MUCH STOCK IN THE STATE

Number of Horses, Mules, Sheep, Hogs and Cattle Compiled by Union Pacific.

The crop and live stock report compiled by the Union Pacific railroad and just completed shows that at present there are 2,261,000 head of cattle, 2,222,000 head of hogs, 225,000 head of sheep and 309,575 head of horses and mules in the hands of the stock raisers and farmers of the state.

Announcements of the Theaters.
This evening at the Boyd the bill will be "The Merchant of Venice," with Otis Skinner as Shylock and Miss Ada Rehan as Portia. This will be the first appearance of either of these stars of the classic drama before an Omaha audience in the roles, but Miss Rehan long ago won her crown in the part of sweet and vivacious Portia, while Mr. Skinner has been given much praise for his portrayal of the Jew. The staging of the piece is perfect, the original Augustin Daly production being used entirely.

One of the brightest spots in the Orpheum bill this week is a little sketch entitled "A Quiet Evening at Home" and this is made so by the pleasing efforts of Miss Johnstone Bennett, who shows remarkable versatility in depicting no less than four character studies with consummate art. In addition to her acting, her use of marionette effects in dress making much attention from the women folk, as is usually the case with a leader of fashion. The next matinee will be given Thursday.

Macabees, Take Notice.
The funeral of our late brother, Sir Knight William Burnester, will be conducted from the family residence, 2015 California street, Wednesday, at 2 p. m. Macabees will please meet at Odd Fellows hall, Fourteenth and Dodge, at 1 o'clock sharp and attend in a body. Please do not neglect this call.

COFFEE ON THE CARS.

Latest Innovation in Traveling Comforts on the Pennsylvania Lines.

"Ten minutes for refreshments!" and what a scrambling ten minutes for passengers giving up their seats to rush from a train to a lunch counter to bolt a sandwich, their eyes glued on the clock, uneasy that the train is leaving without them; coffee too hot to gulp down; every engine bell producing a nervous start; a feverish moment with the check and a dash back to the train, ticket in one hand and pie in the other. This experience has given way to an innovation in traveling comforts on the Pennsylvania Lines between Chicago and Pittsburgh. While it is but an incident in the greater railroad achievements of rock ballast, double tracks, steel rails, stone bridges and limited trains in which the Pennsylvania System sets the pace, this latest provision for comfort in travel appeals to all who relish breakfast or luncheon in the quiet comfort of their seats in the coach and may not choose to avail themselves of the luxuries of the dining cars. On fast express No. 9, the daylight train from Pittsburgh to Chicago over the Port Wayne Route, and on train No. 6, from Chicago to Pittsburgh over the Fort Wayne, waiters pass through the coaches, serving coffee and sandwiches to passengers.

No wild scramble around a lunch counter. Passengers, without leaving their seats, have breakfast and luncheon brought to them at moderate prices. They dine leisurely and in comfort. Over the cup of fragrant coffee for which the Pennsylvania dining cars are noted, the passenger may view the interesting pictures of Ohio and Indiana scenery. To women, who missed a cup of coffee rather than leave the car, this innovation by the Pennsylvania is a boon.

New Time from Chicago is 1 O'Clock P. M. Daily.

Sam'l Burns is selling a Haviland Berry Set, $20.

These fellows who are helping to fatten the coffers of trading stamp concerns; they either lack the ability or the interest in their own business to push for themselves, so must go in with a concern, the stability of which and the past record of which is not to be PARTICULARLY envid, especially in Omaha. Perhaps we are in this fight OPENLY alone, but we do not care a rap if we are, we won't stand for any party of any kind, or any concern, offering goods we sell for the same price we do and the stamp thrown in, and therefore, as long as a TRADING STAMP is given away in OMAHA or SOUTH OMAHA we will discount 1 PER CENT, OR MORE IF NECESSARY, every article which ANY ONE WILL MAKE ON ANYTHING IN THE DRUG LINE. We do this with our CASH REGISTER.

Save your tickets or discount them at time of purchase.
