Corn More Than One Cent Higher and Provisions Go Up on Wild Rumor of Hostilities in Far

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—An unfounded report that hostilities had actually broken out between Russia and provisions trivial and provisions trivial actually overcome by profit-takings. May wheat at one time was up 2450 over yesterday's closing figure, May corn 1360 and provisions 1750 to 90c. Closing prices were strong at nearly the top.

John Spring over yesterday's closing figure, May corn 1360 over yesterday's closing figure, May corn 1360 and provisions 1750 to 90c. Closing prices were extremely anxious to cover and there was also a good demand from commission houses. No one seemed willing to sell when the buying or defis appeared to come from all sides. The price opening price on May ranged between Side opening price were light recommendation of the crow of the free movement of the crow of the c

Duluth and Chleago reported recepts of 255 cars, against 633 cars last week and 406 cars a year ago.

Corn opened at a higher level, with the pit all excitement over the war news. Shorts engaged in a wild scramble to cover and commission houses were active on the buying side. May was Mc to le higher at the start, opening at 432476. The advance met with some profit-taking and there was agone let down in prices, but it was not long before the market resumed its upward trend. A prominent provision interest was an active buyer during the latter part of the session and this caused May to advance to 4746 late in the day. Closing prices were near the top. May being up 142046 at 4746. July ranged between 464c and 4746c, closing at 47460474c, a gain of 1447 life. Local receipts were 206 cars, with mone of contract grade.

Oats were influenced by the strength in other grains, but active selling by a prominent commission house checked the advancing tendency and resulted in only moderate advances for the day. May opened 46 214c to 4694c higher at 2946094c, and after selling between 394c and 334c closed at 3346354c a gain of 1664c. Local receipts were 25 cars.

Provisions, like grain, were up on the war excitement. News relative to the market liself was bearish. There were liberal receipts of hogs and prices at the yards were 10c lower. Commission houses, however, were heavy buyers for outside account, and there was little pressure to sell. May pork led in the advance and closed 574c higher at $23.674. after selling between $17.124. and $13.70. May lard was un 174c at $7.124. and si3.70. May lard was un 174c at $7.124. and ribs were 174620c higher at $2.600 higher at $2.600

Regardless of Bad Effect of Scare on Securities it Falls to Advance Those Which May Be Benefited.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—There was a rather violent fall in prices today under the joint influence of a recrudescence of the war scare and the poor quarterly report of the carnings of the United States Steel corporation. The war scare was the dominating influence late in the day, not only in the stock market, but in all the speculative markets. The grain markets and the cotton market broke in accordance with the commonly accepted view that an outbreak of war between Russia and Japan would awaken an active demand for cereals to be exported from our Pacific coast points, while the interruption of the Chinese cotton trade would affect that staple. Whatever inconsistencies there may be in this view they were not of dissuasive influence on the speculative activity of professional traders who held it.

The Pacific railroads were also conspicuously lacking in any benefit from the ex-
