DAKOTA FLEET IN BAD FIX Cold Snap So Sudden that the Various Boats Are Caught Far

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Nov. 19 .- (Speclal.)-The cold wave that first reached this section last Saturday proved to be and caught many unprepared. The temperature has dropped to 4 below zero. The greatest sufferer from the cold blast was the Pontoon Bridge company. The bridge was still in the water, but the heavy run of ice warned Manuger Sanford to activity. so the work of taking the boats out of the water on the east side of American island was commenced yesterday morning. By evening probably two-thirds of them had been secured. Several, however, broke loose and the Iowa went after them, but the vember 50. inclusive, for dispatch per s.

Bridge company is at Evarts, where it will have to find winter quarters. The only boat of the fleet that is at the regular winter quarters is the Susle, It seems improbable that the river will open up so as to permit the concentration of the fleet as usual at this place. If they cannot be returned watchmen will be placed on them during the winter and the boats placed in touch with the head office in this city by telephone. Manager Sanford states that he feels no especial apprehension for the safety of the fleet, out great deal of extra trouble will be caused by the boats being so widely separated At present crossings are impossible at

DEATH PENALTY IS POSSIBLE

Under the Colorado Statutes Aftermeted Train Wrecking is Reported a Capital Crime.

DENVER, Nov. 13.—Should Charles McKinney, Patrick Mullaney and Thomas Foster be convicted on the charge of attempted train wrecking, on which they have been arrested at Cripple Creek, they will be liable to the death penalty under the Colorado statutes. Adjutant General Bell says that these men, with others, were shadowed by soldiers in citizens* (ichning who saw them in the net of removing spikes and fish plates from a rail on the Florence & Cripple Creek railroad. The apparent object being to wreck a train carrying hundreds of miners home from work.

NEW BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

"Ps Gladden: the Story of a Common Man," Not What Title Imp ies.

LARGE NUMBER OF RECENT SCHOOL BOCKS

"The Mother Goose Jungle Book" is Choice Selection of the Original Mother Goose Rhymes-New Publications.

"Pa Gladden, the Story of a Commo Man," by Elizabeth Cherry Waltz. Many will feel that the story of "Pa Gladden" is the story of an uncommon man, rather than a common one. From the super abundance of faith, love and good works that filled his whole life, simple, honest "Pa Gladden" could see good in all things and do good at all times. Pa's nature was ever as hoppy and bright, as that of the birds and flowers he loved. His facerite petition was for "redeemin' love" and it was his religious theory that when this "redeemin' love," and the sunshine of God came into the heart of man or woman there was no room for morbidness, seitishness or greed. "Redeemin' love air not bought ner made; it's jes lived like the sun risin' every mornin', Sunday an' all he said. "Pa Giadden" could sometimes revisions, but his supernatural visitations were always for the good of some one The story of his kindly life will be greatly enjoyed. Copyright, 1933, The Century Co

The American Book company has recently published quite a large number of school books, which include: The "Natural Primer," by David Gibbs, S. B. (Harvard), designed to teach elementary ideas and forms of number and language at the same

"Primary Arithmetic," by William J Milne, Ph. D. Lie, D., and president of the New York State Normal School, is intended for a thorough course in the rudiments for the first three years in school. "School Grammar," by W. M. Baskerville and J. W. Sewell, is arranged to assist the child in attaining his ends by the most direct methods possible and to understand that which he is laboring upon.

"Reynard The Fox," by E. Louise Smythe, is intended for school readings. It presents the old "Reineke Fuchs" in simplified form for elementary reading. "Glados Electra" is a drama edited by Otis G. Bunnell, M. S., of the Flexner School, Louisville, Ky. The book is it Spanish and contains the necessary notes, as well as a complete vocabulary. "Le Petit Robinson De Paris," by Louis De Bonneville, of Sidwell's Friends' Select School, Washington, D. C., is regarded as one of the best dog stories in literature. The story is told in the French language and this is one of the books recommended by the committee of twelve for college preparatory work.

Franklin and Creene's Felections from Latin and Prose Authors for Sight Reading, by Susan B. Franklin, Ph. D., and Ella K. Greene, A. B., contains material for students in the last year of a college preparatory course or in the Freshman year in college.

"The Philippines," by Camuel MacChinteek, Ph. B., principal of the Cebu Normal school, consists of short descriptive chapters on the principal islands of the Philippines, their provinces and towns. The pook is illustrated with helf-tones from PRICE. photographs and supplied with several colored maps.

"Laboratory Manual of Physics," by "Laboratory Manual of Physics." by side of the first cover page, where we find a great big tiger, that looks as if he might be the "Tammany Tiger" himself. There never were such a funny lot of Mother Goose pictures. The jolly old king, before whom "the pie was opened." is represented by a good-natured looking lion, who is probably the genuine "British Lion." "Old King Cole" is a big. fat rhinoceros. The convivini "old soul" has his "pipe" and his "bowl" right handy, and his "fiddlers three" are represented by an ape, a rox and a bear. Lattie Tommy Tittlemouse, who "caught fishes in other men's ditches," is a mouse sitting on g pole over the ditch, using his tail for a fish line. The Madison Book pumpany, publishers.

Gardens of the Carribbees," a series of sketches of a cruise to the West Indies and the Spanish Main, a work in two volumes by Ida M. H. Starr. The cruise was made in the winter and spring of 190. The author has given attention especially to those ports which are full of human interest and are typical of the life about the Carribbean sea.
