Announcements of the Theater.

Johnstone Bennett is scoring well in her sketch, "A Quiet Evening at Home" at the Orpheum this week. There will be just three more performances of the present bill, tonight and Saturday matinee and night.

The next attraction at the Boyd theater will be Herrmann the Great, who will open an engagement of three performances with a matinee on Sunday afternoon.

"The Chaperons," the big musical comedy that opens at the Krug theater next Sunday matinee, is assured of large audiences, for the advance sale of tickets is very heavy. About sixty people, including a big beauty chorus, are engaged in "The Chaperons," but the Krug theater regular scale of prices will prevail.

Great Annual Book Number.

The First Annual Book Number of The Bee will be issued Sunday, December 6. To insure receiving a copy order now. Five cents a copy.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who, by their sympathy and act of kindness, helped us through the suspense and sorrow of the sudden death of our beloved son and brother, MR. AND MRS. W. S. LESTER AND SISTERS.

Horns covers made to fit your horse. Omaha Tent and Awning Co., 11th and Harney streets.

Thirty Cents Will Rent Your Vacant Room

Isn't it pretty poor economy to let your room stay vacant? Every day it might be earning for you two or three times the cost of renting it through a Bee Want Ad. There are thousands who read the want pages daily as a matter of habit—but who look there before they go room hunting. But just now, during The Bee Quotation Contest, almost everyone is reading the want pages word by word. Ten words three times for 30 cents.
