DES MOINES, Dec. 22.-Mrs. W. T. Cumnins, mother of Governor Albert B. Cum-Governor Cummims was at the bedside at the last moment. He had been with her constantly since his arrival from Bos ton a week ago, until her death.

It was less than ten days ago that Governor Cummins, while attending a banquet n Boston, received a telegram announ the serious illness of his mother. He can celled his engagement to address the meet ing and hurried west as fast as limited trains could carry him. It was a race with death and the governor won, arriving home while his mother was yet conscious. From that moment she seemed to improve and until yesterday there were hopes of her recovery. Last night, however, she grew rapidly worse and expired this morning at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Cummins was a descendant from an historic family. An ancestor was a signer of the Meckienburg declaration of independence. She was a native of Green county, Pennsylvania, and was 77 years of age. Her malden name was Flenniken.

A half filled can of kerosene and a term of twenty years in the penitentiary. a lighted fire were found, indicating an accident while preparing her husband's noonday meal. A coroner's examination and an autopsy, however, has revealed evidences of strangulation prior to the burning. It also developed that the husband was restrained by an order of court from entering the home and that he had threatened the woman's life. The coroner's nostry is not ended.

Miss Winnie Reider, a member of the Grau Opera company, is a daughter of the dead woman by a former husband. She was expected home from Chicago on the day of her mother's death to spend the holidays, but has not arrived. last night. Andrew Welch, a laborer, got in front of an lowa Falls train in the eastern part of the city and was mangled al-most beyond recognition. He was seen by a laborer to roll from under the pilot and the train was stopped. It is a mystery how he met the accident. John Noland, a section hand on the Rock Island, was struck and killed by a Great Western train in the yards. He was on his way to work and stepped from one track to another without observing the approach of a train. Failed to Hob a Bank.

Custodian T. C. McCudry of the Iowa state house received word today to the effect that a second attempt was made Sunday evening to rob his bank at Hazelton. Buchanan county, but that the burglars were frightened away without accomplishing their purpose. They left all their tools and had done no harm to the bank. A short time ago an attempt was made to get into the bank, but the burglars took their tools away.

Rev. Dr. I. N. McCash, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league work, and Rev H. H. Abrams, who is head of the legislative department, have clashed over the proposed state marshal law, which is being urged by A. C. Rankin, another temperance worker. Rankin has been organizing clubs all over the state to insist on a law to create state district marshals to have in hand the work of enforcing prohibition in counties where prohibition prevails. Abrams has taken ground in opposition to the law and declares that it is impracticable and the other temperance workers of the state are up in arms against him. ST. LOUIS, Dec. s.-The list of known killed in the explosion last night at the Geyer avenue power house of the St. Louis Transit company has been increased to five.

The dend are; JOHN DIXON, colored fireman. WILLIAM WILSON, steamfitter. JESSE THOMAS, colored fireman. FRANK STEELE, colored.

LOUIS BARBER, colored fireman. The body of John Dixon, one of the colred firemen, was found this morning seven feet from the place where he was at work. It is not known whether he was blown that istance or was killed after running.

The ruins are being searched today for additional victims, as a number of employes are still missing. It is not known whether they were killed or escaped and falled to report. A. B. Dupont, second vice president of the company, said today that the ompany's loss would not be as great as might be supposed. He believes $25,000 will cover the total loss.

The force of the explosion broke window canes for several blooks in the vicinity.

Suggestive of Omana Catastrophe. Without premonition the bollers let go, the brick walls fell outward and the heavy truss roof dropped, covering the debris in which almost twenty employes were imprisoned. Instantly all the electric lights went out and darkness prevented prompt work in rescuing the injured, whose cries could be plainly heard. Fire broke out In one portion of the debris, but was extinguished before it had gained much head WAY.

A fire alarm and ambulance calls were sent immediately and an army of rescuers were at work with lanterns and torches Wilson and Barber were the first to be recovered, but died on the way to the hospital. Falling roofs so completely covered the debris that the rescuers could make their way but slowly in the center of the mass where the majority of the employes were at work when the explo sion occurred.
