CRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

setbac't to Wheat Prices Comes Through L'quidarin by Longs

CORN PRICES ARE SOMEWHAT LOWER

Onts and Provisions Follow Rest of Market on Reports of Large Receipts of Hogs and Sell-

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Liquidation by local feigs and indisposition on the puriof the traders in general to upon new accounts to carry over sunday reached in a setunck to grain prices today, and and wheat closed by tower may con and outs were each down buble, while January provisions closed from 14 to 17be lower. The cables did not respond to the advance here yesterday caused an easier tone in wheat at the start, and opening sales on May were unchanged to be lower at 85kc to 85kc. There was a fair scattered demand early, but the offerings were more than sufficient to meet the wants and after selling at 85kg55kc, May gradually declined. Local longs sold freely throughout the entire session and there was nothing in the way of news to stimulate any large buying movement. With the exception of the July option, which was firm on continued dry weather in the winter wheat section, the market closed weak, with May be lower, at 85kc; after selling at 85kg. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 256,100 bushels, against $45.00 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicage reported receipts of 576 cars, against $65 cars a year ago.

Expectations of heavy deliveries on De-

Expectations of heavy deliveries on December contracts caused liberal liquidation of that option in the corn pit, and the market weakened under the pressure to sell. The weakenes in wheat also had a depressing influence. The demand was only moderate and from scattered sources. After opening a shade to had to look to lower, at 434,6 454c, May sold between 274,642c and 434,6 454c, May sold between 274,642c and 434,6 454c, and a considered sources. After opening a shade to had to receipts were 205 cars, with 7 of contract grade.

The same conditions that governed wheat and corn prevailed in cats and the market ruled weak. Local longs sold out their December holdings and this affected the whole list. May opened a shade to 1454c lower, at 354,6354c, and sold between 25 cars.

Liberal receipts of hogs and renewed lower, at 354,636%, and sold between 3.c and 36%, closing at 36%. Local receipts were 135 cars.

Liberal receipts of hogs and renewed talk of enormous receipts for next week caused liquidation of provisions. The selling was largely by packers. Shorts were the best buyers, but there was a scattered demand from other sources that held the market steady at the docline. January pork closed 17% to lower, at 36.37% and 35.37% and ribs were each 7% lower, at 36.37% and 35.37%. Estimated receipts for Monday: Wheat, 85 cars; corn, 200 cars; oats, 180 cars; hogs, 60.000 head.

Cotton Market.

Cotton Market.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—COTTON—The opening was steady at a net loss of 26/15 points, on the argument that outstanding secounts had probably been perty well evened up, while cables were distinctly below expectations, and the outlook was for heavy receipts. A good demand developed at the lower level, however, and while realizing continued to be heavy, offerings were promptly absorbed and prices railed to about last night's finals. Trading a was fairly active, but fluctuations comparatively narrow. After showing at one dime a net gain of a bout life points the market excel off a little toward the close under realizing and was finally steady, net 2 points lower to 4 points higher. Sales were estimated at 50,000 bales.

A good are a little toward the close of last week, there is very little change in a little form $150 to $1.0 and the prices fully steady. Good to choles to be a good and the prices fully steady. Good to choles to be a good and the prices fully steady. Good to choles to be a good and the prices fully steady. Good and the same quality feds are beginning to arrive, but they are mostly short-fed and sell in about the same notches as grassers of the same quality and flesh.

Bulls, yeal calves and stags are still selling in about the same notches they have been for the last several wacks.

The week opened with an active demand for stockers and feeders and prices advanced a little. Toward the close of the week, however, there was not as much activity and a large share of the advance was lost, closing prices being about the same as a week ago. Common cattle sell from $3.00 down, fair to good from $3.00 to $5.25, and good to choice from $3.25 to $5.50.

There has been a big decrease in the receipts of western grass beef steers, but those that have arrived have met with ready sale at firm prices all the week. Western cows and stockers and feeders have fluctuated as noted above.

HOGS—Conditions were all unfavorable to the selling interests this morning and the market bers opened about a nickel lower. A few loads sold at prices that were not much, if any lower, but before there was time to transact much business the market weakened still more and kept getting worse, until at the close the loss was fully a dime. Trading was slow all the morning, as it seemed to be hard for buyers and sellers to agree on prices. Heavy weights sold largely from $4.55 to $4.40, and butcher weights, or those weighing from 200 to 250 pounds, if of good quality, sold from $4.6 to $4.50.

There has been a fairly liberal run of hogs here this week, as there is a small increase over last week, but there is a sight decrease as compared with the same work, as there is a small increase over last week, but there is a sight decrease as compared with the same week of last year. There has been a fairly liberal run of hogs here this week, as there is a small increase over last week, but there is a sight decrease as compared with the same work of last year. There has been a stronger tone to the trade this week, and even with today's deeline the advance for the week amounts to nearly a
