O'Connor gave dinner at the National Liberal club tonight in honor of William Jennings Bryan, at which a number of Irish and Liberal members of the House of Commons and several representatives of the English and American press were guests. There were no set speeches, but Mr. Bryan, in a purely informal, but eloquent talk, referred to his experiences in England, told how be had profited by his visit, and how he had been impressed by the way in which the people here devoted themselves to the welfare of their country.

Mr. Bryan said the ambition and pride of the people of a country should not be in saying "our army and our navy are the best in the world," but in having the best government in the world, and in being able to say "our government stands for justice and humanity and is so recognized in all parts of the world."

To that end Mr. Bryan said he would devote his life and hoped to bequeath his children a legacy greater than any accumulation of wealth, BERLIN, Dec. 3.-The Bondelzwarts tribesmen of German Southwest Africa, after their defeat November 21 by the German expeditionary column, retreated into British territory and occupied some Islands in the Orange river. The battle, which was fought at Sandfuntein, began November 25. The firing was kept up almost continuously for two days, both sides observing cautious tactics. The tribeamen lost heavily, according to the official advices, and the German losses were slight, but are not ent merated. St. Louis Grand Jury Charges Prominent Lawyer with Forgery.

FALSE MORTGAGES FIGURE IN CASE

Former Attorney for World's Fair Accused of Issuing Fraudulent Documents and Securing Cash from Blow Estate.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 3.-The October grand today returned two indictments forgery in the first degree. Each indictmembers were late, as each of these bodies Blair of a deed of trust to secure a loan

One indictment alleges that on December 10, 18%, Blair filed for record a forged deed not the Warren company was the manubowed. Von Buelow stood on the left of in favor of Michael O'Laughlin and his the throne and read the emperor's message wife, Johanna, to Louis A. Meyer for $12.-000. Seven notes and property near Fourteenth and Spruce streets were given as seto express here his thanks to all those who curity. The other indictment charges that have sympathized with his sufferings and on July 10, 1895, Blair filed a forged deed for to say that their sympathy and hopes for $50,000 in favor of Elizabeth and John Dwyer and the St. Louis Trust company, their agent, to Otto L. Mersmer. It covered eleven notes and property at Seventh still suffered somewhat from the and Pine streets. The indictments also charge Blair with forgery of the seal of the St. Louis recorder of deeds.

The indictments were assigned to Judge Daniel G. Taylor's division of the circuit court. A capias was issued early this evening for the arrest of Blair and was placed in the hands of three deputy sheriffs for service. They were then firstructed to proceed to Mullanphy hospital, where Blair has been confined by illness since his collapse several weeks ago. The punishment in each case ranges from ten years to life imprisonment.

Crimes Are Not Outlawed. An impression which prevailed that the crimes which Roberts charged were outlawed by the statute of limitation and that Blair could consequently not be prosecuted was erroneous. Forgery in the first degree is not covered by the statute of limitations The law on which the indictments are based is section 1991 of the revised statutes of Missouri, which provides that "every person who shall forge, counterfeit or falsify any deed or other instrument being or purporting to be the act of another, or any certificates of the acknowledgment of the proof of any deed or other instrument which may be recorded or any certificate of the filing or recording of any such deed or instrument with intent to defraud, shall be guilty of forgery in the first degree."

As soon as it was known that indictments had been found a note conveying the information was sent in to Mr. Blatr at the hospital. Dr. Homan, his physician, responded in person and said that Mr. Blair had no statement to make, but referred all inquiries to his attorneys.

The indictment is the result of charges filed by James T. Roberts, an attorney at one time employed in Blair's law office Roberts, who had become familiar with Blair's private affairs, secured certain papers and records on which he afterwards based his charges that Blair was juggling the finances of large estates committed to his trust. That was more than three years ago. The story, however, dld not become public until the present grand jury began an investigation.

Roberts, following his appearance before and mortgages on which $63,000 was obtained from the estate of the late Peter felted and used the notarial seals of the recorder of St. Louis, and frequently employed "Walter E. few grains of fact." Blair acted as a sort of fiscal agent for the firm of Dick Bros, of Philadelphia and New York, of which Evans B. Dick, a relative, is a head. In the Blow estate he was cotrustee with Edward S. Robert.

The grand jury requested the Dicks, their attorney, George B. Graham, and others to come to St. Louis to testify, but the communication was ignored. The grand jury weeks. Bankers, merchants and others thought to have knowledge of the case were summoned.

Owing to his reported serious illness Blair was removed from his home to Mullanphy hospital one month ago. Varying reports of his condition have been given from time to time to the public. It was at first stated at the hospital that Blair was rapidly declining and that his death was a question of only a short time. Following this came the information that the patient was on the verge of insanity. He is now reported to have almost fully recovered.

Blair Gives Bond,

Blair gave bond in the sum of $10,000 early this evening to answer to the two indictments against him.

Before the deputy sheriffs started for the ospital with the capias word was received through one of the defendant's attorneys that Blair would appear personally before Judge Taylor and give bond. The capias was withdrawn and Blair's appearance was awaited. Later a closed carriage hurriedly drove up to the circuit court and Blair, accompanied by James A. Beddon, his former law partner, John F. Lee, a close personal friend and Attorney H. T. Kent, was received in chambers by Judge Tay lor. Less than fifteen minutes was spent in arranging the bond, which was for the sum of $5,000 in each of the two indictments Lee. Assistant Circuit Attorney C. O.

Whether Dowie's home, Shiloh House, h connected with the administration building, 200 feet away, by an underground tunnel, is a question that is puzzling Custodian Redieske. Dowie had an appointment with Redieski, and while the custodian was standing at the door of the administration sullding waiting for Dowie to appear, he was notified that Dowle was awaiting him inside. Dowle kept another appoints today in the same mysterious way, and then Redieski came to the conclusion that Dowle must be possessed of an under ground passage between the two build ings.
