

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Big Purchase by Long Interests Brought Serious Break in Wheat. CORN PRICES ARE SOMEWHAT LOWER Oats Follow Other Grains, Showing Easier Tone and Lower Prices. While Provisions Are Neglected.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Notwithstanding a general decline movement today and bearing news, both domestic and foreign, a serious break in wheat was prevented, the principal factor being big purchases by the leading long. May wheat closed 74 1/2 cents, 1/2 cent higher than yesterday. Corn advanced 1/2 cent to 35 1/2 cents. Oats advanced 1/2 cent to 24 1/2 cents. Provisions were neglected, but in the absence of offerings the market about held its own. Packers continued to sell in a slow way, but a few commission houses from commission houses to absorb the offerings and prices ruled steady at a slow decline. The market for hogs was quiet, but a few commission houses from commission houses to absorb the offerings and prices ruled steady at a slow decline.
