

APPEALS THE BARTLEY CASE

State Will Ask Supreme Court to Reverse Verdict for the Bondsmen.

EXPERT MAY CHECK UP COLBY'S BOOKS

Supreme Court Says Official Need Not Account for Fees Where Service Performed is No Part of the Duties of the Office.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Dec. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The suit against the Bartley bondsmen, which was decided by the district court of Douglas county against the state, is to be appealed to the supreme court, and a transcript of the proceedings in the lower court has been ordered. Much pressure has been brought to bear to stop this appeal and it was almost conceded that nothing further would be done in the matter until the last few days.

State May Check Colby.
Governor Mickey is considering the advisability of employing an expert accountant to check up the books of former Adjutant General Colby. It is his plan now to employ someone who is willing to take his chances with the next legislature for his pay. He expects also to have the accountant check up the accounts of other former officers in this department in order that the records may be all straightened up. It is the belief of the governor that such a procedure would be of benefit to the state in that it will be shown that it has much more property coming to it from the government than it has received.

Griswold Asks Divorce.
W. B. Griswold, a prominent citizen of this place, today filed a suit for divorce from his wife. The papers were withdrawn from the files immediately. Griswold was the subject of many newspaper stories several weeks ago when it was rumored that he had been indicted for the murder of his wife. He denied that he had filed a suit for divorce, but he had filed the suit.

Helm Can Keep Fees.
The supreme court has decided that ex-Register of Deeds Helm did not have to pay back money received as fees for looking up the names of signers of saloon licenses, to see if they were fresh-fishers. The court held, "A county officer is not required to account for or pay over to his county money received by him in payment of services performed for another by private agreement which are not part of the duties of his office and which are not incompatible with, and are not included within his official duties."

Jensen Need Not Pay.
By the affirmation of the judgment of the lower court in the case of the Corn Exchange National Bank against Jensen, Peter Jensen of Jefferson county is better off by $2,000 or $3,000 than he might have been. Some years ago Mr. Jensen was involved in a Chicago Board of Trade man to invest in margins. He lost heavily, some $40,000 or $50,000 and was far as he was able. He was pushed by some of the holders of his notes and in self defense refused to pay them on the ground that the transaction was gambling. The Corn Exchange bank of Chicago was the holder of some of these notes and in the attempt to collect on them met with defeat in the district court. The supreme court holds that dealing in options constitutes a contract that cannot be enforced at law because tainted with the vice of gambling.

GENERAL WINT MAY COME IN MARCH

Next Commander of Department of the Missouri Now in the Philippines and General Carr Will Act.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative Kinkaid today introduced a bill to restore to homesteaders upon the lands which formerly constituted Fort Randall United States military reservation, abandoned as such, situated in the states of Nebraska and South Dakota, their homestead rights. The bill provides that all persons who, under and by virtue of the homestead laws, have made entry and perfected title to any agricultural lands upon the Fort Randall United States military reservation, situated in Boyd county, Nebraska, and Gregory county, South Dakota, or who have made entry upon any of these lands, but who have not perfected their title, be given the right to take another homestead and perfect title thereto as if their homestead rights had not been exercised upon any of the lands aforesaid.

Brigadier General Theodore J. Wint, who has been assigned to the command of the Department of the Missouri with headquarters at Omaha, will in all probability not arrive in the United States until the Philippines until in March of next year. Until General Wint's arrival the department will be under the command of Colonel Camille C. Carr, commandant at Fort Riley, Kan., who it is expected will report for duty very shortly.

Secretary Root escorted Mrs. Roosevelt to the table. Secretary Hay was detained by sickness and Senator Hanna was called away on business.

COLBY MAKES A DEPOSIT

Former Adjutant General Gives Gov't or Mickey $2,482.

MOST OF IT IS A REIMBURSEMENT

Represents Warrant Cashied by Colby, but Intended as Payment for Blankets Taken by the Penitentiary.

LINCOLN, Dec. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—Former Adjutant General Colby has turned over to Governor Mickey $2,482, of which $200 is to cover any shortage that may be found. The remainder represents the warrant cashied by General Colby to pay for blankets taken from the adjutant's office and used at the penitentiary. General Colby came up from Beatrice last night and at once drove to the office of General Culver, whom he had arranged, by telephone, to meet. Governor Mickey was then sent for, and after a short conference, the money was paid over to him. One-half of it was in cash and the remainder a check on a Beatrice bank. No receipt was given until this morning, when General Colby cashied the check and turned over the entire amount in cash.

The money has been deposited in the First National bank, subject to the order of the governor. It will remain there until Governor Mickey has communicated with the War department to see whether the money belongs to the government or the state. General Colby told Governor Mickey that he had held the money, waiting to see to whom it should be paid. He acknowledged to the governor, however, so the latter said, that he had not mentioned the fact that he had the blanket money when he went out of office. It is probable that Governor Mickey will at once start an expert checking up the books of the former adjutant, as it is the latter's wish that this be done as soon as possible.

This has been an unusually heavy month for the visiting nurses' association, fifty-five patients having been cared for; 609 visits have been made; special nurses supplied in nine cases; a deeper shade of relief, five to friends, and there have been three deaths. The monthly meeting held Thursday afternoon was large, and the increased demand for this splendid work seems to bring increased help to carry it on.

A New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some on the dummy that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby."

LEW WALLACE TRYING X RAYS
Eminent Author in New York Taking Treatment for Cancerous Growth in Nose.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 17.—A special to the News from New York says: General Lew Wallace is in this city under the care of an eminent specialist. He is taking the X-ray treatment for a cancerous condition of the nose and if this treatment is not successful may submit to an operation as a last resort. He has suffered from this ailment for a number of years. It has not affected his general health and the ailment may not shorten his days.

For several years he has gone periodically to Cincinnati for treatment and for months at a time has tried the X rays at that place, seemingly with success in arresting the progress of the disease. It is understood that his trip to New York was taken at the earnest solicitation of his family and near friends.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

The following officers of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association were in the city yesterday in attendance at an executive meeting held at the headquarters in the Paxton block.

Mrs. Frank Young of Broken Bow, president; Mrs. Marie of Table Rock, vice president; Mrs. L. M. Starnes of Humboldt, corresponding secretary; Miss Mary Ward of Tecumseh, recording secretary, and Mrs. John Dempster, treasurer. In the evening Mrs. Dempster entertained the women at her home, 305 Dodge street.

The attention of the New York state branch of the National Society of United States Daughters of 1813 has been called to the neglected condition of the grave of John Paul Jones in Paris, and a committee has been appointed to confer with the secretary of the nation to see if any action can be done in the matter. Last week the society passed resolutions regarding the patriotic work on Crab Island, where the dead of the battle of Lake Champlain lie in neglected graves. They have since learned that the secretary of war ordered a flag to be placed on the island and has given partial promise of the completion of the work proposed there.

Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford, president of the Colorado Federation of Clubs, is endeavoring to interest the women of the western states in a transcontinental federation of clubs, and is making an extended tour of the clubs of the district to this end. It is proposed to hold the congress in Denver next June.

The announcement is made of the annual dinner of the Primrose Mothers, which will take place at the Waldorf-Astoria December 22. The names of Mrs. Ruth McHenry Stuart, Mrs. William Todd Helmuth and Mrs. Charlotte B. Wilbourn are among the speakers, but no mention is made of Josephine Daskam.

In a letter in the December Club Woman Mrs. Robert Burdette says: "It is nothing new to say that women are learning through organization the wisdom of differentiation and elimination, and the tremendous power possible for co-operation, but I wish to emphasize it, as it has been so repeatedly illustrated in every state I have visited. The reports have been so clear and illuminating, shown of ancient history, visionary theories and unadornable rhetoric, that they have sent the delegates back to their clubs, not with a heavy burden, but with definite and practical plans and progressive ideas that are to be the 'forward' banner for their coming year." Mrs. Burdette has visited nine state federations meetings during the last two months.

Mrs. W. P. Harford will address the gospel meeting of the Young Woman's Christian association Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. "A Christmas Message" to be her text.

The reception committee is planning to make the New Year's reception the most elaborate affair that it has yet given. For the accommodation of the Christmas shoppers, it has been arranged to serve lunch in the association dining room every evening next week.

Class work at South Branch has been suspended until after the holidays. Miss Agnes Ward, financial secretary of the association, is convalescing from an attack of pneumonia.
