Northwestern Wants Instruction on Re-turning Tax Schedules.

BOARD IS NOT CLEAR ON THE SUBJECT

(Those of Teachers Who Are Taking Examinations for State Certificate Arrive and Start in Their Work.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—The State Board of Equalization, with all members present except Treasurer Mortensen, held a short meeting this morning at the request of Manager Bidwell of the Northwestern in Nebraska and Wyoming and Tax Commissioner Crandon of the legal department of the same road.

The teachers began to arrive last night, and while not even a good sized guard has yet showed up, it is expected that tonight and tomorrow they will come in droves. The morning was spent in taking examinations in chemistry and history and the afternoon in examinations in English literature, plane trigonometry and sociology for professional life certificates. Those who took the examinations were: Agnes R. Aleksmit, Cate, Dorothea Kolla, Grand Island; W. R. Pate, Grafton; D. S. Musselwhite, Auburn; Charles R. Watkins, Crete; L. Grundy, Valley; N. J. Stedding; Mrs. P. Bertha Hofstad, Garrettsville; W. D. Kave, Kimball; Grace Eugene, Fremont; R. A. Johnson, South Omaha; J. S. Miller, Avery; Thomas J. Jones, Lawrence.

Libel for Uncollected Fees.

Judge Cornish has decided that C. O. Boettcher and his bondsmen, the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, are responsible for $7,000 fees, which as district clerk of this county Boettcher failed to collect. The court held that a clerk of the court is responsible for the statutory fees due for work done in his office and must account for them whether collected or not.

The case of Boettcher contains some rather unique phases. Sam Lovell, a elected clerk in 1925, died before his term expired. His chief deputy, J. H. Mal-lally, was appointed to fill the remaining nine months. Before six of these nine months had passed he died himself, and Boettcher, who was also a deputy, was named. This was on September 16, 1932. At the legislative session the preceding winter a bill had been passed making the office of district clerk a salaried one instead of a fee office, as it had been for years.

Church Losses in Litigation.

The First Christian church congregation lost out in its lawsuit in district court against the Northwestern Life Insurance company. It secures a small judgment, for $7.36, where it asked for $1,960. The Northwestern filed a motion for a new trial, which was overruled.

Some time ago the church brought suit against the company, claiming $1,960 damages for conversion. It being claimed that the life insurance people had no right to the boiler, the twenty-five radiators, sixty-nine church pews, fourteen two-light gas fixtures, nine one-light fixtures, one three-light and one four-light fixtures, and a thirty-eight-light combination chandelier.

Rob Store at Leavitt.

FREMONT, Neb., Dec. 28.—(Special.)—The store of the Ames Mercantile company at Leavitt was robbed last night of between $200 and $300 worth of goods. When the clerk opened up this morning he found goods scattered about the store and the back door broken open. Hats, shirts, underwear, dress coats, shoes and other goods were taken. From the quantity of goods missing the burglars evidently had a team. The high wind had blown away all traces of tracks. Sheriff Bateman went out to Leavitt this morning, but as he has been unable to get any clue to the thieves. The same store was broken open several hundred dollars' worth of goods taken about two months ago. The officers are convinced there is an organized gang operating in this vicinity, as it is the fourth burglary within the last three months.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 28.—Pursued for twenty-one years by a fear that death would come to him at any moment, Frank McNamee, who was the head of a syndicate that stole more than sixty negro bodies from the Lebanon cemetery in this city, was found unconscious at Fifth and Walnut streets with his head fractured. He died a few hours later.

Reason for His Belief.

"What makes me think there is a deliberate plan to delay so long that nothing will be done? "Well, for one thing the Norfolk hospital is never mentioned in the corridors nor the halls nor the offices of the state house unless the matter is forced. There is never a whisper about the appropriation, nor in there ever a word as to when the contract must be made. There is no talk about it in the newspapers. Just why they believe in it I am not in a position to say, but I have talked with them enough to know that. And in the second place there are a whole lot of people who are interested in this insane asylum. There are more interested than any trying to get the lapse to succeed, and there would be more people in Lincoln than Norfolk or Nebraska has ever been told about who would rejoice at the change of plans.

The accused passes through many persecutions before he is freed from guilt and resumes his honorable station in society.
