JUDGE PRESTON GETS CHAIR

Local Bar Shows Its Appreciation of Services of Cedar Rapids Jurist.

SENTENCES PASSED ON CONVICTED MEN

"Stretch" Bird Gets Fifteen Years and Young Matheson Draws Eight-Both File Notices of Appeal.

When Judge Preston convened district court yesterday morning he was greeted by a goodly representation of the members of the Pottawattamie County Bar association, who presented him with a handsome leather armchair. The presentation was made by President Myrner of the association, who in a few well chosen words said the chair was a small token of the regard which the local members felt for Judge Preston and of the appreciation which he had shown during the term of court during the illness of Judge Green.

Judge Preston brought his work here to a close yesterday morning when he passed sentence on those who had been convicted upon pleas of guilty to the charges upon which they were indicted, following which he adjourned court until next Monday, when Judge Green expects to be here to finish the business of the term.

C. E. Bird, better known as "Stretch" Bird, convicted of robbing George W. Caterlin during a holdup at S. Graves' grocery store on High street about two months ago, was sentenced to fifteen years at hard labor in the penitentiary at Fort Madison. Bird had been twice before convicted of a felony and had served two terms of three years each, making him liable to conviction under the habitual criminal act. Had Bird been tried under this charge his sentence could not have been under twenty years. Bird received his sentence without betraying the slightest emotion, but in answer to the court's question why sentence should not be passed upon him, he declared he was innocent. His appeal bond was set at $10,000. His attorneys stated they intended appealing.

Eight years for Matheson. "Eight years in the Fort Madison penitentiary was the sentence meted out to George Matheson, the young man convicted of shooting Deputy Sheriff Baker. In this case the appeal bond was placed at $10,000, but later reduced by Judge Preston to $5,000. A bond in the latter amount with Henry C. Matheson, the young man's father; John P. Garner of this city and Henry Scott of Hazel Dell township as sureties was furnished by Matheson and he was released from custody pending appeal.

Robert Stevenson and E. D. McClelland, who pleaded guilty to breaking into and robbing the Hermen Grocery company's store on South Main street, were given three and two years respectively in the Fort Madison penitentiary. Stevenson received the heavier sentence of the two, as he admitted that he planned the burglary and induced McClelland to join him. McClelland has a wife and seven small children dependent on him.

J. W. Dalley, the one-armed peddler who snatched a gold watch and chain from Henry White, a stockman of Gretna, Neb., received two years in the Fort Madison penitentiary.

Ed Moore, the negro who pleaded guilty to the theft of certain articles of clothing from the store of John Beno & Co., was sentenced to four months' imprisonment in the county jail and a like sentence was given Marion Ben, who stole an overcoat from the Grand Army hall during the progress of a dance.

Sheriff Cousins stated it was his intention to take Bird, McClelland, Stevenson and Dalley to Fort Madison today.

Have Trouble Getting Married. It took William H. Smith, a young man of this city, and Eva Adams, who admitted she was only 17 years of age, the greater part of yesterday to secure a marriage license. When they applied for the license in the morning the young woman said she had neither parents nor guardian and became somewhat indignant when she was informed that before the license could be issued she would have to furnish the consent of some one empowered to do so. It was suggested that she have a guardian appointed, but this the young woman objected to, saying she considered it was simply a scheme to get money out of her. The young couple left the court house and headed a car for Omaha, where it is supposed they were also unsuccessful in securing a license.

Late in the afternoon they returned to the court house, accompanied by James Richards, a farmer of Garner township who was duly appointed the girl's guardian by the clerk of the court and by giving his consent to the marriage the license was finally issued. The young woman was left an orphan when a mere child and had been making her home for a number of years with the family of Mr. Richards.

Hafersville, Cal. The idea?

Unable to Account for Predicament. The man who was rescued from an icy grave near the east end of the Union Pacific bridge, who was found yesterday night was James W. McInelly, who lives at Thirtieth street and Twenty-second avenue. His wagon and team were found on Broadway near Thirtieth street by employees at the water works pumping station, and on instructions from the police, placed in a barn. Mrs. Tinnell was at police headquarters early yesterday morning making inquiries for her husband, who she said had not returned home the previous night. She took the team home and it was reported that Tinnell arrived home later in the day. He was unable to say how he managed to get separated from his wagon and team and down by the river bank.

Announcement was made yesterday that all the drug stores in the city would be closed between the hours of 1 p. m. and 6 p. m., so that the proprietors and their clerks could enjoy their Thanksgiving dinner at their homes.

The poor will not be forgotten. Rev. Henry DeLong has arranged to give the children of his industrial school a feast and entertainment, while the Associated Charities and other such institutions have arrangements to provide the needy with satisfactory dinners. The plan is to utilize the dinner baskets the young women of the Flower mission will lend a willing and helping hand.

At the county and city jails the unfortunate who will spend their Thanksgiving day behind the bars will be remembered and a substantial Thanksgiving dinner will be taken the place of the regular fare today.

At the Christian Home there will be the usual Thanksgiving service in the chapel in the morning, at the close of which Rev. J. G. Lemen will address the brethren on the significance of the day. At the Woman's Christian Association hospital, while there will be no entertainment for the patients, there will be the usual Thanksgiving day dinner for the nurses and attendants.

The pupils at the Iowa School for the Deaf will observe the day in an appropriate manner. In the morning there will be Thanksgiving services in the chapel, followed by an address by Superintendent Rethers to the pupils on the significance of the holiday. At noon a Thanksgiving dinner will be served to the pupils. In the afternoon the children will have a party in the gymnasium and in the evening the pupils will be entertained at a social.

The city school closed yesterday afternoon. In all of the ward schools yesterday short Thanksgiving exercises were held and donations made by the pupils for the poor. At the High school yesterday afternoon the exercises were held in the auditorium, features of which were readings by Prof. Ritchie of Omaha and selections by the newly organized Girls' Glee club. The pupils of the High school contributed over $40 for the poor.

A large crowd is expected to go across the river this afternoon to witness the foot ball game between the Dodge Light guards of this city and Creighton college of Omaha.

There will be a number of dances and other social functions in the evening, one of the most important of such affairs being the first of a series of winter dances to be given by the Council Bluffs Towing association in the large ball room at the Grand hotel.

Independents Seek Entrance. The independent telephone companies are preparing to unite their efforts to get into Council Bluffs and with this end in view a meeting of the Western Iowa Independent Telephone association has been called for Saturday, December 2, in this city. The sessions will be held in the Grand hotel and it is understood that the executive committee of the Commercial club will be invited to meet with the association.

The principal topic for discussion at this meeting will be, it is announced, the question of establishing a terminal or new telephone system in Council Bluffs whereby the independent lines may obtain connection with this city.

The program arranged so far for the meeting is as follows:

"How Can We Persuade the People of Council Bluffs to Accept the Public Lines in Southwestern Iowa? Talk With Them." Opened by W. J. Stratton.

"How Can We Best Secure the Construction of Long-Distance Copper-Metallic Toll Lines in Southwestern Iowa?" Opened by M. A. Reed.

"Rules for Rural Lines and How to Enforce Them." Opened by P. C. Holdrege.

Wolfe Dies from Injuries. J. E. Wolfe, who attempted to murder his wife and Junior Bernard Wagner of the Royal Arcanum hall, in the Rhugard-Beno hotel Tuesday afternoon, and then shot himself, died yesterday afternoon at the Women's Christian association hospital from his self-inflicted wound.

No further attempt to probe for the bullet was made yesterday as Wolfe remained in a precarious condition. He seemed to rally somewhat in the morning, but about noon commenced to sink and died at 4:30 o'clock.

The body was removed to Lunkley's undertaking rooms, where it was examined by a post mortem examination. He failed to locate the bullet, but the examination showed that in his downward course the missile had gone through the abdomen, puncturing the intestines in several places. Coroner Traynor stated last evening that he did not think it would be necessary to hold an inquest. No arrangements for the funeral had been made last night.

The Musical Event of the Season. The Royal Hungarian orchestra, which opens the entertainment course at the First Christian church Saturday, November 26, has among other artists, the celebrated Matus, of which the following is quoted from the Boston Herald: "Matus, one of the greatest attractions at the Boston last evening. He is certainly the greatest pianist of his instrument and seems to take great delight in making it do unknown things." Don't miss it.
