annual inspection.

What Board Wants. The delegation was headed by Mayor Morgan and H. W. Binder, secretary of the executive committee of the Commercial club.

The committee of the whole of the city council met yesterday afternoon to consider the sign ordinance, and the session proved a somewhat stormy one.

Nothing Done on Library. No business was transacted at the adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees of the public library last night for lack of a quorum.

Masters in District Court. When the plaintiff had completed his evidence in the $10,000 damage suit of E. M. Reid against J. W. Squire and Constable Lee Albert in the district court yesterday afternoon, Judge Preston took the case from the jury and directed a verdict for the defendants.

Objections to Present Location. The present location, Judge Cowins declared, was most unsuitable for many reasons.

Since the State Board of Control was organized and placed in charge of the state institutions the merchants of Council Bluffs have derived but little if any benefit from the school for the deaf being in this vicinity.
