WANTED-MALE HELP.

A BUSINESS EDUCATION Long Ago Admitted as Essential Long Ago Admitted as Essential Several Gecades ago it was the custom with ousdness colleges to parade the ulterances of distinguished men in all their advertising to emphasize the importance of a business concention, but to do so now is a renection upon the intelligence of a community, for not only wise men, but even feore, concede that a business education is indispensable. The question of the hour is, "where shall I go to obtain it? You will make no mistake in selecting a school where, for nineteen years, the practical results produced, declare the practical value of a business education, more effectively than the sayings of men who never saw the inside of a business college.
Such a school may be found at the
