

VOTE ON DISTRICT JUDGES

Official Returns Show Republicans Gain Six in the Late Election.

HANNA IN ELEVENTH HAS TWO PLURALITY

Game Warden and Deputies Have Lively Time in Their Effort to Prosecute Violators of the Law.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—As a result of the late election, according to the duplicates of the returns received by the secretary of state, the republican party gained six district judges. These were gained one each in these districts: Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Eleventh and Twelfth. In the Fifth and Sixth districts, which were both fusion, the republicans elected one judge in each and the fusion one each. In the Eleventh district, where it was believed for several days after the election that Judge Hanna, the republican candidate, had been defeated, the returns show that he received a majority of two votes. This morning the county clerk of Garfield county sent to the secretary of state an amended report of the returns, which give Hanna ten more votes. These votes, however, cannot be counted as it is unlawful to open the ballot box after it has once been sealed. The vote by districts follows:

Game Law Convictions.

Game Warden Carter has been busy this week and as a result he secured the conviction of W. J. Robinson of Holt county at Omaha yesterday, who after pleading guilty to shipping out birds was fined $100 and costs by Justice Foster, and he now has J. M. Hunsell of Gothenburg under arrest with a trial pending. An attempt to arrest Hunsell by the local officers had considerable of the sensational about it and as a result the police of that city and county attorneys are talking ugly about each other. It was reported to the game warden that a party for whom he was searching was being secreted at the Hunsell home near Gothenburg. He notified his local deputy, and the latter with a constable went to the house after the wanted man. In the meantime the local police had this term is exceedingly small, not a crimi-

WOOSTER WINS TWO SUITS

Merrick County Reformer Checks the Craft of the Board of Supervisors. CENTRAL CITY, Neb., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The Editor of The Bee: During the current term of the district court, November, 1902, Merrick county, Nebraska, Hon. Conrad Hollenbeck, judge, there have been tried two cases of especial interest to the people of the state. The first of these cases was entitled J. E. Howland against the County of Merrick and Charles Wooster. This was a case wherein Charles Wooster, a taxpayer, had appealed from a decision of the County Board of Supervisors in allowing a claim of J. E. Howland, a member of said board. The body of this claim, as originally filed, ran as follows: 'To ten days' work on bridge, $30.' At a previous term, in pursuance of a motion made by the attorney for the appellant, the court ordered that this claim should be itemized. This being done it appeared that four days of this alleged work was on a certain bridge over Prairie creek in said county. The contention then was as to the right of the plaintiff to recover for these four days, his right to recover for the other days not being questioned by the appellant. Instructions of the court as applying particularly to this point are here quoted verbatim as follows:

No. 5. If the jury believe from the evidence that the plaintiff rendered the services claimed in his petition, then the plaintiff would be entitled to recover $1 per day for such services, plus the cost of such services were in fact rendered. No. 6. The foregoing claim, as however, does not apply to the item, to-wit: the four days' work charged on bridge. All work done for the erection and the repair of bridges and approaches thereon, which shall exceed $100 shall be let by the county commissioners to the lowest and best bidder and the county or taxpayer thereof, the repair of said bridge by said board without a contract would be contrary to law and the plaintiff as a member of said board would not be entitled to recover for such services rendered in that behalf. Therefore if you believe from the evidence that the cost of the repair of the bridge specified in said account, including the material and labor performed thereon, exceeds the sum of $100, then the plaintiff as a member of said Board of Supervisors would not be entitled to recover upon that item of your verdict should be for the defendant upon that branch of the account.

The evidence showed to the satisfaction of the jury that the said bridge was repaired without a contract and that the cost thereof exceeded $100, as appeared from the fact that on this branch of the case, which, as above stated, involved the only real issue, the jury promptly brought in a verdict for the defendant, or appellant. It should here be stated that, notwithstanding many public protests made by the appellant in this case and others, the Board of Supervisors of Merrick county for several years past prior to the bringing of this action have been building and repairing bridges, each supervisor in his own district, without advertising and letting by contract, as the law requires, the cost of such work in one instance being as high as $1,000 or more. The supervisors sought to defend their action on the pretense that they were thus saving the county money. But the meat in the cocoon was really the fact that they were thus enabled unlawfully to get thousands of dollars out of the county treasury and into their own pockets. The instructions of Judge Hollenbeck in this case gave the supervisors, and all other officers as well, which, as above stated, involved the only real issue, the jury promptly brought in a verdict for the defendant, or appellant.

REMURED CHANGE ON ELKHORN

Norfolk Has It that General Superintendent is to Be Located There. NORFOLK, Neb., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—There is a persistent rumor on the streets here, and one that is not denied by the railroad officials, that the office of the general superintendent of the Nebraska-Wyoming division of the Northwestern will soon be moved from Omaha to Norfolk and that this will become the headquarters for the operation of the division. Superintendent Reynolds denied that he had any official information to that effect, but those who are in close touch with the business of the company are of the opinion that there are good and sufficient grounds for the story. The expensive and extensive permanent improvements that have been made to the company's yards in South Norfolk have led to the belief that Norfolk will in the future to become more than a division headquarters. The most extensive switching yards on the system are now in operation here and it will only need the relocation of General Superintendent Hughes at Norfolk to make this one of the most important points on the division.

TURN DOWN THE SOCIALISTS

American Federation of Labor Goes on Record Against Proppaganda.

VOTE IS NEARLY FIVE TO ONE AGAINST

Gompers Makes Earnest and Bitter Arrangement of Theory of Socialism and His Contention is Supported.

BORTON, Nov. 18.—After a long debate, chiefly noteworthy because of the bitter language on the part of Samuel Gompers in dealing with socialism, the American Federation of Labor today defeated resolutions pledging it to socialism. Nine resolutions presented by socialists and calling for the adoption of their principles had been reported upon unfavorably by the committee on resolutions and delegates representing a voting strength of 11,282 registered themselves in support of the committee's recommendation, while delegates with 2,185 votes were cast in favor of the resolutions. The issue was discussed all day today, as well as part of yesterday. All the leaders of both sides engaged in the debate. Just before the vote was taken this afternoon considerable excitement was caused by Delegate Carey's condemnation of Vice President Duncan's attack upon the socialists.

The climax of the day came when President Gompers in bitter and unqualified language scored socialism and what he claimed was an attempt to induce the convention to adopt its principles. No. 4. The foregoing claim, as however, does not apply to the item, to-wit: the four days' work charged on bridge. All work done for the erection and the repair of bridges and approaches thereon, which shall exceed $100 shall be let by the county commissioners to the lowest and best bidder and the county or taxpayer thereof, the repair of said bridge by said board without a contract would be contrary to law and the plaintiff as a member of said board would not be entitled to recover for such services rendered in that behalf. They then drove to the Northwestern depot and left for Fremont for a short visit to the bride's mother before their return to Lincoln, where they will make their home. The bride came to Lincoln Monday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Odell and with the exception of this family, the wedding was a common ground for the story.

MAKE STRONG MEN

Thousands Have Weak Kidneys and Don't Even Suspect It.

2ND LIEUT. BAILY.

I was a constant sufferer for a number of years with back ache and frequent desire to urinate day and night and sometimes with smearing and burning sensation, but after using Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I am entirely cured and cheerfully recommend it to any who suffer from these common complaints. Most truly yours, W. C. BAILY, 2nd Lieut., of Police, Columbus, Ga.

SERG. PERRY.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow. We often see a relative, a friend or an acquaintance apparently well, but in a few days we may be grieved to learn of their severe illness, or sudden death, caused by that fatal type of kidney trouble—Bright's Disease.
