DE ENSE SUBMITS LITTLE TESTIMONY

untheson Gues on the Stand and Swears that Shooting of Deputy Baker Was an Accident and Not with Malice.

The case of George Matheson, the young proved un on trial for shooting Deputy Sheriff water. laker, will, it is expected, go to the jury his afternoon. The state rested its case esterday morning and the defense had all of 'ts testimony in during the afternoon, eaving time for Assistant County Atterney ifess to make the opening address for the state to the jury before court adjourned for the day.

As had been anticipated the defense of Matheson was that the shooting was accidental. He went on the witness stand and testified that when Deputy Sheriff Haker accused him of having a revolver in his pocket and the officer made a move us if to search him, he reached to his pocket for the purpose of handing the gun over to Baker and that in drawing it from his pocket the weapon was accidentally discharged. Matheson testified further that his reason for running away after the oting was because he became scared. He denied shooting at Deputy Sheriff Knox and claimed that he fired twice in the air for the purpose of frightening Knox and preventing him following him any further. Young Matheson said that the night of the hooting he walked the sixteen miles to Loveland, where he caught a freight train and was in Sloux City before daybreak. That he was able to make the distance claimed in that time was disputed by counsel for the state. From Slowx City Matheson said he went to Canada, but becoming fired of being a fugitive decided to return and surrender himself, which he

Matheson's claim that the shooting was ecidental was somewhat controverted by testimony on behalf of the state to the Matheson's father tried to prevent him. "He has shot down one man in what you do."

APPEAL IN THE DITCH CASE Logan Crawford Decides to Go to Supreme Court with His Contention.

Logan Crawford, whose suit to enjoin the authorities of the two countles from constructing the Harrison - Pottawattamie county drainage ditches was decided adversely to him in the district court here, has filed notice of appeal to the supreme court. This action on the part of Crawford was unlooked for by the county authorities. The suit brought by Crawford was decided adversely to him on the question of the right of the county authorities to establish the drainage district and order the construction of the ditches. On this point the court held that the county authorities had acted entirely within their powers and in the manner prescribed by the law. Crawford also alleged that there had been fraud in the awarding of the contracts for the construction of the ditches, but the court declined to rule on this question until the firms to whom the contracts were awarded were brought into court as party defendants, consequently the suit was left open so far as the question of alleged fraud was concerned.

The sale of the bonds for the portion of the work of the construction of the ditches in Pottawattamie county has been advertised for Friday morning by County Auditor effect that when Deputy Sheriff Knox Innes. What effect the appeal of Crawford started in pursuit of the young fellow, will have upon the sale of these bonds, amounting to $21,300, remains to be seen. There are some persons who are inclined cold blood, so for God's make be careful to the belief that it would be hazardous to purchase the bonds until the appeal of Crawford is decided by the supreme court.

W. A. Smith & Co., the firm given the contract for the part of the drainage work known as the Boyer river cutoff and against shoot and kill any one who laid hands whom an injunction suit is pending in the on him or attempted to connect him with district court, has drawn $700, partial estimate on the contract, but the warrant has not been paid, as until the bonds are ceived by Deputy Baker, showing the loca- sold there will be no funds to meet the tion of the bullet, was introduced in evi- cost of the construction of the ditches.

No Money to Pay Warrants.

For the first time in several years holders of warrants on the county general fund are unable to get their money. The general fund has become exhausted and all articles of clothing from the clothesline. warrants drawn on it are being stamped 'Not paid for want of funds."

The Board of County Supervisors at its recent session allowed Contractor Wickham an estimate of $5,000 on his contract for the construction of the buildings on the new poor farm. This estimate should have been paid from the poor farm fund, a fund raised by a special levy, but there was not sufflcient meney to meet this and the board or dered that Wickham be paid out of the general fund. This payment to Wickham practically exhausted the general fund and now witnesses in the district court are forced to hold their warrants until such time as the general fund becomes replen ished.

secretary of state is making up a record of the various members of the next legislature and securing information as to their past legislative experience and occupation. It is found that in the house there will be sixteen lawyers and fifteen in the senate, which is a material reduction in the number of lawyers from last year. There will be six farmers in the next senate and thirty-one in the house. Of merchants, manufacturers or persons engaged in trade of some kind there will be fourteen in the senate and thirty in the house. There will be one doctor in the senate and six in the house. There are three editors in the Two members of the house are retired ministers. The number of democrats in the legislature is thirty, of whom eight are in the senate and twenty-two in the house, against a total of twenty-seven in the last legislature. The reduction of the number of lawyers in the legislature is taken as significant, for in the last two sessions the lawyers have been able to practically control legislation that was especially desired by the members of the
