ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY ARE CORRECT

Early Rising More Than Ever the Criterion in Determining the Rewards that Will Be Awarded.

Even the lark would have risen too late to pluck the first prize in the towns of Nebraska contest, closed last Sunday, and the "serio-tragic" stride of Judge Cooley was slow compared with the gait of Mr. E. L. Hoag of 239 North Thirty-sixth avenue, who landed his list to a 2 a. m. post mark and captured the first prize. The next two went on 3 a. m. postmarks and as many as 150 being perfect had to be ranged by the time of the posting.

The correct answers were: 1, Lexington; 2, Columbus; 3, Oxford; 4, Lincoln; 5, New-castle; 6, Superior; 7, Grant; 8, Howard; 9, Holdrege; 10, Cody; 11, Fremont; 12, Columbus; 13, Schuyler; 14, Bee; 15, Hastings; 16, Orchard; 17, Plymouth; 18, Nelson; 19, Millard; 20, West Point; 21, Lincoln; 22, Kearney; 23, Liberty; 24, York; 25, Omaha; 26, Auburn; 27, Ashland; 28, Douglas; 29, Crete; 30, Palmyra; 31, Cook; 32, Aurora; 33, Washington; 34, St. Paul; 35, Weston.

HAYDEN BROS.

On Dark Winter Days. No matter how good the light in an office is, it is not so good as the light from the Bee Building. This building maintains its own electric light plant and furnishes its tenants with electric light, without additional charge. This is only one of the many advantages of the Bee Building.

A Dentist can share an office with a doctor with considerable practice, dividing the expense of telephone and office boy. This plan of doing is most desirably located and a dentist would have the use of a good sized private office, properly equipped with water, etc., and the use of a large waiting room. Price per month, $25.00. SUITE 222—This suite of offices consists of a waiting room and a large private office, it faces the broad corridor around the beautiful court of the building and has a north light, which is so sought after by dentists and physicians. The private office can be divided, if desired, to accommodate two professional men, instead of one. Rental price per month, $45.00. SUITE 223—This office is immediately in front of the elevator and is reached immediately on stepping out of the elevator. It is a large, bright, airy office, facing the south and is considered one of the most desirable offices in the building. A private office will be partitioned to suit the tenant, if desired. This office will be vacated for occupancy January 1st. Price per month, $47.00. SUITE 306—This is the only large suite in the building vacant. It faces Farnam, F. C. Ward, West Point, and is in the heart of the building. The suite consists of a waiting room and two private offices, so that it would be admirably suited to two professional men. There is a large burglar-proof vault. This is a most desirable suite of offices in every respect. Rental price per month, $50.00. R. C. PETERS & CO., Rental Agents, Ground Floor, The Bee Building.

Change of Time. On Rock Island system, Sunday, January 2, 1904, on and after which date train leaving Omaha at 1:30 p. m. daily and arriving Omaha at 6:06 p. m. daily will make direct connections at Fairbury with new passenger trains Nos. 25 and 28, running between Fairbury and Nelson; also train No. 57, leaving Omaha 4:10 p. m. daily, and train No. 58, arriving Omaha 12:49 noon daily, will make connections at Bellevue with passenger trains Nos. 9 and 19 and from western Kansas and Colorado points.

Announcements of the Theaters. Lovers of good, clean musical fare will have an inning at the Krug Sunday matinee and night and Monday night, when George Sidney and his big company will be seen in the second edition of "Buddy Lays." That this style of offering is popular with the masses of present day theater-goers there is no denying. Absolutely devoid of rhyme, reason or sense, it presents for the hour that which the overworked brain calls for—laughter, music, slightly environments, vaudeville set to tuneless airs, pretty girls in pretty gowns, etc.

Be Quick. Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take.

Terrell. Finding that I am greatly overstocked in all sorts of materials, I will for the next month make a great reduction on everything in stock—making evening and dinner gowns for less than cost, shirtwaist dresses for $5 and $6, handsome lace gowns for less than cost, cheviot walking skirts for $23, mixed goods, $25. E. H. TERRELL.
