Announcements of the Theaters.

The amusement feature held out to theater patrons this afternoon will be the matinee at the Orpheum. Women who are naturally interested in dress will find something out of the ordinary in the wardrobe of Miss Johnstone Bennett and the Rappo Sisters. The former has been distinguished by mannish effects in dress and in her characterization of the swell young club man she shows it with emphasis, while the Rappo Sisters in their Russian terpsichorean steps wear their native style of costume. The program embraces eight numbers.

James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet, will give a reading at the Boyd this evening and for the rest of the week the theater will be dark. On Sunday afternoon Hermann the Great will give the first of three performances.

All November offers continued during December. Good photos with "a premium thrown in." Stonecypher, photographer, 1212 Farnam street.

Horse covers made to fit your horse. Omaha Tack and Awning Co., 11th and Huron streets.

The ladies of the First Methodist Episcopal church will hold a bazaar in the church parlors Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, and serve a 5 o'clock dinner each evening.

Thirty Cents Will Rent Your Vacant Room

Isn't it pretty poor economy to let your room stay vacant?

Every day it might be earning for you two or three times the cost of renting it through a Bee Want Ad.

There are thousands who read the want pages daily as a matter of habit—who look there before they go room hunting. But just now, during the Bee Quotation Contest, almost everyone is reading the want pages word by word.

Ten words three times for 30 cents.
