

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

On Quotations Reports Wheat Market Shows Erratic Movement. CORN PRICES ARE SOMEWHAT LOWER. Oats and Provisions Higher on Decrease of Visible Supply in Former Commodity, Light Receipts of Lard.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Conflicting reports from Argentina in regard to the weather conditions in that country caused an erratic wheat market here this morning. The market was influenced by the action of the leader of the bull clique. Active buying by the strong close. May being up 1/16 to 1/8. Corn market closed lower on the distant futures. Active buying in January provisions closed from 25c to 1/2c higher.

The opening in wheat was a trifle easier due to large world's shipments and lower cables. May was unchanged to 1/16 lower. Lard was higher on the report of a decline in the visible supply together with later reports from Argentina contradicting the earlier advice and claiming favorable harvesting weather there brought out a strong demand for the commodity. The price again declined. May being down to 1/16. Much of the selling was due to rumors to the effect that the Argentine government was to export wheat to the United States through commission houses. There was an urgent demand during the day by brokers for May and June contracts. The market was active and the price advanced 1/16. The demand came mainly from commission houses. The demand was for May and June contracts. The price advanced 1/16. The demand came mainly from commission houses.
