Commission Transmits Annual Report to Congress. WHAT THE VARIOUS ROADS ARE DOING

Gross Earnings and Operating Expenses Are Summarized and Compared with Showing of Previous Years.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Following is a synopsis of the seventeenth annual report of the Interstate Commerce Commission, transmitted to congress today:

The preliminary income account for the year ending June 30, 1933, shows railway returns for 20,467 miles of line, which is approximately 98 per cent of the entire mileage in the United States. Gross earnings for that year amounted to $1,891,159,573, or $92.83 per mile of line. Operating expenses aggregated $1,256,550,400, or $61.38 per mile, leaving net earnings of $633,609,173, or $31.45 per mile. In this statement of operating expenses, compared with the previous year, the decrease was $10,000,000 and stock dividends are stated by $10,000,000. In 1932 the gross earnings averaged only $8.12 and operating expenses $4.10 per mile of line.

Their Net Income. The total net income of the roads included in this advance report was $584,776,582. This amount includes $20,000,000 received as income from corporate investments and miscellaneous income. The aggregate of the deductions from income was $644,546,723. The principal items comprised in these deductions were: depreciation of property, $240,000,000; interest on bonds, $120,000,000; taxes, $100,000,000; and dividends, $84,546,723.
