32 to 40 bust.

Neglige with Store Conar 4601-To be gathered or accordion plaited. Simple negligees are always attractive and fill so evident a need as to be counted anyong the necessities of the wardrobe. This one can be gathered or accordion plaited as preferred, and includes the fashiounble wide collar with stole ends. The model is made of pale pink crepe albatross with the collar of white, edged with a pretty fancy braid, but any soft and pliable fabric is aproppriste, and the collar can be of the material, of contrasting color, or of silk or wool, as may be liked.

The negligee consists of a shallow yoke to which the front and back are joined, the full sleeves and the wide collar. The sleeves are fuller below the elbows and snugger above and are gathered into straight cuffs. When accordion plaiting is preferred both the fronts and back are cut of sufficient width and are finely plaited before being joined to the yoke. The collar is arranged over the shoulders and seamed to the neck, its stole finishing the front.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 5% yards 21 inches wide, 5% yards 27 inches wide, or 3% yards 44 inches wide, when negligee is gathered; 7% yards 21, 6% yards 44 inches wide, when it is accordion plaited, with % yard of contrasting material for collar, and 3 yards of fancy braid to trim as illustrated. The pattern 4001 is cut in sizes for a 23 34, 36, 38 and 40-inch bust measure.

For the accommodation of The Bee readers these patterns, which usually retail at from 25 to 50 cents, will be furnished at a nominal price, 10 cents, which covers all expense. In order to get a pattern enclose 10 cents, give number and name of pattern.

Who knows about the streets and avenues of the town in which they live.

"Streets of Omaha"

The Bee is going to give some handsome prizes to the people who know most about our Omaha streets and avenues.

Beginning Monday, December 14, and ending Sunday, December 20, at the head of the Want Ad pages will be printed five questions each day, the answer to which will be found on the Want Ad pages and will be the name of one of the streets of Omaha. The name of the street will not necessarily be in the address at the bottom of the want ad. It may be in the body of the advertisement.

An Example: Give the name of a street named ' after the "Little Giant," Lincoln's antagonist.

This, of course, was Stephen A. Douglas. Look through the Want Ad pages until you find the name of Douglas street, and cut out the advertisement, as directed below. The conditions of the contest are as follows:

At the top of a sheet of paper write your name and address. In case you should use more than one sheet, write your name and address at the top of each separate sheet. Then write out the question as it appears in the paper and paste below the want ad, clipped from the paper containing the name of the street which constitutes the answer. Underline the name of the street.

Do the same with the second question, and so on until you have completed the thirty-five questions which will appear during the week.

The person giving the greatest number of correct answers will receive first prize. The person having next nearest number, the second prize, etc.

In case of a "tie," the person sending in answer first, as shown by postmark on the envelope, will be given the preference.

All answers must be sent by mail, and no answers will be considered which are mailed later than Monday, December 21.

No one connected with The Bee Publishing Company will be allowed to compete for a prize.

Do not send in your answers until the end of the contest.
